The Blarney Stone

SLEEP
Up that knits up the raveled of care. That's how Bill appears put it, and fraternity ini-will be proving the theory when-possible during the remainder of week and the beginning of next. in classrooms, some will be found the formula. Instructors are asked to tolerate such action cooperate with fatigued initiadding a Q. E. D. to the above.

REVENGE
who recall a cold, rainy after-last November, a muddy field covered with sawdust, a De-that was fired too often, are forward with hopes toward the of the game in Detroit tonight.

OPERA
choruses for "The Twelve Mile have been practicing so much week it became necessary to a large canvas over the floor ballroom to keep from wearing face off the boards. Incidentally, number of reservations for seats making each day.

FLEDGES
have noticed that a great deal of ing is being done in the Union this week both on the second and along the stairway leading to Union offices. Recalling simiperiences of our own during the ular week of the year not so ago, we wonder if the workmen being initiated into the Union.

A MEETING!
board of agriculture met session on the campus Monday. On the morning of day an observing reporter the basement of the Ad-building.

FRESH CO-EDS
notice in the content of a story edition that the number of co-eds reporting for W. A. is noticeably small. We rethe first class that sports for as well as men are sponsored recognized on this campus. Un-the W. A. A. perhaps, they are of-in even greater variety and with opportunity for all to compete in the men's department where necessary to develop a repre-varsity team. We employ a lar phrase commonly directed at yearlings, "Stick Fresh!"

A LETTER
for the love of Allah and the Plains herbure, tell me, show me, ex-to me or otherwise indicate what discourse on the 'Artist's' course the 'Concert course' is all about do we secure entrance to these ent events? How do we procure a? If so, where, and if not, what is use for tickets? Etc., etc., etc.

IN REPLY
for the love of Allah nor for great open spaces, but as a in need we rush to your assist-Strength, John D. my friend, but a simple matter of explain-During winter term registrayou should have secured, had to you, printed tickets which want you admission to the events these two courses. On the tick-printed the event or events for the ticket is good. Merely pre-these at the door at the place des-

FINAL SELECTION OF UNION CAST IS ANNOUNCED

Choruses Composed of Twenty-four Co-eds and Twelve Men.

MANY TRYOUTS MADE

Final selection of the co-ed and men choruses which are to appear in the Union production, "The Twelve Mile Limit," at the Gladner theater Feb.
1 and 2, were announced today. Personnel of these numbers was determined upon only after numerous tryouts.

The co-ed numbers will be composed of 24 girls. Contrary to the custom in former Union productions, each chorus will not have an entirely different group but all of the various numbers, in which both song and dance will be featured, will consist of girls from this comparatively small selection.

Those chosen by the director are Lorraine Lansing, Harriett Marr, Howell, Florence Green, Detroit; Blanche Hosie, Grosse Pointe; Elizabeth Kuhlman, Saginaw; Ruth Raney, Greenfield; Beryl Parr, Detroit; Ruth Fordney, Saginaw; Do-thy Charles, Buchanan; Isabel Paulson, Grand Rapids; Mary Elizabeth McCoy, St. Louis; Mo. Virginia Lansing; Lansing; Dora Worden, Grand Rapids; Dorothy Peterson, Cedar Springs; Gail Eastcott, Detroit; Margaret Lane, Lansing.

A group known as the show girls will consist of Dorothy Foster, East Lansing; Gertrude Woodworth, Glen Ellis; Ann Anderson, Ishpeming; Jane Haire, Detroit; Beryl Abbey, Battle Creek; Irene Leavenwood, Athens; Helen McConnell, Lansing; Margaret Patterson, Bad Axe.

From the show girls, five co-eds have been selected to appear in a special chorus called the crossword puzzle chorus. These are to be Dorothy Foster, Gertrude Woodworth, Ann Anderson, Helen McConnell and Margaret Patterson.

The men's chorus will consist of Glen Lark, Saul Ste. Marie; George Meldrum, Pontiac; Roger Arbory, Detroit; Ford Grouell, Grand Rapids; Kenneth Bellinger, Durand; John Spencer, Detroit; Fred Macer, Belding; H. H. Burgess, Saginaw; Edwin Englebert, Conrad; Milford Martin, Royal Oak; Lawrence Pace, Pontiac; Bernard Vinckmuler, Grand Rapids.

