

First Army Opens New Assault on Siegfried Line

Today's Campus

... Nazis or Termites?

Half of Prof. Dean Kuykendall's advertising class was roused from slumber yesterday when what's a piece of "driftwood" the crashed past the window. Kuykendall dismissed the incident, saying that the building was merely falling apart. "Now," scoffed a semi-conscious student, "Them's termites."

... Imprudent Student

The freshman class has always been regarded as being a bunch of eager beavers, more or less, but this year it's mostly more. Anyone who saw the coed from the class of '48 looking all fagged out by 9 a.m. may be inclined to doubt it. But when asked why, she replies, "I got up at 1 a.m. for my first class." Maybe it was just that she couldn't decide what to wear.

Sorority Women Observe Silence

Silence period for all sorority women and rushees went into effect at 9 p.m. yesterday following the preference dinner. This means that no sorority women should contact any rushee until Monday noon.

Contacting does not include the friendly hello, supposedly prevalent on campus. This greeting has been given the nod by PanHel council.

Rushees will sign the preference list this morning in the lower deck of the Union and will pick up their bids Monday morning. Sorority pledging will take place Monday evening.

Silence period is observed in order to allow rushees time to decide on the sorority of their choice without outside influence. Monday afternoon, rushees and sorority women may contact one another again.

News in Brief

ROME, Oct. 6 (AP)—Pushing forward up to three miles through rain and mud against stout resistance by crack Nazi reinforcements, the American fifth army won positions 13 miles southeast of Bologna yesterday and drove to within nine miles of the strategic Bologna-Rimini highway. Allied headquarters announced today.

CHUNGKING, Oct. 6 (AP)—Reinforced Japanese have reached the northwestern suburbs of Fochow last Chinese-held major port on the east China coast, in their drive to forestall American landings from the Pacific, the Chinese high command announced tonight. Fall of the city seemed imminent.

LONDON, Oct. 6 (AP)—Holland's exile government accused Germany tonight of "malicious and ruthless" preparations for demolition of the seawalls guarding the reclaimed lowlands, an action which would mean the flooding of approximately 46 per cent of the country and disaster to nearly 65 per cent of its population.

Verdi Opera Has Become One of Most Popular in Recent Years

By BECKY STAHL

"La Traviata," the opera by Verdi which will be presented today at 8:15 p.m. in College auditorium, was once proclaimed by London critics as unfit for music because of the nature of the plot. An opera with a consumptive heroine was no more rational than a ballet with a lame Syphide, was the contention of "those who knew."

However, the opera has since become one of the most popular ever produced, and has won audiences for more than 100 years. Among the artists in today's performance will be Stella Andrevia as Violetta, Armand Tokatyan as Alfredo, Daniel Dune as Germont, Lodovico Olivieri as Gaston, and Doris Doree alternating as Annina and Flora. Desire DeFrer will direct the production.

The plot of "La Traviata" is woven around the love of Violetta Valery and Alfredo Germont. Violetta, already afflicted with consumption, meets Alfredo, an admirer of about a year, at a party at her home.

Because of her love for him she gives up her questionable life and the two lead an idyllic existence in the country. However, Violetta finds it necessary to sell much of her property to make the continuance of this life possible.

Alfredo learns of her intention, and goes to Paris to raise the sum himself. During his absence Germont, his father, persuades Violetta that unless she leaves Alfredo, her lover's sister will not be able to make a suitable match.

Violetta consents to leave Alfredo, and convinces him that she is leaving because of her desire for her old life. In her grief, she plunges more deeply into dissipation than before, to Alfredo's sorrow and anger. When next they meet, he insults her for her faithfulness.

All students unable to get reserved seats for the opera "La Traviata" will be given first choice for seats to the opera "The Gypsy Baron," Oct. 18. Students must present their treasurer's receipts on Saturday, Oct. 14.

