Victory Cargo Homeward Bound

Grinning Spartans Ride Rails

By JOHN RANDALL

A grinning group of Spartans rode the rails back to Michigan State last Saturday night. They were on the "Football Special" from South Bend. A 36-33 victory over Notre Dame was the prize cargo.

On the train were some 500 rooters and athletes.

President Hannah stood at the end of the car with Dean of Students Tom King. Both were listening to Doug Weaver sing "The Wabash Cannon Ball." They, with the rest of the team, joined in on the chorus. President Hannah's smile was broad. Even Dean King didn't seem to mind that Notre Dame was his Alma Mater.

Sole Alone
Sonny Grandelius had a seat

all to himself. One leg was stretched out into the aisle with a painful charley-horse. No one bothered it.

Across from him sat Jesse Thomas and Don Coleman. They talked about what they were going to do when they got home. Now and then they would join in a song with the rest. Jesse said, "they (Notre Dame) had a good team and that he was tired but felt real good."

As the men went to the dining car to eat, roast beef and pork, someone would take their place in the quartet to sing. They sang "In the Corps" getting louder and louder as more voices joined in.

Tied Handkerchief
Dean Garner had tied a handkerchief around his head and was leading the quartet that had grown to a dozen or more when "Biggie" Munn walked into the car. A cheer went up. Amid cheers "Biggie" held up a newspaper for a picture. The newspaper headlines said the Fighting Irish had lost a close game.

Mazz Mazza, end, was having trouble finding his topcoat. As he came down the car aisle he said, "in this confusion it's a wonder I can find anything."

The train slowed down and as "Biggie" put on his overcoat he turned to the fellows and said, "We're coming in soon, fellows. Let's show them we won."

A spirited and victorious team stepped off to meet the welcoming crowd at Farm Lane.

State Holds Vote
Ironically, Michigan State—although ineligible to compete—will have a vote in selecting the Big Ten's bowl delegate when the conference race ends Nov. 25.

The Rose Bowl, most popular of the traditional bowl games, was brought up, but Dean Lloyd Edwards, chairman of the State Athletic council said, "I don't think we have a chance in a million of playing in the Rose Bowl this year. It's early in the season to be talking about bowl games."

As the conference race now shapes up, Michigan, Illinois or possibly Wisconsin will get the Rose Bowl nomination.

Blow At Irish
Call it insult heaped on injury. As if Notre Dame football fans didn't feel lousy enough already.

The following sign advertising a book appeared yesterday in the Campus Book store, across Grand River avenue from the Union:

"The Notre Dame Story"—Reduced for Clearance.

Waters and his wife were taken to the St. Lawrence hospital in Lansing. He suffered a fractured right knee. His wife fractured both arms. Their condition was reported to be good yesterday at 5 p.m.

According to Eastern identity specialist Everett Peck, Waters turned out of his lane to pass on the two-lane highway and struck the incoming car with its six passengers. He added that they were on a straight stretch of road and probably did not see each other until just before the crash.

The driver of the other car, Dorothy McClellan, 49, was killed by the impact. She was founder of the Allegan county humane society.

Changes Dogma
VATICAN CITY—(AP)—The decision of Pope Pius XII to proclaim as Catholic dogma that the Virgin Mary was assumed body and soul into the glory of heaven received the approval today of 35 cardinals and more than 500 bishops from all parts of the world.

Fire On Palace
SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico—(AP)—Nationalist insurgents fired on the governor's palace and attacked police stations in several towns throughout the country today. Reports received here said the death toll may reach 23.

Governor Luis Muñoz Marín said there was "communist influence" in the revolt, which the government said was crushed.

Of BowlTug Wilson Says
'No Bowl Go'

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO — Michigan State, conqueror of Michigan and Notre Dame, but member in-name-only of the Big Ten football family, is not eligible to compete in the 1951 Rose Bowl game.

Big Ten Commissioner K. L. (Tug) Wilson today recalled a ruling of May, 1949, in which the conference stipulated that only a championship contender would play in the final two games of the five-tilt bowl series—which ends next New Year's day.

Wilson said the Spartans' late play in 1950, which eliminated a clause in the bowl pact which provided that the Big Ten could send an outside representative from the Middle West or East to the final two bowl games.

Three Petitions Filed
Lack Of Interest May Cancel Band Committee

By DAN MCCRARY

Only three petitions for the Students council's band uniform committee were turned in by deadline time yesterday noon Robert Rombouts, council president, announced yesterday.

"It is unbelievable that only three petitions were submitted," Rombouts said. "Unless interest takes a sudden increase we will have to drop the project." The deadline has been extended until 6 p.m. today and petitions are available in the council office, he added.

Names Steps
Step one in the president's program is the investigation of the situation by the Student council committee, and the organization of specific action to obtain the uniforms.

Step two, a fund raising drive, and step three involves the setting up of a committee with band members, music department members, and Student council representatives, to decide the color and design of the uniforms.

Push Petition
Meanwhile band members stated a desire yesterday to circulate a petition among the student body in an effort to spur interest and action on the new uniforms.

Band president Al Meezro said he thought about 75 per cent of the band members were in favor of circulating such a petition.