In the two acts of the show there are included about nine choruses in which several sets of costumes will be used.

M. S. C. POLO SEASON OPENS

Two polo teams representing Michigan State college will ride into action tonight against two picked teams of the Detroit Riding and Hunt club of Detroit at the latter's club on the Seven Mile road. Officers of the local post will form one team and cavalry students will form the other, the officers riding against the Detroiters first team.

The officers' team will be composed of Lieut. Col. T. L. Sherburne, commandant of the Reserve Officers Training corps, Captain R. E. Larson, and Captain C. R. Chase of the cavalry division.

Three players will be chosen from the following four members of the cavalry squad to make up the student team: Horace Ocker, Empire; T. J. Ramsdell, Manistee; Tod Leavitt, Lansing; and Gerald Peterson, East Lansing.

Sphinx is helping the Glee club in entertaining the Arbor girls during their visit to State's campus. They have planned an inspection of the campus and it's many curiosities, a supper at the Women's building, and an informal dance after the concert, at which M. S. C. students are invited to meet the Michigan co-eds. The women's orchestra has offered its music for the remainder of the evening.

The M. S. C. girls were formally organized last term in an attempt to make the glee club a success. Although the concert to be presented tonight will be their first undertaking, they expect to sing the Mikado, a Gilbert and Sullivan opera, during the spring term in connection with the Men's Glee club.
Tickets for the concert are 75 cents, and may be obtained from the Union desk, the music building, or Budd's music store.

The following will be given:
1. (a) Landon Aique Carmina
(b) College Days
(c) Wake This New, Dearest Czech-Slovak Folk Song
Glee Club

KELLOGG, DONOR OF EXP. FARM, $2,000 FELLOWSHIP

The Michigan state board of agriculture has accepted the Kellogg Industrial Fellowship to be put in the hands of the chemistry department.
The fellowship provides $2,000 a year to be turned over to the chemistry department for the conducting of experiments to determine the percentage of caffeine found in coffee. This period of experimentation is to cover a period of two years.

The experimental farm near Gull Lake which, with a $225,000 endowment fund was the gift of Mr. W. K.
Kellogg was accepted by the State Agricultural Board at a meeting last Wednesday.

The board voted to purchase the Biedermeier farm of 160 acres, now owned by the college. The funds for this transaction were appropriated by the last legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Hasselman, Capt. and Mrs. Joseph H. Hinwood and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Riggs have been selected as the patrons for the 1929 J-Hop, which will be held in the ballroom of the Hotel Olds on the evening of Friday, Feb. 2. It was announced last night by John Gould, junior class president. The list of guests of honor is practically complete and invitations will be sent out very soon.

Hours for dancing from 9 p. m. till 3 a. m. have been granted by the faculty committee for the evening.
The co-eds will be allowed until 3:30 a. m. to be in their dormitories and society houses. The grand march, led by the class president and his partner, will take place at about 10:30 p. m.

Two hundred and fifty favors have been ordered and are expected to arrive some time this week. The programs have already been received according to Randy Russell, chairman of the program committee.

Tickets for the party will go on sale in the lobby of the Union building on Monday, Jan. 28, and will continue for three days for members of the junior class. Because of the limited number of tickets, all juniors desiring to attend the Hop are advised to report to the Union as soon as possible Thursday and Friday of the same week tickets will be on sale for all others eligible to attend this year's dance.

The orchestra which will furnish the music for the evening has practically been decided upon, but the committee is not yet ready to release the name.
It is promised to be among the best that could be obtained.

Foresters to Study Woodlot Conditions in Ionia County

Prof. Chittenden, head of the Forestry department, announces that the department is about to undertake a study of woodlot conditions in Ionia county.
This study will consist of a comparative study of woodlot conditions with those of 1912 when a similar study was made by the college in the same county. It should show the development of forestry during this period.

FOUND A book, "Political and Social History of Modern Europe," in room 306 Hort building. The owner will find it in 304 Hort building.