All students with seats beyond the 25th row for "La Traviata" will be given a choice of seats Monday, Oct. 16 for "The Gypsy Baron." They must present their seat stub from tonight's opera.

Remaining seats for "The Gypsy Baron" will be distributed Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 17 and 18. Students should be at College auditorium not later than 8:15 tonight, Dean of Students S. E. Crowe warned yesterday.

Reserved seats for Will Durant's lecture Friday, will be ready at the accounting office Monday, Oct. 9.

sorrow and anger. When next they meet, he insults her for her faithfulness.

One of Violetta's admirers challenges him to a duel, and the excitement causes Violetta to become seriously ill. Alfredo's father, realizing the sincerity of her love for his son, gives his consent to their union, and Alfredo returns to her.

Violetta, who has sacrificed herself for her lover's sake, dies in his arms.

Grecian Battlefield Expands as British Move on Others

ROME, Oct. 6 (AP)—British invasion forces in Greece advanced today toward the Isthmus of Corinth, gateway to Athens, and it appeared that the Germans already had abandoned most of the Peloponnesus getting out of all of Greece as rapidly as they could.

Seizure of the fortified town of Rion, seven miles east of the captured port of Patrai, sealed off the Gulf of Corinth at its narrow mouth.

Up the Adriatic coast, British guns on the Dalmatian islands shelled enemy traffic along the coastal road. British planes on a raid near Salonika destroyed three enemy transport planes and shot up a dozen retreating Nazi motor vehicles.

Deserted by their German masters, "security battalions" of collaborating Greeks were reported surrendering without a fight.

Bicycle Rules Issued for Campus Riders

Regulations concerning the riding and parking of bicycles on the campus were released yesterday by Richard Rogers, chief of campus police.

In the main they are: observe the same rules that apply to automobiles when on the streets and drives.

Never ride more than two abreast.

Park bicycles in the rack provided. If no rack is near, park on the grass. Do not leave bicycles on the sidewalks or in building entrances.

When riding after dark it is necessary to have a headlight and rear light or reflector.

Surprise Advance Carries Troops Near Cologne

Nazi Counterattacks Force Withdrawal From Beggendorf

SHAFF, Oct. 6 (AP)—The U.S. first army dealt a great surprise blow at the Siegfried line south of the German fortress of Aachen today, driving through the evergreen forest of Hurtgen to within 26 miles of Cologne and the Rhine behind the drumfire of massed artillery and swarms of warplanes.

This new assault was uncorked as the Germans, sucked 16 miles north to defend a breach torn in the line by a first army drive now five days old, hurled in all available reserves and 30 tanks and drove the Americans temporarily from Beggendorf, at the tip of a salient menacing the Ruhr valley.

Drive Too New for Results

Then the doughboys, reinforced by tanks, swept back into Beggendorf and the German town was reported firmly in their grasp.

It was too early to tell whether the savage new onslaught, 10 miles southeast of Aachen, caught the enemy off balance, but a front dispatch said Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' assault units advanced nearly a mile in an hour and a half and were within six miles of Duren, 20 miles from Cologne.

Hundreds of fighter-bombers, loosed by the first clear weather since the big push opened, blasted at camouflaged bunkers and pillboxes hidden along the needle-carpeted floor at Hurtgen forest. But still advance units were met by a storm of mortar and small arms fire.

Breach Seven Miles Wide

Stalled north of Aachen by the fury of German attacks rolling up from the east, Hodges sent his tanks lancing three miles northward to the southern outskirts of Geilenkirchen, key fortified German town 12 miles north of Aachen.

The doughboys at Beggendorf—little more than a mile from a main road stretching 30 miles northeast to Dusseldorf and the Ruhr valley—withdrawed before a terrific attack by tanks, infantry and artillery.

The Siegfried breach here now is seven miles wide at the base, is three miles deep and little more than two miles wide at the eastern apex.

On the south the U. S. third army, pounded by an all-night barrage, clung to its foothold in the northwest corner of Fort Driant, one of a belt of fortresses guarding Metz, and beat off tanks and infantry charging out of the fog from the north.

