ROUGH STUFF

An sport is much to be admired in college teams of the present. The statistics of the game played last Friday night, however, bear evidence that the game is free from unnecessary roughness. We were glad to hear that of the 28 committed in the game, the number appeared on the Michigan State side of the book.

TWENTY

Twenty personal fouls were committed by the Detroit team in the game Friday night, a sufficient number to make an entire team from the floor. All tactics however do not win ball games. Detroit no doubt thought that when they looked at the score. Just another triumph of over brawn.

ACTIVES

Good many young men on the campus are freed from care this week. They are down with a feeling of pride in the fraternity pin on their lapels and with a sigh of relief when their eyes in peaceful slumber.

GLEE CLUB

Another University of Michigan out-looked the campus last Friday night and according to all reports the Michigan Glee Club scored a success. The U. of M. girls' glee club presented an unusual concert which met with high applause and we understand that our own girls scored sufficiently to receive a return invitation to the University town. We enjoy various friendly meetings with rival college.

COLLEGE SITE

Observations for the Union opera Twelve Mile Limit are continuing. The Michigan Glee Club is coming into the Union desk tonight who desire to be up on the footlights are advised to make reservations.

CONCERT COURSE

Students who have not received tickets for the concert course can do so by applying at the music department. There were many of our dear students who ignored the men who were handing out tickets during registration and actually brushed aside the proffered tickets. It's too bad when you have to see a man to take something for which he paid a dollar and a half.

CANES

There is a movement on foot among the more senior seniors to the use of the senior privilege, and canes to formal parties. Personal canes can be bothered, but if these seniors want to, it's all right with us. We do object to, however, these men who wear spats and carry coats.

OUT OF 3

Understand that the interfraternity council will meet again this week. The council will probably endeavor to put teeth in the present laws. We trust first of all that they get over pyorrhea.

A HELP

The gravel that was spread along the driveway spots in the campus drive last week was proved to be a big help as well as a vital necessity. We encourage good work, and suggest that there still some slippery spots round and about.

FORENSIC TEAM SCHEDULED FOR TWO HOME MEETS

Personnel of Team Not Decided but Expected to Be Strong.

MAY MEET FLORIDA

A schedule calling for only two appearances on the home platform has been arranged for the men's debating team by J. D. Menchhofer, forensic coach. The program includes meets with Purdue, University of Kansas, Marquette, and the University of Cincinnati. There is a possibility also of a debate with the University of Florida. The new plan calling for but two debates at East Lansing is quite an innovation, according to Mr. Menchhofer. Not only does it relieve the congestion on the local rostrum, but it encourages the attendance of the average audience rather than only the students. Also, each outside appearance helps to advertise the college.

The personnel of the debating team has not been definitely decided upon as yet, but will be announced at an early date. The squad at present consists of twelve men.

The Michigan State debaters will be composed of two teams, one taking the affirmative and the other the negative side of the questions. Each team is an integral unit and independent of the other.

The two questions to be debated this season are of national interest and importance. They are: "Resolved, that the public should own and operate the hydro-electric power plants" and "Resolved, that a substitute for trial by jury be adopted." The first six debates will be on the hydro-electric question.

The season opens when our debating team meets the University of Cincinnati at Grand Rapids on Feb. 20. The debate is to be under the sponsorship of the M. S. C. Alumni association of Grand Rapids. On March 5 our debating team will meet the Detroit City College at Detroit. The following day the affirmative section will meet the same college at Milford, E. R. Bristol, a former M. S. C. debater, will sponsor the affair. The same day, March 6, the negative team opposes the University of Cincinnati there. From here the team will travel to Lafayette, Ind., where they face Purdue on the 20th. The same day the affirmative section will meet Marquette at East Lansing. The other debate to be held on local soil is with the University of Kansas on March 11 and is to be on the jury subject.