However, President Hannah felt the council could adequately handle the uniform project. He outlined a three step program by which he thought uniforms could be obtained.

'Greatest Game I've Seen,' Says Munn

When the hands on the clock finally reached the 60 minute mark, the scoreboard had stopped at 36 for the Spartans and 33 for Notre Dame. Coach "Biggie" Munn summed up the preceding two hours and 35 minutes of football simply and accurately. "It was the greatest game I've ever seen."

All Would Agree
All 57,600 fans in Rockne Memorial stadium would be quick to agree. Notre Dame partisans had no regrets. They had seen their team rise to superb heights of spirit and stamina. They saw them fight back gamely to overcome a 13 point deficit early in the game and jump at the victorious Spartans' heels all afternoon. The Irish lost simply because they were playing a better football team.

The Spartans were magnificent. Led on offense by the incomparable "Sonny" Grandelius and Vince Pisano and on defense by sophomore linebacker Doug Weaver and halfback Wayne Benson, they rose to every occasion. State's blocking was crisp and their running hard. When Grandelius failed to gain around end, and it was rare, or when Pisano was stopped on his cross-backs off tackle, Down resorted to his passing.

Depends On Williams
Notre Dame, offensively, depended mostly on Bob Williams' passing. The Irish quarterback operated superbly behind a sometimes inadequate line, and kept the Spartan defense spread on short button back aerials to end Jim Mutscheller and his backfield mates—Bill Gay and Del Gander. Their ground attack was carried by one man—halfback John Peterson—who made 41 yards on the first play from scrimmage and was dangerous all afternoon. Peterson gave so much of himself he ended up in South Bend's St. Joseph hospital suffering from "complete exhaustion."

Michigan State's scoring was led by Grandelius, who racked up two touchdowns. He was followed by right half Vince Pisano, center Doug Weaver and left half Don McLaughlin, each of whom scored once. End Bob Carey contributed an all important field goal and three extra points.

Notre Dame relied on Mutscheller for three touchdowns on passes from Williams and one from his substitute, John Mazur. Mazur passed to Jerry Marchand for one more and Peterson scored once on a five yard drive in the second quarter.

Statistically, the Irish were superior in total yardage gained with 2667 rushing to State's 251. In the air, the Notre Dame squad passed 33 times and completed 19 for

Beauty Is Truth

Detective Charles J. Becker, of the MSC police department, applies blood pressure cuff to the arm of Mary Termohlen, Washington, D.C. sophomore, and recently elected Homecoming Queen, prior to giving a special lie detector demonstration for the STATE NEWS. (Photo by Sayle.)

Strictly Scientific?

Queen Mary Takes Lie Detector Examination

Like to be strapped to a lie-detector? Recent Homecoming Queen Mary Termohlen was. But it was strictly in the interest of science.

A special test was given on request of the STATE NEWS and administered by Detective Charles Becker of the campus police. The test was given to acquaint students with the working and potentialities of the machine.

Mary Tries "Lie"

Miss Termohlen was given a list of five names and told to think of one name in particular. She was instructed by Becker to answer "no" to each of the names read off to her.

When asked the name she was thinking of the detector registered immediately. Miss Termohlen, however, showed no noticeable physical emotion at the mentioning of the name.

Has Limitations

Becker, who just finished a six-week course on lie detection, stated, "I wish to stress the seriousness of this delicate instrument as a psychological aid in bringing criminals to justice."

Although this experiment was a complete success and the lie-detector is almost fool-proof, it can not be used to test psychopaths, chronic alcoholics and low-grade morons, Becker added.

Subjects Needed

It is impossible to give a person a test on this instrument against his will because the subject has to be perfectly quiet and relaxed. The machine registers psycho-

33 Mile Trip

MSC Students Teach Daily In Jackson

A trip to Jackson is made daily by 34 MSC education majors.

The student teachers are doing apprentice teaching in Jackson schools, fulfilling the requirements for their teaching certificates.

To obtain teaching certificates, necessary teachers must teach a half day every day for one term. Elementary teachers must complete two terms of apprentice teaching.

18 Mile Trip

The 18 mile trip is necessary since the schools in and around East Lansing cannot handle the large number of MSC students who must practice teach.

Though the practice of going to Jackson was started during term, this fall is the first time it has operated full time.

Students traveling to Jackson include 26 who teach in junior and high schools and eight elementary school teachers.

They leave East Lansing on the 6:30 a.m. bus which arrives in Jackson at 8:30. The students are back on campus by 1:30 p.m.

Yearbook Rated Among Top Five

Wolverine Wins Honors

The 1950 Wolverine has been rated All-American by Fred L. Kildow, director of the National Scholastic Press association. The rating stamps it as one of the top five yearbooks in its class in the country last year.

This honor was received by Alfred R. Bransdorfer, last year's editor, and extended to the entire 1950 staff by Kildow, who judged the annuals.

Superior Editing

In his report to Bransdorfer, Kildow wrote, "Your book is a joy to judge. While it does not have the flash and sparkle that some of its competitors have, its substantial soundness and superiority in planning and editing entitles it to the highest admiration and honors."

