Clardy Stands Firm On 'Pinko' Charge Against Lecturers

By ARNOLD SPELLMAN
State News Capital Reporter

Kit F. Clardy told the STATE NEWS yesterday he was "not going to rest" as long as men like Senators Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) and Wayne Morse (R-Ore.) are invited to speak at MSC.

When queried, President Hannah and Dean Crowe replied that the college will continue to present men of varying political views.

'Life' Tells Tale Back Of Aqua Pix

Two photographers who took pictures of last year's Water carnival, purportedly for Life magazine, were free lance field representatives, Alvin L. Smith, of the college information services said yesterday.

The question arose when representatives of Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity queried Life magazine concerning the pictures that were taken. None ever appeared in the national magazine.

Smith said the photographers were assigned to take the pictures by the head office of the magazine in New York City. They were accompanied here by the editor of Life's Detroit office, he added.

A letter from the New York office of the magazine to the local fraternity explained it had no record of the assignment. The letter stated photographers often do free lance work and use the name of the magazine, but that much of that free lance material cannot be used because of space limitations.

College Chest Subscriptions Top Drive Goal

A last minute surge this week brought the college's total subscription to the United Community Chest drive $650 over its quota, MSC Drive Director Harold Sponberg announced yesterday.

Faculty and staff members subscribed over $15,150 to the drive, Sponberg said.

The fine cooperation of faculty supervisors and canvassers made it possible for this drive to go over the top, he said.

Sponberg mentioned additional high supervisors in the successful campaign. They were Dr. L. B. Schell, of the veterinary medicine school, and Marjorie Johnson, who handled the secretarial work for the drive.

The Dairy State Wisconsin, home of the University of Marquette, will be honored as a dairy state. Opening with a cow formation, the MSC band under Leonard Falcone will serenade the visitors with "Wait Till the Cows Come Home."

To the tune of "I Am an American" the band will form a huge piece of cheese, best known of Wisconsin's dairy products.

Nine Given Nod By Ag Board As Four Quit

The appointment of nine new Michigan State College staff members and the resignation of four were approved by the State Board of Agriculture last Thursday.

Carl L. Strong and Leslie R. Silvers were appointed assistant professors in the Continuing Education Service. Both have been on the staff of the service temporarily prior to their official appointments as assistant professors.

Counselor Appointed Nick Pagan was appointed assistant counselor for men replacing Harold E. Sponberg, who is now assistant director of placement.

Instructors appointed by the board are Bernard W. Spivak, physical education; Frederick Tooley, music; Frederick W. Kuebler, physics and astronomy; Evan P. Roberts, horticulture and short courses; Robert O. Halton, board of examiners and counseling center.

Resignations were accepted from Kingsley Montgomery, instructor in the board of examiners and counseling center; Timothy L. Hodge, research instructor in agricultural economics; Harold O. Story, instructor in electrical engineering; and Arthur J. Luck, instructor in physics and astronomy.

The board granted a year's leave to Russell A. Kirk, instructor in history of civilization, to continue his studies at St. Andrews University and various libraries in Great Britain.

Few Survive POW's Tell Of Death March

Pyongyang, Korea, Oct. 20.—Three battered American survivors today said unestimated scores of U.S. prisoners of war "died like flies" on a terrifying 160-mile death march from Seoul to Pyongyang.

The trio said 283 began that horror march, under guard of brutal North Korean Reds. They indicated comparatively few survived, but did not know the number.

The trail of those survivors now leads 150 miles farther north to the Manchurian border.

MacArthur Says Korean War Definitely Ending

TOKYO.—(AP)—Two battalions of U.S. parachute troopers jumped unopposed into Red Korea between the fallen capital of Pyongyang and the Manchurian border Friday under the personal direction of General MacArthur.

The United Nations commander said after the surprise operation: "The war is definitely coming to an end."

He did not amplify. The chutists had two missions: To black escape of die-hard North Korean Reds still battling United Nations troops in and around secured, Pyongyang, and to rescue American prisoners of war.

Three thousand parachute troops floated down from B9 C-119s and 39 C-47s onto flat land near Sukehon and Sunchon, each roughly 30 miles north of Pyongyang and 80 miles southeast of the Manchurian border.

The towns are on the two main roads leading north from the captured Red stronghold of Pyongyang.

After watching the first airborne operation of this war from his Constellation plane "Scap," MacArthur said:

"I didn't see any opposition. It looks like it was a complete surprise. It looks like we closed the trap. Closing that trap should be the end of all organized resistance. The war is very definitely coming to an end."