There will be two dual debates, the dates of which are undetermined. The first is with the Western State Teachers college on the power question. The first debate will be held at Sand Lake under the sponsorship of Carl F. Abel, a former State debater. The second dual meet is on the jury question and will be held at Ionia. Stanley M. Powell. (Continued on page 4)

ARRANGE SPECIAL LECTURE SERIES

A group of special lectures by well-known school superintendents and educational officials of the state has been arranged by the department of education for the benefit of students engaged in practice teaching this term. The first of the group was given on Tuesday, Jan. 15, in the Little Theatre of the Home Economics building by Supt. B. H. Vandenberg of Marshall on the subject, "Some Adjustments That the New Teacher Needs to Make."

There are six more addresses on the schedule which will also be given in the Little Theatre each Tuesday at 4:30 p. m. Four well-known superintendents and both Deputy C. L. Goodrich and Superintendent Pearce of the state educational department are to speak. The program in full as follows: Jan. 22—"Why Teach?" by Supt. E. E. Fell of Holland.

Feb. 5—"Three Essentials of a Successful Teacher," by Supt. John S. Page of Howell.

Feb. 12—"Failures, Should We Have Any and What Should We Do With Them?" by Supt. Don Harrington of Albion.

Feb. 19—"Evaluating Teaching," by Supt. J. W. Sexton of Lansing.

Mar. 5—"Echoes from the Field," by C. L. Goodrich, deputy superintendent of public instruction.

Mar. 12—"The Teacher's Immediate Task," by Hon. Webster Pearce, superintendent of public instruction.

Students looking forward to teaching will receive inspiration and encouragement from these experienced educational leaders. At the present time, there are more than 100 senior students taking training in the schools of East Lansing, Lansing, Okemos, and Haslett. This has become one of the large enterprises of the college and the series of lectures has been arranged with the object of acquainting prospective teachers with the problems in the public school field.

Six Valuable Photos Removed from Frames when Glass Breaks; Asks for Their Return.

Nearly 40 years ago Dr. W. J. Beal, head of the department of botany and forestry, assembled at great expense of trouble and considerable money cost a collection of photographs of the prominent botanists of that time. This collection was exhibited at the World's Fair in Chicago in 1893 and since then has been in view in the botanical laboratory here.

Through accident the glass in the front of one of the frames was broken a short time ago and thus an opportunity was given to souvenir hunters to remove six of the priceless photographs from the collection. Those who perpetrated this thoughtless bit of souvenir collecting are urged to please return these photographs as this department as they are irreplaceable and their absence reduces the value of the whole collection. It is admitted by Dr. Beal, head of the botanical department, that the styles of beards and mustaches shown on the pictures certainly make them interesting to one collecting freaks, but he urges that in view of this the photographs please be returned.

MICHIGAN PRESS ASSN. TO MEET

James Schermerhorn, Fred Green, Among Leaders Scheduled to Speak.

Reports from different parts of the state indicate that the 18th Annual Michigan Press association meeting to be held on the Michigan State campus on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Jan. 24, 25 and 26 will be marked by the greatest attendance in the history of the association. General meetings on Thursday and Friday, the annual banquet on Thursday evening, and an executive session on Saturday morning are the features of the meet of the weekly editors.

For the first time in several years the newspaper men will hold their annual meet here at a time other than that of the Farmers' week, which will be held here Feb. 4 to 8. Because the agricultural convention is commanding so much more attention each year and because of limited convention facilities, the weekly editors decided to hold their meeting earlier this year. Business will take the limelight during the general meetings this week as is the usual custom at the winter convales.

The editors will register on arrival at the campus in the Union Memorial building. At 1:30 p. m. Thursday the first meeting will be called to order. Official reports by the secretary-treasurer, the field director and several other short talks will take up the larger part of the afternoon. President R. S. Shaw will be one of the opening day speakers. In the evening James B. Hays, chairman, M. S. C. publications department, will preside as toastmaster at the annual banquet in the Union building. The members of the state legislature will be the honored guests of the press association. Gov. Fred W. Green and James Schermerhorn, Michigan's favorite editor-author-orator of Detroit, will be the leaders on the program.