U. of M. Girls Glee Club to Appear in Concert Tonight

The U. of M. Girls Glee club will be presented in a concert at 7:45 Friday, January 18, in the Little theater, under the auspices of the M. S. C. Girls Glee club and Sphinx. The Ann Arbor singers have developed a remarkable chorus under the direction of Miss Nora Crane Hunt. They are frequently heard in the larger Michigan cities, and over the radio.

Sphinx is helping the Glee club in
entertaining the Arbor girls dur-
campus and it's many curiosities, a supper at the Women's building, and an

which M. S. C. students are invited to meet the Michigan co-eds. The women's orchestra has offered its music for the remainder of the evening.

LANGDON-DAVIES PROVES POPULAR LECTURER HERE

Young Englishman Gives Interesting Talk on Relations of Two Nations.

DISCUSSES WAR DEBTS

Pointing out that "this across the sea" is more accurately described by the present situation than the old sentimental conception "hands across the sea," John Langdon-Davies, author and lecturer, who appeared on the Michigan State college liberal arts course Wednesday evening, entertained a large audience at the Peoples church.

We need more friendly relations now because this is a much smaller world, growing smaller all the time with each new form of communication such as the radio," Langdon-Davies declared, and later on gave as his opinion that Englishmen had learned to live in greater friendliness with their neighbors because of their very small country which considered a land for such friendliness, that the American, who could be belittled without pushing someone into the sea.

Mr. Langdon-Davies, who has been the fundamental reason why Americans dislike or suspect Englishmen there is the American dislike of imperialism and the feeling here that the English are bullies. He admitted that there were bullies aplenty in England and in England's former possessions, but they are much in the minority compared with the realists who feel that the more people who have independent self government there are in the world the better for all concerned.

War debts and cruelties which are discussed in the press probably are very little thought about, Mr. Langdon-Davies said, but were a source of irritation among those people who wanted to make more cruelties. Actually, he said, Americans much more interested in the war than the English.

ingly. Students were given the advantage to file early applications for ignated student night and a formal

WEATHER SLOWS WORK ON MEMORIAL TOWER

Cold Weather and Snow Hinder Construction on Campanile.

At least six weeks of good weather will be required for the completion of the new Memorial Tower, gift of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Beaumont, according to H. H. Halladay, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture.

The work yet to be accomplished includes the finishing of the construction and the installation of the four clocks and chime equipment. Construction has been materially hindered by the recent cold weather.

The Campanile, costing $75,000, was given to the college by Mr. Beaumont a Detroit lawyer and member of the class of 1882. The presentation of the gift was prompted by pleasant recollections of college life.

STATE GRADUATE KILLED IN CRASH

Roy Spiekerman, Former M. S. C.
Baseball and Football Star, Succumbs at Saginaw.

Roy Spiekerman, one-time famous athlete on the Michigan State college campus, died Tuesday as a result of injuries sustained early Sunday on the Dixie highway about a mile south of Saginaw. He was helping a friend start his car when a passing machine struck him, throwing him 30 feet along the road.

Spiekerman will be remembered by a wide circle of friends throughout the state and on the campus. While on the campus here he starred particularly in football as a tackle and in baseball.
He was a member of the Hesperian fraternity and the Varsity club. Both these organizations plan to be represented at the funeral to take place in Saginaw.

Spiekerman, according to Ralph H.
Young, was a good example of a fighting athlete. He weighed but 170 pounds but played a tackle position along with the best of them. He had a world of courage.

After having graduated from Arthur Bull high school of Saginaw in 1922, he was captured both the baseball and football teams to come to Michigan State college. Here he captained the freshman football team in the fall of 1922. And the succeeding three years he played varsity tackle. He also played first base on State's baseball team.
Funeral arrangements for Spiekerman have been completed and will be held from the Spiekerman residence at 363 W. Main street, Saginaw, at 2 p. m., Friday.

SENIOR FORMAL PLANS COMPLETE

Goldkettes Orchestra to Entertain at Affair; Announce Ticket Sales Limited to 125.