It had begun June 25 when the North Korean Reds invaded South Korea and almost succeeded in overrunning the whole peninsula before the American-led United Nations forces could concentrate the power for the present successful counteroffensive.

The parachute drop might be the last big operation of that counteroffensive.

Pres. Hannah Requests New Draft

Action Follows Letter Hinting Rights Denial

By DEAN MORTON

The State Board of Agriculture yesterday suggested that the State chapter of the American Association of University Professors rewrite that part of the Board policy to which it objected.

The Board had considered the request of the AAUP that the faculty policy be delegated at its Thursday meeting.

Last July a statement of policy was issued by the Board which contained in its third paragraph the directive that staff members who desire to take any active part in partisan political campaigns or to interfere directly in partisan issues obtain a leave of absence without pay, or resign their positions.

AAUP Statement A statement which was drafted last Tuesday by the academic committee of the AAUP to the Board said that this paragraph might be construed as a denial of:

(a) the constitutional rights of professors;

(b) the legal rights defined in state and federal law;

(c) the position stated in the code of the American Association of University Professors.

In a letter carrying the Board's decision to Victor H. Noll, president of the State AAUP chapter, President John A. Hannah wrote:

"The Board suggests that your organization rewrite the third paragraph and submit it to the Board for their consideration."

Disputed Paragraph The letter then continues with a possible qualification of Board policy contained in the disputed paragraph. "The Board insists that campaigning as a candidate for any major political office is an interference with the duties of college staff members, and that the policy statement makes it very clear that any employee campaigning as a candidate for a major political office is expected to do his campaigning on his own time, not on time for which he is recompensed by the Board."

President Hannah's letter makes mention only of a candidate for a major political office, whereas last July's Board policy forbade "any active part in a partisan political campaign."

Possible Further Action Noll said yesterday that any further action upon the issue will have to come from the AAUP. He added that he would not comment upon the situation until the AAUP had time to consider the Board's reply.

The definition of a "major political office" and whether or not President Hannah's letter constitutes a new policy will have to be threshed out between the Board and the AAUP when action is taken, it appeared yesterday.

Requested Last Spring The State Board points out in President Hannah's letter that the original policy statement on faculty politics was requested by the AAUP last spring.

East Lansing Closed Well May Not Open

East Lansing may never open one of its six wells again, according to City Manager Jack Patriarche.

"It's in a poor location," he said yesterday. "We might not want to take any chances with it."

The well, located at Beech and Orchard streets, was closed a few months ago when the city discovered it was contaminated.

Inspection officers from the State Health department verified the findings on Oct. 13 and the city has been pumping out the well all this week, Patriarche said.

The other five wells are enough to get us through the winter, at least," he said, "probably even through the summer, depending on the type of weather."

The college does not get its water from these wells, Patriarche said, but operates its own water station.

Hub To Home

Alpha Chi's Return; Finally Move To House

BY NARA MURRAY

After living in a quonset hut since the beginning of the term, 12 members of Alpha Chi Omega sorority moved their gear to their partially remodeled house Tuesday.

With much work still to be done on it, the house is at least better than the hut—showers, small which penetrates the whole house, and makes life rather unattractive. But the one thing that almost chased the Alpha Chis back to south campus is the gung which signals the men to begin work. It rings at 8 a.m. six days a week.

Other activities in the sorority have been moving into the house from their temporary quarters on the campus and in East Lansing. There will be 30 coeds there when everything is settled.

Major Lack. However, living arrangements still leave something to be desired. One major lack is the telephone. It hasn't been installed yet, and the Alpha Chis are wondering if they'll be able to keep in touch with their social life.

During the siege in the huts, most of their dates gave each other rides to South Campus in the cars that were available, but with no telephone things are going to be mighty lonesome.

Guide To Eateries. With the dining room still not finished, the Alpha Chis are thinking of publishing a guide to East Lansing eateries. After eating in them for half a term, they feel that they are well qualified.

Local sororities invited the women to have all their meals at the various houses, but the distance between East Lansing and the huts was too great.

Two Members. However, two Alpha Chi members have been eating at the Kappa Alpha Theta house and last week Kappa Kappa Gamma held open house for the sorority after the game.

Delta Chi fraternity also gave an exchange dinner for them this week and Beta Theta Pi is planning a buffet supper for the sorority after the game this afternoon.

Pine House. Outside of not being able to get downstairs when the workmen are fixing the inside fire escape, the sorority members think their house is fine.