Friday morning's session will be featured by a series of "shop talks" by well-known men of the journalistic field. In the afternoon the election of officers for the coming year will command considerable attention. James O'Shaughnessy, counselor of advertising in New York is the only speaker to be heard for the Friday afternoon meeting. Summer outings for the association will be considered during this session also.

Friday evening will be left open for the visitors and on Saturday morning an executive session will be held at the convention room at the Hotel Kerns.

Co-ed "Jack of All Trades" to Amuse Campus at Y. W. Carnival

If you want your hair cut or your shoes shined or food or dancing, you can pay your money and take your choice at the Y. W. carnival next Wednesday night.

If you want something you don't see as the hot dog stands so aptly have it ask for it. It's 10 to 1 it'll be tucked away over there in some corner of the Old Armory. For the co-eds are doing themselves proud in ingenuity of stunts and booths, spurred on by the offer of a loving cup for the "co-ed" producing the most truly "tricky" effects.

The drug stores are being stripped of all their crepe paper, sorority girls are stretching madly on costumes, new and original stunts are developing out of thin air and altogether the plot for clearing out the red pockets thickens apace.

And it's quite a plot, too. It doesn't matter whether your betting slip is for dogs or vanity, the silly co-eds have arranged to appeal to it at a price—through food stands for the hot dogs; and as for the vanity, there's sure to be one of those inevitable carnival beauty shops, from which the victim emerges looking like nothing ever seen on land or sea, but happy in the conviction that he is Beau Brummel II.

And the grasping Y girls have plans.

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETE FOR MILITARY BALL

Premier R. O. T. C. Social Event of Year to Take Place Friday Night.

ATTENDANCE LIMITED

Plans for the 1929 Military ball, an annual affair sponsored by the Officers' club of the college R. O. T. C., are completed, according to Bob Losey, general chairman. The ball will be given Friday night.

The ball will be strictly a formal military affair, only advanced military students, band members of the two upper classes and alumni of the R. O. T. C. will be permitted to attend, with the exception of about 45 patrons and guests of honor. It is planned to limit the ticket sales to 180 couples.

Lieut. Col. T. L. Sherburne and Mrs. Sherburne, and Major C. Thomas, Stable and Mrs. Thomas-Stable have been selected to act as patrons.

Among the honor guests will be Governor Fred W. Green and Mrs. Green, President Robert S. Shaw, and Mrs. Shaw, Secretary H. H. Halladay, and Mrs. Halladay, Mr. and Mrs. L. Whitely Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McVool, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brody, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dowd and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stockman.

It is planned to have the grand march take place during the fifth dance and will be led by Cadet Colonel Herbert M. Place of Blissfield and his guest, Miss Clara Giffels of the class of '28.

It is planned to have Demonstration band, equipped with black and gold streamers and all members of the Officers' club are asked to help with the decorating which will begin at 7:30 Wednesday night and continue through the day.

FULL REHEARSAL HELD BY CAST

Leads and Choruses Join in Preparation for Union Revue.

Rehearsals of the cast and choruses for the Union production, "The Twelve Mile Limit," to be presented at the Gladwin Theatre on Jan. 24 and 25, began today for the first time. This is the first time in the history of the productions, that combined rehearsals have been held so soon before the presentation and it is expected that an unusual coordination will be the result of this move.

Rehearsal will be available and placed in the Union ballroom tomorrow and everything is in readiness for full dress rehearsals. The individual parts are nearing final perfection and with the addition of the choruses to augment and complete the cast in rehearsal, it is thought that this year's revue will surpass all previous ones.

Ticket reservations are being made in large numbers from student applications that are pouring in daily. Tickets will be available to the general public Monday morning, students to receive a choice should have their applications in before that date.

MICH. GLEE CLUB CONCERT SUCCESS

Unusual Program Presented by University of Michigan Co-ed Singers.

Friday night the Little Theatre was the scene of the first concert ever given here by the U. of M. Girls' Glee Club. The concert was given under the auspices of the M. S. C. Girls' Glee Club and Sphinx. Although the weather was unfavorable and the students were tired from a busy week of society initiations and numerous other activities, the event was well attended and proved a success.