Jean Goldkette again makes an appearance upon the campus this time with his Country Club orchestra Saturday night at the senior formal in the Union ballroom. The orchestra comes from Detroit as a big-time band under the direction of the inimitable down Ray Carel, who aside from his formal duties as orchestra leader is a popular entertainer. This same orchestra is the one which made such a big hit at Island Park a year ago.

Bill Miller has just announced that party committee is being assisted in the sale of tickets is to be limited to about 125, which is indeed an innovation.

Classes Afford Sleepy Students Chance to Regain Lost Rest

Monday morning classes this week were full of youths more or less peacefully sleeping beneath green toques.
Some of said toques picturesquely decked out Indian style, with orange and black feathers.

And at that, Monday morning was only slight indication of the vast amount of classroom repose to be successfully accomplished during the week. We know of one poor freshman who has gone so far as to beg admittance for the week to the classes of friendly professors during his vacant hours, so he can get a little sleep free from persecution.

All this, of course, is merely indication among us that the merry fraternity boys are at it again, and new brethren are about to be received into the various folds about campus.
Any fraternity house, this week, is a thing of joy to the perfect housekeepers of the neighborhood. That is, to look at. The windows shine, and are scrubbed daily by freezing pledges.
When, if ever, one of the minions has an idle moment, there's always the front porch to be scrubbed, and rugs are practically worn out with beating day and night. And it's this day and night stuff that makes the houses a thing of joy, as we cautiously observed above, to look at. The listening isn't so much.

The hell-week activities, however, be it understood, are not exclusively utilitarian. There's always the social side. All week sororities have been

DEFINITE ACTION TAKEN BY BOARD ON FIELD HOUSE

Architect at Work on Plans for Proposed Athletic Plant.

PASSES ON BAND TRIP

Action was taken Wednesday by the state board of agriculture to estimate the cost of a new field house for Michigan State. The college architect has been authorized to draw up plans for the construction of the new building and submit a report of the approximate cost to the board as soon as possible.

Following a thorough investigation regarding the construction of a temporary basketball floor in the demonstration hall by the committee in charge, the plan was deemed impractical due to the excessive costs.

Because of the small playing floor in the present gym difficulties encountered by opposing teams have resulted in the refusal of many midwestern teams to play return games on the State floor. The present structure built in '22 was designed for a seating capacity of 2,000. On account of increased enrollment in the college and growing popularity of basketball, the need for a new field house is self evident.

With the construction of the new building the overcrowded conditions throughout the entire athletic curriculum would be adequately handled.

The committee in charge of the investigation is composed of Alvin Harper, president of the Lansing chamber of commerce, William Garaley, representative of the Lansing alumni, President Robert S. Shaw, Secretary H. H. Halladay, J. H. McColl and Clark Brody, members of the building committee of the board of agriculture.

The board also voted to look with favor upon the tentative trips of both the Men's Glee club and the Military band. Various plans have been submitted to the board during previous sessions but none met with disfavor. It is hoped that these two prominent campus organizations may be permitted to represent the college throughout the midwest.

The cost of the proposed trips has been left in the hands of the advisory committee which will announce its final decision in the near future.

W. S. G. A. Forms Plans for Co-ed Prom This Term

The Women's Self Government Association are formulating plans for an interesting co-ed prom which will be held during the later part of the term.
Plans, date and other particulars will be announced at a later date.

Tickets in senior formal. Tickets can be obtained either from the Union desk or members of the committee.

An entirely new scheme of decoration is being carried out according to George Farley, chairman of the party committee, which will eliminate the usual canopy over the orchestra. The coloring will be black and white throughout.

Patrons for the dance will be Dean and Mrs. J. F. Cox, secretary and Mrs.
H. H. Halladay and Mr. and Mrs. James B. Hasselman.

Events will begin promptly at eight-thirty and hold forth until twelve midnight with the sale price of this ticket building forth at only $4.00 per couple.

George Farley, chairman of the
his work by Iva Price, Marian Trumbull and Roscoe Wrasley.

UNFAIR

Word comes to us of two cases where instructors ejected freshmen students from classes this week for sleeping during lecture. In doing so they have attacked the general practice of fraternity initiation and punished a student for a situation for which he cannot be considered responsible.