The British second army, squelched five counterblows aimed at its Dutch corridor.

Servicemen's Christmas Time

Have you mailed that Christmas package to the soldier overseas yet? If not, please take time out soon and get it done. Oct. 15 is the deadline . . . just a week away.

Christmas, for Americans, is a time when families gather and are reunited no matter how scattered they may be the rest of the year. It is a friendly, happy time . . . the climax and highpoint of the year. This year again the war will cause many families to be separated . . . sons, daughters, husbands in the service of their country will be in strange lands, with strange peoples.

A box from home with pictures, gifts of food and clothing will serve to bring them closer, if only for a little while, to the ones they love, and to the country which is their homeland.

Students here at college, most of them some distance from their homes, should realize how mail and packages from home are appreciated. If they wish, they can go home when they get homesick and lonely . . . they get vacations on holidays so that they can be with their families at those important times.

But the men and women in service, no matter how lonely and homesick, will not be able to get home. A Christmas package, a letter, a cheery card will show them that you have not forgotten . . . will bring them a bit of home which they can cherish throughout the year.

Remember the deadline . . . Oct. 15

Kentucky Injuries Help Odds On Spartan Victory Today

Team Faces Tough Afternoon at Lexington

By JOE HEAGANY

Engaging in a light work-out in Kentucky yesterday Michigan State primed itself for one of its severest tests of the season today when they take on the University of Kentucky at Lexington. Kentucky is one of the highly touted elevens of the middle west.

Kentucky was considered a slight favorite till the news came out that three of its key men will be unable to participate in the game. With a rigid squad the southerner's slight edge will probably dissolve.

Rain Helps Also

Another factor that will enhance State's chances is the rain element. A day-long downpour was experienced Thursday at Lexington and with the intricacies of the Cat's "T" formation, and their host of pass plays this will be a big factor towards the Spartan's fortunes.

The three men Kentucky lost were Floyd Shorts, first string center, Hugh Shannon, outstanding tackle, and Jimmy Howe, halfback. Shorts, the center, is one of the key men in the "T" and without a good center who can handle the ball the offense can have plenty of trouble.

Kentucky Injuries

Shannon was reported as the bulwark in the southerner's defense while Howe was the regular tailback who had most of the ball-toting load. Coach Ab Warman will have to replace these men with untried reserves, and State has none too many reserves which have held up well under fire.

Next Saturday the Spartans will entertain Kansas State in their second home tilt game of the season. The game will be a special one on the list for Coach Charlie Bachman used to be head football mentor there before coming to State. Kansas State is also the alma mater of Joe Hol-singer, backfield coach for the Spartans.

Browns Slug Way To 6-2 Victory Over Cardinals

SPORTSMAN'S PARK, ST. LOUIS, Oct. 6 — (AP) — Baseball's hitless wonders of 1944 turned sluggers for two innings today as the surprising Brown's whipped the Cardinals, 6 to 2, in the third game of the world series and took a commanding lead of two games to one over their St. Louis rivals.

Held to two hits in winning the series opener and to seven while dropping the second, the American League champions pounded out five of their eight hits in a four-run third inning and ripped through the highly regarded Cardinal pitching staff for a pair of doubles in the seventh to score two more needless tallies.

The Brown's porous infield and Pitcher Jack Kramer gave their supporters among the crowd of 34,737 some cause for worry in the first inning when the Cards scored an unearned run but from there on the 26-year-old former Seabee from New Orleans was in perfect control of the situation.

The Brownies' defense opened up to let another unearned run through in the seventh.

Battle for Brown Jug Awaits Grid Decision in Today's Game

ANN ARBOR, MICH., Oct. 7 — (AP) — Despite their "dope" edge via Iowa Preflight, their only mutual opponent, Michigan's Wolverines boarded their train for Minneapolis today somewhat in the dark on what to expect tomorrow in their little brown jug football clash with Minnesota.