The University Glee club, directed by Miss Nora Hunt, who has been the director of that organization for many years, presented a program which was a great deal of character from any of the usual concerts. Many original songs, filled with college pep and enthusiasm were used as interludes for the main program.

One of the most outstanding phases of the program was a "College Sing." The thirty-five girls, dressed in beautiful evening gowns of pastel shades arranged themselves in groups, some sat on the pillows which were scattered about the floor of the stage others sat on rockers and on stools, while still others grouped about the piano giving an informal atmosphere that proved very effective. Michigan Opera and Junior Girls' Play favorites were included. "Oh My Michigan Man" and "What Would You Do?" and "Blue Eyes" Miss Olive Stromeyer gave two musical readings which were met with a great deal of applause. The program was concluded by the M. S. C. Alma Mater and Yellow and Blue of Michigan.

After the concert an informal dance was given for the Michigan co-eds in the parlors of the Women's building, many State students attending. Music was furnished for dancing by the woman's orchestra of the building. Michigan guests were so well pleased with the general atmosphere and good feeling of the whole evening that they invited the M. S. C. Girls' Glee club to give a return concert engagement in Ann Arbor sometime during the spring term.

PLAN TO EXHIBIT FOUR PRIZE-WINNING STALLIONS

Four champion stallions will be exhibited in the stock judging pavilion from 1 to 3 on Tuesday, Jan. 22. Faculty and students are invited to see these animals, which are the newly purchased two year old "Sire Laet," grand champion of the 1928 International, the two year old Preston Wolfe, runner of the King Albert trophy, France Line Phoenix, and Treviso, the two horses which have headed the Percheron and Belgian groups at Michigan State since 1923.

AUSTRALIA STAR OF WORLD FAME COMES THURSDAY

Mme. Austral, Soprano, and John Amadio, Flautist, on Concert Course.

FIRST OF FIVE NUMBERS

Mme. Florence Austral, the noted Australian dramatic soprano, is scheduled to open the Michigan State college Concert course in Demonstration hall, Thursday, Jan. 24. She will be accompanied by her husband, John Amadio, flautist in recital.

Mme. Austral who has taken her name from the land of her birth, was born and educated in Melbourne, Australia. Today she is noted as one of the greatest of the new generation of operatic and dramatic stars. Educated in the Melbourne Conservatory of Music she was little heard of until her operatic debut in London as "Brin-hilde." Her American popularity dates from the tremendous ovation she received at the Cincinnati Festival in 1925. Local music lovers are promised a rare treat in Mme. Austral's sensational soprano.

Accompanying Mme. Austral will be John Amadio, the world famous flautist of New Zealand. Beginning his concert career at the age of 13 with the Italian Grand Opera company, M. Amadio rapidly rose in the musical world until we find him acting as solo flautist with Calve Melba and Tetrazzini. His appearances in this country were rated as great personal triumphs as he scored an instantaneous success. Florence Austral is a great favorite in England and is attaining as great popularity here as she enjoys there. In England she is considered the logical person to wear honors left side by Madame Nellie Melba's retirement, also in Australia. It would be a charming feature if Madame Austral were the recipient of the same honors that Melba enjoyed, especially as she is so eminently fitted to carry them.

The London Post said of her appearance at Covent Garden last September:

"Tonight Mr. Percy Pitt was the conductor. Miss Florence Austral was the star singer, operatic music was the principal feature of the program, and the songs of Wagner, Tristan and Isolde, the most subtle of the excerpts from opera. First the orchestra played the Preludes, and then soprano and orchestra joined in the final scene. The result was little short of Covent Garden for Miss Austral is one of the best voices in the world, and the orchestra also played its part to perfection."

If it were possible for Miss Austral to achieve what is known as American "double lead," she certainly should have had it when she landed in America the first of the year. The reviews and adulations which the London critics have been showering on this magnificent dramatic soprano are enough to turn anyone's head. But not Florence Austral. She appreciates the tributes to her art, but after all, she is such a new art to her, and she has come by it so naturally that instead of becoming egotistical about it, she is modest.