Although it is not unblame-worthy to be found in the arms of slumber during the progress of a class, it would seem that an exception could be made during this one week. Even when one is in full possession of the faculties and with a sufficient amount of rest, it is difficult enough to stay awake during some of these wandering, uninteresting, and monotonous discourses. And at a time of no rest and plenty of work, it is practically impossible. Fortunately most of the instructors have adopted a common-sense attitude regarding this, overlooking shortcomings in class and allowing uncompleted work to be made up next week.

Fraternities have cooperated in the matter to the extent of arranging all initiations in one week with the thought of concentrating the physical disability of the subjects for educational efforts in as short a time as possible. There is little reason, in consideration of the circumstances, why the teaching staff should not be somewhat lenient with the initiates.

A HARD PROBLEM

(University of Washington Daily)
The interfraternity council, which has been attempting to square off one angle of a knotty little problem with two angles, is now facing both angles of this problem, with the heretofore somewhat neglected angle becoming increasingly important.

This quirkish problem is the fraternity rushing situation at Washington. On one side the council must build up a code of rushing regulations to be effectively enforceable and satisfactory. On the other side, this being the inside, the council must build itself up to the point where it commands the respect and attention of its members, something that the present council does not command from some of its members and other disinterested parties.

Recently the council appointed a committee to revise the present inefficient code of rushing regulations. This revision concerned itself only with the method of trial procedure, the power therefore being placed in the hands of the faculty.

This revision was turned down by a part of the council, 13 members being absent from the meeting.

Another and peculiar piece of legislation also voted down by the council was a bill proposing that the faculty of the University of Washington force all social fraternities to accede to the rules and regulations of the council.

Sensible voting. In the first case, the provision was inadequate, and would not have made for an effective rushing system. In the second case, if the authority of the interfraternity council is to be effective and respected, it must be established and maintained by the interfraternity council. And that is no trivial task, inasmuch as 13 delegates to the council found things more important or more interesting to do rather than to attend a conciliatory session, and inasmuch as certain legislative matters were influenced by a threatened split—threatened by three or four members.

The Daily believes, as does the council, evidenced by its vote—that the council cannot gain authority through the faculty, and also believes that there is merit in leadership as opposed to domination as the effective means of gaining authority.

START INTENSIVE STUDY OF HIGH STRENGTH CEMENT

The civil engineering department announces that M. C. Peterson, a graduate student, has started on an intensive study of early high strength cements. This type of cement has grown very popular in construction circles in recent months, for it will give the same strength in three days that ordinary cement gives 28 days after pouring. The civil engineering department will give a special course in the use of concrete before engineers and architects at Kalamazoo during the week of Feb. 18. Another course is scheduled to follow at Crystal Falls, and prospects for others in several lower peninsula cities are bright.

ELECTRICAL DEPARTMENT INSTALLS MOTOR GENERATOR

Two new motor-generator sets have recently been installed in the direct current laboratory of the electrical engineering department. Delivery has also been made of the specially designed three-machine motor-generator set which this department purchased from the Burke Electric Co. Plans are now under way to install this set and a special induction motor set for cancellation-speed control.

Some Campus Laboratories Cover Extensive Fields

Where do you do your laboratory work in the courses you take? In Kozdie hall, if you're a chem student. In the Beal laboratories, if you major in botany. In either case, you can go to your house or the Union for lunch, and return to your laboratory field afterward.

But if farming or forestry happens to be your major, you may spend your laboratory hours anywhere from Chatham, in the upper peninsula, to South Haven, far south in the state. For in these two places, and in four others owned by the college, students carry on experiments in farming, forestry, and vegetable raising, and stock improvement.

But only our graduate students are lucky enough to attain work at these stations; the other students following the agriculture course are well provided for with 1200 acres of land close adjoining our campus to be used as instruction stations in experimentation in crop growing and stock raising. Forestry students may work at the large experimental station of 575 acres near Escanaba, largely forested and cut land for a short time, and on they go, finding out things on 4,000 or so acres.