While Michigan edged out of the Preflighters 12 to 7 and the Seahawks subsequently edged the Gophers, scouting reports indicated to Coach Fritz Grieser of the Wolverines that Minnesota is considerably stronger this year than last, when Michigan rolled to a 49 to 6 victory.

Red Armies Invade Hungary, Peril Country's Second City

Russians Reach Belgrade in Yugoslav Drive

LONDON, Oct. 6 (AP)—Russian troops invading tottering Hungary on a broad front today captured the big rail junction town of Bekescaba, 100 miles from Budapest, and also toppled Mako, only 15 miles from Szeged, Hungary's second city, a Moscow communique announced tonight.

Rolling across rich farmlands which offer the Germans and Hungarians little natural defense lines, the Red army seized more than 100 towns and hamlets on a 75-mile front in a determined effort to knock out the last big Axis satellite nation.

In additions to the key towns of Mako and Bekescaba, the Russians seized Gyula and Battonya, also road and rail towns of importance, the bulletin disclosed.

This invasion of southeastern Hungary, which the Germans said has been under way since Sept. 24 but just now has been announced by Moscow, was coupled with steady Russian outflanking movements in Yugoslavia south of the pre-war Hungarian frontier.

In the Yugoslav theater the units under Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky were deployed along the north bank of the Danube river opposite Belgrade, Yugoslav capital, and during the day also reached the Tisza river at a point 33 miles south of the Hungarian frontier with the capture of Novi Becej. The seizure of the latter village put the Russians only three miles east of the west bank Tisza river stronghold of Stari Becej on the Budapest-Novi Sad-Belgrade trunk railway.

South of the Danube in the converging attack on the Belgrade capital the Russians, operating with Marshal Tito's partisans, also seized more than 15 localities, including points only about 80 miles southeast of the capital.

Germany Bombed; Oil Plants Hit

LONDON, Oct. 6 — (AP) — More than 7,000 tons of explosives crashed into German war plants today as 1,300 U. S. heavy bombers hit Berlin and Hamburg in one of the greatest mass raids of the war and 500 British Lancasters and Halifaxes struck synthetic oil plants in the Ruhr. The Fortresses and Liberators rained explosives on plants and ordnance dumps.

The British planes, also well protected by fighters, made a heavy attack on synthetic oil plants at Scholden-Buer and Sterkrade in the Ruhr valley in good flying weather.

An army air force spokesman described the attack on the Reich capital as "the most devastating since July 21," when 1,000 American heavyweights rocked the German citadel.

The German air force again was absent over Hamburg, but some Nazi fighters accepted the challenge at Berlin.

Senior and junior tryouts for all Orchestrists members, and those interested in the organization will meet Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the dance studio of the women's gym.

Weekly Letter to Men in the Service

D EAREST JOHNNY,

You should have been here last Saturday for the slaughter. We beat Scranton by an easy 40-12 but practically sizzled in the Indian summer sun. This week's game is expected to be hotter, in two respects. This afternoon the team will play Kentucky at Lexington and the southern boys are to be a much tougher team than Scranton.

Brother B has again discovered potential Thespians in the vicinity and has announced his cast for "Kind Lady." The play will be full of weird characters, not the least of which is a kleptomaniac. Besides that, Buell is noted for his accurate castings, so we're all somewhat leery for the safety of our possessions.

Union board has come up with another good idea, this time for afternoon entertainment. But get the name—Party-Party. Sounds like double talk to me. The party, which is to start this afternoon, consists of juke box dancing, chess and checkers, and bridge.

The lower lounge of the Union was packed yesterday afternoon to watch the first broadcast of Larry Frymire's new brainchild, "Meet the Students." WKAR is airing the show which is an extemporaneous man-on-the-street type of thing. I understand Bob Price made his radio debut yesterday and was as nervous as a cat.

Cattily yours,
PEG.