SCHOLARSHIP WON BY HENSON

The Michigan State Varsity club in its meeting last Thursday night announced that H. Lyle Henson, captain of this year's varsity track team, has been awarded the varsity club scholarship. This scholarship which covers the term registration fee, exclusive of the non-resident fee, is awarded to the senior member of the varsity club who has attained the highest scholarship average and has won two varsity letters previous to his senior year. The above award will be made annually, it began with the fall term, 1928.

Henson is a product of Lansing Central high school. He has been a star dash and relay man for the last two years. Last year he placed third in the 220 yard dash at the Eastern Intercollegiate and repeated this feat at the National Intercollegiate.

In his nine terms here Henson has carried 154 credits, and amassed 334 points for an average of 2.036. H. L. McAtee, State's great pole vaulter, was his closest competitor. He has 157 credits and 318 points, an average of 2.025.

Senior Formal and Open Houses Are Events of Week-end Society

The first formal party of the season took place Saturday evening in the ballroom, when the seniors gave the Senior ball. A black and white decoration prevailed throughout the ballroom, the same idea being out in the programs. About 100 couples made merry to the music of Jean Goldkette's Country Club orchestra, which furnished excellent entertainment. Secretary and Mrs. H. H. Halladay and Mrs. James B. Haslam were the only other social activities on the campus during the week-end.

Kappa Tau fraternity entertained an open house Friday night at the home of Mrs. C. Thomas-Stahle and her mother, Mrs. C. Thomas-Stahle. The Gold Diggers orchestra accompanied the dancers.

Gamma Rho fraternity open house Friday night. The Playboys furnished music for dancing. The party was given by Mr. and Mrs. C. Malcomb and Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus.

Playboys furnished music for dancing on Saturday evening when the society entertained an open house. Patrons of the party were Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Bergquist and Mrs. L. A. Smith.

Members also entertained with a house Saturday evening.

NATIONAL THETA SEC. IS ENTERTAINED BY LOCALS

Miss L. Pearl Green, national secretary of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, was entertained at tea by the local chapter of the society on Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 p. m.

Mrs. Edward Rich and Mrs. Lucille Yates, house chaperone of the Beta Pi chapter presided at the tea table which was artistically decorated with primroses, all lighted tapers and silver service. During the afternoon Miss Frances Ayres played several violin selections.

Guests at the affair included house mothers and two members of each sorority and Lansing alumnae. Hostesses for the afternoon were Dorothy Butler, Esther Darling, Helen Murdoch and Lois Crane.

Friday at midnight the group held formal initiation and the whole chapter left early Saturday for Detroit to attend the luncheon.

Y. W. C. A. CARNIVAL TO BE PRESENTED WEDNESDAY

The Y. W. C. A. presents its annual carnival tomorrow night in the old armory and is open to all students and guests of the campus. Each year at this affair the various sororities and campus houses have charge of a booth in which they give stunts or short plays during the time allotted for the exhibitions. This is the first year that a silver trophy cup will be awarded to that group having the best act. After the shows, a jittery dance is to finish the remainder of the evening's entertainment.

Members of the Y cabinet are chairman for the carnival. Mary Nelson has charge of the sororities and their work. Gladys Morse of arrangements, and Virginia Lauzen of publicity.

Sailor Gets This Tobacco in Far Port

Buenos Aires, Argentina,

Larus & Bro. Co.,
Richmond, Va., U. S. A.

Gentlemen:
I'm a seafarer, and as such of course travel quite a lot. Right now I am in the Argentine, and am glad to say that I can here purchase your beloved Edgeworth Tobacco, of which I'm so very fond.

It is indeed a pity that one can't find this good smoke in every place of the seven seas. While recently in Germany, my home-country, I tried in vain to come upon one of these little blue tins. I'm not saying too much in mentioning that I would outwalk that famous mile, burning up dear Edgeworth. I dare say there is no other tobacco like it, and am convinced that Edgeworth cannot be improved.

Let me know when you contemplate ceasing to make Edgeworth so that I may lay in a goodly store to last till I'm seventy.