"HELL WEEK" CONDEMNED BY FRATERNITY CONVO

New York—(AP)—"Hell week" was for a second time condemned by the interfraternity conference held at Hotel Pennsylvania here recently. In a debate on the subject, Lewis D. Syester, Ohio Wesleyan, senior and member of Phi Kappa Psi, said that the abolition of the rough house part of fraternity initiations is expedient because it tends to diminish the prestige of the fraternity system. Serious accidents, he said, are bound to occur. For every "black eye" the fraternity gives a freshman, he said, it receives two "black eyes."

"If there were any psychological value of getting the fraternity across by rough methods," he said, "it would have been incorporated long ago. Rough house initiation produces no constructive benefits and seriously undermines the basic spirit of fraternities."

Harold P. Flint, of Lombard, Ill., executive secretary of Tau Kappa Epsilon, characterized the rough house initiation as "an outburst of sadistic temperament." Some members, he said, received delight out of inflicting punishment. The conference accepted an invitation to cooperate with a committee appointed by Dr. H. W. Chase, president of the University of North Carolina, to study college fraternities with a view toward encouraging college administrators to make more use of fraternities as necessary adjuncts to administrations of colleges. Chancellor E. H. Lindley of the University of Kansas is chairman of the committee.

Install Syrup Evaporator to Replace Old Sugar House

The Forestry department is completing the installation of a steam maple syrup evaporator in the college woods. It is expected to be in operation in the spring. It is now three years since the old sugar house burned to the ground.

Forestry Department Sells Many Trees for Planting

The Forestry department has sold 25,000 trees for shipment from the forest nurseries at the college this spring. The department has about one million trees left for sale, including those at the college nursery and at the Dunbar nursery near Sault Ste Marie.

in the Prince of Wales," the speaker said. "You have to come to America to find royalty really appreciated. Many Englishmen get through a whole day without thinking about that excellent young man and even a night without dreaming about him and from what I am told many American women could hardly say the same."

Many Englishmen are disappointed with the present government which thinks in terms of war and cruelties and which may be overturned at the next spring election. Mr. Langdon-Davies stated largely because they feel that such a policy is making a bad impression upon a world of peace-loving people. His hope is that the group in each country who want few cruelties will eventually become more popular than those who think in millions.

England who has lost so many of her world markets and who has 1,400,000 unemployed workers making a great poverty stricken population and with an income tax starting at 22 1/2 per cent is naturally jealous of America. "Jealousy," the speaker pointed out, is human and natural whether or not it is decent and right and you can't blame all Europeans for experiencing a simple crude animal reaction when they view the prosperous condition of America.

American tourists and English lecturers were paired as pests who produce friction between the two nations. "Perhaps if we set out our best foot in the window it would be good for international relationships," commented Mr. Langdon-Davies.

England's lack of knowledge of the best phases of American civilization and America's contempt for sleepy England were cited as further points of irritation. Educated Englishmen would be pleased with the funds pouring their way through universities if they only knew about such things. Mr. Langdon-Davies said, and that the absence of a class system was the great achievement of the American civilization.

Mr. Langdon-Davies scored the antics of American clubs and their initiation ceremonies as hardly commendable for an adult, businesslike group for their ability to do things in an executive way and bring into sudden action—something a group of English business men never accomplish.

Nancy Carroll and Paul Lukas in "The Shopworn Angel," A Paramount Picture

POPULAR COUPLE IN FILM SUCCESS

Stepping along on her own two dainty little feet is Nancy Carroll, the latest of the popular personality to grace the screen. Her latest picture, in which she is co-starred with Gary Cooper, "The Shopworn Angel," comes to the State Sunday and Monday.

Nancy Carroll has everything. She is a delight to watch. The life and action in her portrayal, the absorbing personality and the charm of her presence provides all the entertainment one needs for one evening. But then there's Gary Cooper, Cooper has "that" which for men actors, is the same thing as it is for women actors. He has provided it in many strong parts but, in no one of his pictures, has he excelled completely as in "The Shopworn Angel."

"The Shopworn Angel" is a tender love story of a boy, shy, bashful, honest and a girl, gay, giddy, charming and true. It is a pathetic story played against the bright background of romance, a thrilling tangle of circumstances in which a clean-minded young man and a re-awakened girl are swirled helplessly.