MSC Sub-Stations Carry On Research Throughout State

French Line Holds Reds At Delta

U.S. Help Expected In Indochina

SAIGON, Vietnam, Indochina (AP) — Seasoned French forces dug in with heavy armor today along the Red River delta while reinforcements were mobilized to bolster new positions for a stand against Communist-led Vietnamese troops from the mountainous north.

Forced out of five frontier posts by strengthened Vietnamese forces, the French were aligned in open country on the northern rim of the delta, with the backing of tanks, artillery and planes.

Military sources disclosed that alert orders are being sent to French Army reservists in Indochina, who are subject to duty immediately upon publication of a mobilization call.

The French administration already is mobilizing all male civilians between the ages of 21 and 35 for a period of 21 days military duty. Jobs of French citizens were frozen.

While the French were concentrating their forces on the delta banks between the cities of Hanoi and Haiphong, the American aid program was being expanded and accelerated. The French aircraft carrier Diemide is expected to dock here soon with a shipment of United States navy type Helio fighter planes.

Senior western diplomats said the battle for control of North Indochina will depend on the outcome of the race between the growing power of the Vietnamese forces and the arrival of more American military equipment.

If the French are forced to fall back from their delta defenses, they have strong positions they could take up in the narrow 100-mile Indochinese waist between Thailand and the sea.

Foreign military observers say that only a Chinese Communist invasion to tie up with a Vietnamese offensive could achieve a breakthrough now. There is no confirmation here of Hong Kong reports that Chinese Communists have crossed the border or intend to invade Indochina.

Lake City station is for potato and poultry research. Lake City is between Houghton Lake and Cadillac in the center of the state. The upper peninsula has a climate differential with the southern part of the state, and this is the prime interest of the station at Chatham. This station centralizes all the research which is done for the special problems of the peninsula.

Dunbar Station
The Dunbar Forest station is, as you might imagine, concerned with research on forestry problems.

At Augusta, near Battle Creek, is the Kellogg Bird Sanctuary. While the sanctuary is not a station of the college, extensive crop research is being carried on there. As well as these stations, other smaller projects are being conducted on private farms under the supervision of county agents of the college.

Still other research is being done by the Michigan Crop Improvement association, an independent but cooperating agency. The association is the agency which certifies seeds and performs other functions to improve the farming industry in Michigan.

Williams Says Big Business Dictates Kelly

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. — (AP)

Gov. Williams last night lashed his Republican gubernatorial opponent, Harry F. Kelly, as an enemy of state and to cities and schools in obedience to the dictates of big business.

He reiterated his charges that if Kelly is reelected the "real governors" will be Arthur E. Summerfield, Republican national committeeman and a Flint auto dealer, John Lovett, lobbyist of the Michigan Manufacturers Association, and W. F. Doyle, lobbyist for the claims store bureau.

Williams told an evening rally that Kelly opposed the sales tax diversion amendment which sent money back to cities and schools and required the raising of additional state revenues.

'Is My Tie Straight?'

James Melton Admires Spartan Music Building

By KATHY GREGORY

A friendly smile, a hearty handshake, a voice which rings even in conversation — this is James Melton.

In an infrequent just preceding his concert Thursday evening, the famous star of Metropolitan Opera spoke happily about his wife and four and a half-year-old daughter.

"They're home on our farm in Connecticut," he said. Then turning to me, "Say, is my tie straight?"

Mr. Melton's opinions about our campus were entirely favorable. He mentioned especially the "fine new Music Building." He stated that the campus is "perfectly beautiful."

Between gulps of water and attempts at donning his handsome black coat, Mr. Melton told about the tour he is now making. He will travel from East Lansing to Florida; then four Kentucky and Oklahoma along with several other states. He said, "College audiences are the best in the world."

A tall, fine looking gentleman, James Melton will appear on television this winter. He has long been known as the star of International Harvester's "Harvest of Stars."

'Big Ed' Kelly, Chicago Boss, Dies Suddenly

Chicago — (AP) — Edward J. Kelly, Democratic political boss and former mayor of Chicago, died today. He was 74.

The tall, red-haired civil engineer, who helped the late Franklin D. Roosevelt make third term presidential history, collapsed suddenly and died of heart disease in a doctor's office.

He had gone there for a periodic checkup and had just told the doctor: "I never felt better in my life."

Kelly was Democratic national committeeman from Illinois and the brains of the old Kelly-Nash Chicago machine — one that used to grind out half a million votes for any man "Big Ed" okayed.

He was mayor of Chicago from 1933 to 1947, a 14-year stretch unmatched by any other head of the nation's second largest city.

He was an audacious political master who rarely made a bad guess. His friends said he was so smart he even knew when to quit.