May Edgeworth never change!
I'll always remain
Sincerely yours,
Willie Schmiekies

STATE FROSH OPEN COURT SEASON WITH 39-24 WIN

The State Fresh opened their schedule Saturday afternoon in the State gymnasium by defeating the Alma Frosh 39 to 24. Coach "Red" Colvin's cagers appeared well in the first encounter. The score stood 17 to 10 at the end of the first half.

The defensive work displayed by Vanderploeg and Cuthbertson, guards, and Boeskoel, the lanky center, made it difficult for the Alma freshmen to score. Pinneo and Green, forwards for State, did some good work offensively. Vanderploeg with 11 points was the high scorer of the Spartan freshmen. Pinneo was only two points behind Crawford and Wehrley each collected 9 points for Alma. There were few times that Boeskoel, the Spartan yearling center, missed the tip-off during the encounter.

and Haca took the floor for the remainder of the period. At the end of the half the score stood 16 to 3. Braziel, a Titan forward, placed a field goal and a free throw in the hoop for Detroit's counter.

In the second period State eased up with its attack, but at no time were they threatened seriously. At the beginning the regulars were used but as the game became rather rough and Coach VanAlstyne had in view the Notre Dame encounter, he began using his substitutes.

is humble in her acceptance of her great gift.
Thursday night's recital is the first of five local musical offerings arranged by the Michigan State Institute of Music and Allied Arts. Members of the student body should take advantage of the series, as they have already purchased tickets under the self-imposed plan.

On Jan. 31, the second concert will be the Detroit Symphony orchestra, Victor Kolar, conductor, with Michael Press, world famous violinist, now of the Michigan State Institute, as soloist.

WEATHER DELAYS MEET WITH KAZOO FENCERS

Because of icy roads, the fencing meet between Michigan State and the Kalamazoo Fencing club, which was to be held Saturday, January 19, in the State gymnasium, has been postponed to the near future. The exact time of the meet has not been decided. The Kalamazoo club has a team of skilled veterans, while with the exception of Edwin Gruettner, third-year varsity fencer, Coach Waffa has a team of sophomores for whom this will be the first normal bout. What Other College Men Have Done With Kresge Graduating from Western Reserve University in 1921, I began business life with an idea that I was fitted for a managerial position. I left my comfortable desk work and started in the stockroom. Then I worked successfully as floor manager, assistant manager and manager.

I then received my biggest promotion, and today I am happily located in an executive position, with increased responsibilities.

The financial return that has come to me exceeds all that I had expected.

Charles B. Smith, Western M. S. 1921
A Phi Delta Kappa man became an instructor until 1923, then assistant head chemist for an Eastern manufacturer until 1922 when he entered the Kresge organization to take the training course. He is now a manager of a Kresge store and claims that his financial record is a good one.

A Missouri University graduate enthusiastically relates his Kresgeing.
"In June of 1923, just after I had been presented with my much treasured sheepskin, a girl friend of mine, who was a graduate of the University of Michigan, told me that she was planning to enter the Kresge organization. I was very interested in her story and decided to follow her lead.

I followed her advice by starting in the stockroom of a Kresge store on December 8, 1923.

Today I am managing my first store, happy in the thought that I am on the road to success."

AFTER the years of college then there comes to many men the most trying period of their careers. What place does the world have for them? For what niche has their training best suited them? Where do they fit?

It is to these seniors who have not yet fully decided on their future that this advertisement is addressed.

The S. S. Kresge Company has an opportunity for college men who are ambitious enough and capable enough to reach the top—yet who are willing to start at the bottom. These men we train to be store managers and to occupy other executive positions—well paid positions involving a share in the Kresge profits. The men selected are given intensive preparation for their future executive positions, they are instructed in every detail of store management and they are advanced as rapidly as they become familiar with the Kresge policy and the Kresge methods of merchandising. The work is not easy but the reward is not small—an executive position in the Kresge organization which operates 510 stores with an annual volume of business close to $150,000,000.

If a career such as those described here appeals to you, write our Personnel Department and a Kresge representative will be sent to give you a personal interview.