"The Shopworn Angel" has many things to recommend it. It has Nancy Carroll, Gary Cooper, Paul Lukas, that captivating and mysterious person and an unusual moving love story in a brilliant setting. It is good entertainment throughout and it is good for thinking people. "The Shopworn Angel" is a picture to see and to talk about.

H. E. Department Discusses State Health Program

A meeting to discuss the state-wide program of the various organizations under the state department of health was held in the extension office of the Home Economics building on Friday morning.

The meeting was called by Mrs. Louise H. Campbell who is the state home demonstration leader.

Those in attendance included Mrs. Dora Stockman, a member of the State Board of Agriculture; Miss Ruth Freese, state supervisor of home economics; Dean Jean Krueger, Miss Florence E. Becker, Miss Rossman Jewett, Miss Esther Nash, Dr. Lillian Smith, and Mrs. Ballard.

The American Red Cross was represented by Miss Beulah Russell and Dr. Marietta Eichelberger of St. Louis who are the district representatives of that organization. Miss Nash conducted the discussion groups.

The second of the series of winter term parties which are being sponsored by the S. C. U. will be held at the Peoples church tonight. The Freshmen are arranging the program with Jess Bird as chairman. A cordial invitation is extended to all students. These parties will be held every Friday during the term with the respective classes in charge.

The association is doing this to help finance the erection of its new cabin on college property one mile and a half directly south of the campus. Members of the faculty are especially urged to extend their patronage, and a special selling organization is being formed to encourage it as such.

Tickets may be had from any member of the association or by calling Shirley Mixer at the Alpha Chi Omega house. Information can also be had by calling the women's department at the gymnasium.

STATE QUINTET RATED FAVORITE IN DETROIT GAME TONIGHT

Record Surpasses That of Titans Who Have Met Defeat Several Times.

LINEUP UNCERTAIN

Although State's basketball quintet is rated as a favorite in the first of a series of two games with the University of Detroit, tonight, the rivalry will be keen. So far this season State's record is better than that of the Titans as the Spartan boys have chalked up five victories out of six contests, their only defeat being at the hands of the strong Ohio Wesleyan five. State has defeated Hillsdale, Michigan, Penn State, Cornell and Marquette.

Detroit has fallen in defeat to Penn State, Notre Dame and Marquette and defeated St. Johns University. Such a record gives State the upper hand. The Titans were however handicapped by a late start and it is probable that their condition at this time in the season will be much better and they will therefore give the Spartans a stiff battle.

Last year State won both of its games with the Detroit aggregation by close scores in overtime periods. This year Lloyd Brazil will again be on hand with his dangerous eye for basket shooting. He will probably be in a forward position rather than at guard. Scott probably will get the job of watching this Titan.

It is rather uncertain just what lineups will be used. Coach Van Alstyne may use ten and possibly fourteen men before the evening is over. He has not given out any definite starting lineup. Don Grove and Van Zyl, forwards; Don Herder, center; Haga and Scott, guards, will undoubtedly see action. Dickson, Sheathelm and Roger Grove, forwards; Totten, center; Prendergast, Russo, and Smead, guards, may make up another combination.

Aaron and Butcher, two sophomores may start at the forward positions for Detroit. Captain Phelan, center; Brazil and Dawson, guards, will probably be the veterans to start.

It is certain that the Spartan quintet will do its best to avenge the football defeat that State suffered last fall.

MINNESOTA HOCKEY GAME NECESSARILY CANCELLED

The Michigan State-University of Minnesota hockey game scheduled for 7:30 Thursday afternoon at the Spartan rink was cancelled due to the condition of the ice, or better the lack of ice.

The varying condition of the ice has been a handicap to Coach John Kobs all season long. He was forced to delay his call for candidates until very late. Then practice was irregular due to varying weather conditions. As a result, his squad failed to round into satisfactory condition. In the first two games of the season, State dropped a close one to Ralph's Sport Shop of Battle Creek Jan. 12 and were swamped by the University of Michigan Monday evening. In the latter contest the Spartans were at a disadvantage because the Wolverines possess an artificial rink and were further advanced in practice and condition.