In 1946 he did that. When they told him he couldn't win a fifth term and he might take the white ticket down to defeat with him, he retired and helped elect Democratic mayor Martin H. Kennelly.

But he remained active in politics. He helped quash an Illinois anti-Truman revolt and helped President Truman win nomination at Philadelphia in 1948.

Recently he had been attending big rallies of the current campaign for reelection of Senator Lucas (D-Ill.). As usual, Kelly got

Cook To Speak At Soil Convo

Soil and water conservation leaders from all sections of the United States will discuss conservation problems and results in Detroit, Oct. 26, 27 and 28.

It will be the fifth annual meeting of the Soil Conservation Society of America. Russell G. Hill, Michigan State College extension soil conservationist, says 500 or more will attend the conference in the Staller Hotel. Hill is treasurer of the national association.

Leaders of industry, land-grant colleges, farm organizations and the U.S. department of agriculture are among those listed to speak. Dr. R. L. Cook, Michigan State College soil scientist, will speak Friday morning Oct. 27 and Hill will preside at the Friday luncheon at which Charles A. Kettering of General Motors will speak.

State Cross Country Team To Meet Buckeyes Today In Attempt To Gain Second Big Ten Win

Football Roundup Mustang-Owl Game Tops Week's Grid Schedule

NEW YORK—(AP)—College football hits the half-way mark in the 1950 season today, but early returns have served only to point out the tough cookies, while the various conference championships are far from determined.

The big game of the week—as far as unbeaten and untied teams is concerned—pops up tonight in Houston when powerful Southern Methodist meets dangerous Rice before a sellout crowd of 70,000. The outcome will have a strong bearing on the Southwest conference title, although this is the first league game for both teams.

Nation's Number Three Southern Methodist, the nation's No. 3 team in the last AP poll, has a devastating passing and ground attack which has rolled up 444 yards per game. The Mustangs plastered Oklahoma A. & M. last week, 56-0, but Coach Rusty Russell has great fear of Rice.

Texas folks won't forget the Oxis upset, the Mustangs last year, 41-27. Something's going to give in the Big Ten this week, too, especially when Ohio State tackles Minnesota at Minneapolis, and Wisconsin takes on Michigan at Ann Arbor. Ohio State's Rose bowl champs, rated No. 9 in the country, are out to repeat as Big Ten bosses.

Wolves Want Win Wisconsin leads the league with victories over Illinois and Iowa, but Michigan is smarting to recoup prestige after losing last week to Army.

Things will be happening in the far west, too, where some unscrumbing is due in the Pacific coast conference. Washington, tied with California for the conference lead with two wins, travels eastward to play Illinois at Champaign.

At Los Angeles, Stanford puts its No. 6 rating and Rose bowl hopes up against UCLA in the big conference tussle of the day.

California, No. 5, entertains weak Oregon State at Berkeley.

Track Mentor Takes Seven Man Crew To Columbus Meet

The Spartan cross-country squad will try for their second straight victory over Big Ten competition this morning in a dual clash with Ohio State at Columbus.

The Spartans hold a slight advantage in experience over the Buckeyes. This will be the Spartans' second meet of the cross-country season, having trimmed Purdue here last week, 20-39.

For the Buckeyes, this will be their first meet of the season and also their first meet in Big Ten competition for quite a while, after quitting cross-country a few years ago.

Should Be Close The meet looks like a "natural" with a great running race predicted between State's Captain Warren Druetler and the Buckeyes' sensational Len Trux.

Trux is one of the biggest reasons why the Buckeyes returned to cross-country competition. As a sophomore last year, he burned up the Big Ten in distance track competition and challenged Wisconsin's Don Gehrmann's role as the league's best distance runner.

Last year he ran a 4:12 mile and a 9:12 two mile race as a first year man.

State Rates Edge Outside of Trux, Ohio State has little to compare with State's depth in Don Makieliski, Dick Rogers, and the sophomore quartet of Jim Kipfer, Mickey Walker, Jerry Zerke, and Wayne Scott.

Robinson's Stars Score 11-1 Win JACKSON, Miss.—(AP)—Jackie Robinson's Negro all-star baseball team swamped a Jackson all-star aggregation 11-1 in an exhibition game here.

Robinson's all-stars pounded their hosts for 14 hits, wearing out two pitchers in the process. Robinson got two hits in five trips to the plate while Larry Doby and Roy Campanella were limited to one each in a similar number of attempts.

Indiana Harriers Win CHAMPAIGN, Ill.—(AP)—Indiana won its second cross-country duel of the season today, out-running Illinois, 19-37.