FROSH CAGERS OPEN WITH ALMA YEARLINGS

Coach "Red" Colvin's Five Make First Appearance Here Saturday Afternoon.

The 1929 schedule for the State freshman basketball squad has been announced by the athletic department. The yearlings will have six games, four at home and two away. The Alma freshman quintet will come to East Lansing Saturday afternoon to test the strength of the Spartan "Fresh" five in the opening game of the season. The game will start at 2 o'clock.

The strength of the visiting five is unknown, but it is almost certain that Coach "Red" Colvin's cagers will give them a good battle. Coach Colvin will have the following men: Backs—center, Pinner and Shika; forwards, Killoran, forward, center, and Vanderploeg, Cuthbertson and DeHaan, guards.

The schedule:
Sat. Jan. 19—Alma, Fresh at East Lansing.

Fri. Jan. 25—Grand Rapids Junior college at Grand Rapids.

Fri. Feb. 1—Western State Teachers Fresh at East Lansing.

Sat. Mar. 2—Port Huron Junior college at East Lansing.

Wed. Mar. 6—Grand Rapids Junior college at East Lansing.

Sat. Mar. 9—Western State Teachers Fresh at Kalamazoo.

FRESH-SOPH TRACK MEET SCHEDULED FOR FEB. 2

Coach Young Handicapped by Unusually Small Squad Caused by Flu.

With the Fresh-Soph track meet set for Feb. 2, less than three weeks hence, Coach Young is busily engaged in rounding his freshman squad into condition.

Coach Young is handicapped by the size of the squad which is much smaller than usual. Twenty men have reported, whereas usually there are about 50 candidates out. Young ascribes the size of the squad to initiations and influenza, and expects a large number of men out after the close of initiations. He states that candidates for the term will be accepted at anytime.

At present there are nine sprinters working out, Barbour, Griswell, Erickson, Fairney, Lafayette, Logan, Nelson, McClure, Rauch, Griswell, formerly of St. Johns Military Academy, is the outstanding sprinter. Griswell won first place in the 40 and dash at the Wisconsin National Intercollegiate last year. In the National Intercollegiate's academy division, at the University of Chicago, he won both the hundred and two-hundred yard dashes. Lafayette and Logan are also promising, both played fresh football.

In the field events, Ferrari, Field, Otto, Smith, Carlisle and Bayless are showing up well. Coryell, Swanson, McKee, Block, Reeder and Kay are distance runners, who have impressed recently. Swanson is a product of Buffalo, where he made an excellent high school record. He runs the half mile in close to two minutes.

STATE GRIDIRON CARD COMPLETE

M. S. C. Football Schedule Arranged, Alma, Adrian Listed.

Based on Young director of athletics, has completed arrangements for a football schedule that will bring five home games to East Lansing and three sectional meets of premier interest.

The principal changes made in Michigan's new gridiron card call for a change of football relations with Eastern college and Albion, and the addition of Case college, Cleveland, to the schedule.

Case college, although not as well known as might be, is considered one of the best midwest teams who opened the season at the University of Michigan, where a period of 25 years. State authorities have been dickering for the past five years for a complete schedule so are naturally pleased with the year's success. Kalamazoo, with whom State has played for many years will not be played.

It was noticed that Albion college, who last fall defeated State by two touchdowns, will not meet the Green and White squad this year. Failure to reach an agreement on the date is given as the reason for the break. Coach Young expects to see them back on the schedule another year. Alma college was given the vacancy, as being the next strongest teams in the M. I. A. Adrian college, producer of Fighting Quaker teams was given the vacancy left by Kalamazoo.

Harry G. Kipke, head football coach, expressed himself as being highly pleased with the arrangements, although he would make no prophecies as to State's chances at such an early date.

The complete schedule is as follows:
Oct. 5, Alma, here; Oct. 12, Michigan, there; Oct. 19, Adrian, here; Oct. 26, North Carolina, here; Nov. 2, Case, here; Nov. 9, Miss A. and M. there; Nov. 16, U. of D., there; Nov. 23, open.

Both in the B league and the C league. Any department or combination of departments desiring to enter a team in either one of these leagues may do so by registering with Frimodig in the athletic department.