IM Games Feature Top Heavy Scoring

High scores and lopsided games featured the third round of the fraternity football league Thursday night. Fred Schenck threw four touchdown passes, two of which were caught by Bob Wishert as Sigma Nu rolled to an easy 36-0 victory over AEP.

Lambda Chi gained a 33-0 triumph over Pi Kappa Phi. Ralph Bauman stole the show as he scored four touchdowns, two on long runs.

Theta Xi Rallies Trailing 6-0 at the half, Theta Xi bounced back to win, 13-6, as Doug Aber scored twice late in the game. Milt Smith took a pass from Stu Jacobson for the lone ZHT tally.

Bud Bailey's third quarter pass to Jim Hayes gave Delta Tau Delta a 7-0 win over Phi Kappa Tau. Both teams had several scoring chances but could not push one across until Bailey's short job broke up the game.

Tossing two touchdown passes and scoring another himself, Wayne Hartigan led Kappa Sigma to a 20-6 upset from Sigma Chi. Dave Crego pitched to Tom Folts for Sigma Chi's touchdown.

Farmhouse Wins Phi Kappa Sigma got off to an early lead when Dick Allen intercepted a pass and made a long run to score, but Farmhouse came back in the second half to win, 21-6. Dick Anderson threw two touchdown passes for the winners.

Theta Chi trounced Beta Theta Psi 24-0 with a strong aerial attack. Rex Willough and Harry Johnston each threw a touchdown pass and scored once during the runaway contest.

With Spence Smith running for two touchdowns, and Fred Soyles passing for two more, Phi U. smothered AGR 30-7. Ted Melichar hit Rod Black for the AGR score.

Delta Chi Romps Delta Chi showed a well-balanced attack to overpower Delta U. 40-0. The outcome was never in doubt once Delta Chi started rolling. Ray Peterson, Dick Hise and Ken Larson all scored, and all three passed good for other touchdowns.

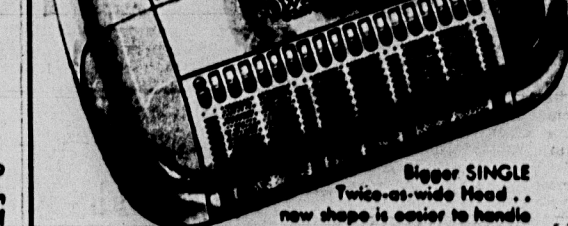

All of the scoring was done in the first half as the Delta Sigs beat Phi Delta Theta, 19-6. Jim Monteith wound up with the ball in the end zone after a series of passes to give the Phi Delta first blood in the game.

Chuck Kent leaved a long TD pass to Bob Martin, and later scored on a long run to lead the Delta Sigs. Don Martinette scored also, on a pass interception.

Minimum Goal Set For Ticket Sales On ND Game Trip

A minimum of 150 tickets must be sold for the special train to the Notre Dame game, Tom King, in charge of ticket sales announced yesterday. Only 82 have been sold. King said that the railroad has set a minimum of 300 passengers for the train to run. Football team and band members will make up about half of this amount. King pointed out that many alumni will probably want train tickets. He said that he had received queries from alumni in Ann Arbor and Flint concerning the tickets.

Communists Call Convo On Germany

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Oct. 20.—(AP)—V. M. Molotov of Soviet Russia and foreign ministers of seven other communist nations met here today with the announced purpose of discussing "the re-militarization of Western Germany," which the Soviet government has warned it will not tolerate.

The Czechoslovak News agency and the Moscow radio announced the meeting tonight. It was called by the Soviet Union.

Molotov, a Soviet deputy prime minister long out of the Kremlin limelight, apparently is acting as Soviet foreign minister at the meeting. Andrei Y. Vishinsky, who succeeded Molotov as foreign minister March 5, 1949, is now attending the United Nations assembly meeting in New York.

There were repeated reports last August that Molotov was visiting Peking, the capital of Communist China, for a conference on Asian affairs. A Japanese anti-Communist organization in Tokyo said, without confirmation, that Molotov was talking over with Chinese Red leaders an invasion of Formosa. Chinese Nationalists in Taipei, the Formosan capital, said Korea was a topic. They said Russia and Red China had agreed to rush 150,000 Chinese Red troops and Russian armor to North Korea if United Nations forces crossed the 38th-parallel. The U. N. forces have since crossed that boundary and are now striking deep into North Korea, against limited resistance.

AFTER YOU SMOKE THEM
...you have no unpleasant after-taste.

WHILE YOU SMOKE THEM you get more pleasure than any other cigarette can give you—that's why millions of smokers say: THEY SATISFY.