The yearbooks, which are sent in to the association, are evaluated on every possible point, and then classified according to total scores. The minimum score necessary to make All-American last year was 3,200 for MSC's class. The Wolverine went well above this with 3,295 points.

Proud From Criticism

"The 1951 Wolverine staff is pointing toward producing another All-American," Jim Brown, editor, declared. "We're proud of last year's book and by profiting from its criticisms, many of the same pitfalls will be avoided."

One criticism of last year's book made by Kildow was that it was crowded. Brown says they hope to avoid that this year by using a simple design to allow more white space.

Good Coverage

Although the 1950 annual was marked high on every phase, special praise was given by Kildow to the excellent editing, coverage, views, and treatment of school life.

"It is particularly gratifying to see a book whose staff was able and willing to pay the price in mental and physical effort to perfect such a satisfying yearbook," Kildow added in a personal note to Bransdorfer.

"Here's hoping your campus appreciated its excellence," he said.

Directory Sale To Start At Union Soon

The 1950-51 student directory will be out in about two weeks, according to John C. Leonard, assistant news editor, department of information services.

Proofs have been read and sent back to the Stone Printing Company in Lansing. Pending any difficulties there, he added, the estimate will stand.

The student directory lists all students alphabetically with their class, major, sex, student number, marital status, home and present addresses, whether basic college or upper school, and whether or not the student is a veteran.

When ready, the books will go on sale in the Union Book store for fifty cents.

Minnesota Alumni Plan First Meeting

Minnesota alumni of the Lansing area will hold an informal mixer Friday night, Nov. 10, at 8 p.m. in the Union building. This will be the first meeting of the Minnesota alumni in this area and also the Golden Gopher's first visit to Michigan State College.

Edward Hanslet, alumni secretary, will be in charge of the meeting. Athletic Director Ike Armstrong and President L. M. Merrill will be among the honored guests.

A dessert luncheon will be served later in the evening. Movies of the 1950 Minnesota-Michigan game will be shown. Reservations will be taken by Harold Sponberg at the placement office, Michigan State College. All alumni and their spouses are welcome.

Russell G. Hill Awarded Post In Soil Society

Lansing City Forester To Speak At Forum

Russell G. Hill, extension soil conservationist at Michigan State College, was among the new members elected to the national council of the Soil Conservation Society of America at a meeting of the organization held at Detroit recently.

Three hundred members of the society heard Charles F. Kettering, former research vice-president of General Motors corporation, state that agriculture can "write its own ticket" as far as production is concerned. The country's natural resources are virtually boundless, the inventor-scientist-industrialist said.

Morris E. Fonda of Detroit was elected president of the society. Austin L. Patrick, regional director of the U.S. Soil Conservation service in Upper Darby, Pa., was named first vice-president, and George M. Browning of the Iowa State college experiment station, Ames, Ia., second vice-president.

Government Announces Job Exams

United States Civil Service commission today announced an examination for Commodity Industry Analysts for positions in the fields of ceramics, coal, iron and steel, mineral resources (foreign), minerals (general), non-ferrous metals, non-metallic minerals (except fuels), and petroleum and natural gas.

Positions to be filled are in the Bureau of Mines and the Geological Survey of the Department of the Interior in Washington, D.C., and throughout the United States, and in other Washington agencies.

Applicant qualifications must include 3 1/2 to 6 years (depending on the grade of position) of experience of a technical, scientific or administrative character relating to one or more of the fields of work mentioned above.

Salaries range from $3,450 to $6,400 annually. Appropriate education may be substituted for all of the experience required for positions paying up to $4,600 a year and for part of the experience for higher level positions. No written test is required.

Additional information may be obtained from the Commission's Local Secretary, George A. Monroe, Lansing Post Office.

Seventeen Enrolled In New MSC Nurses Training School

Seventeen girls are enrolled in MSC's new program for training professional nurses. Five more are expected to enroll winter term, according to Miss Florence C. Kempf, director of the Nursing Education department.

Girls unable to begin the introduction to nursing course this term will be able to take the second part with the first part winter term, Miss Kempf said.

Summer School Included

"The Person As A Nurse," written by Miss Kempf and recently published, will be used as a text in the beginning nursing course. The four year program course will include two years and a six weeks summer school on the college campus and a little less than two full years of clinical training in co-operating hospitals.

The clinical training will include experience in hospital and surgical nursing, obstetrics and pediatrics. The department also hopes to include experience in psychiatry, communicable disease and home nursing, Miss Kempf said.

Clinical trainees will be assigned to the Edward W. Sparrow hospital in Lansing and the Butterworth hospital in Grand Rapids.

Four Year Curriculum

Clinical training will be offered in the fall of 1952. Completion of the full four year curriculum will lead to a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in nursing. R.N. certificates will be granted when the curriculum has been fully approved by the Michigan Board of Registration of Nurses.

Students in the nursing program will live in college housing and will be entitled to all rights and privileges granted college enrollees.

By Penn State, 19-44

State completed 7 of 42
80 yards. State intercepted a pass. One John Wilson in the backfield could be construed as a determined drive and gave State the touchdown.
The game went like this:
Michigan State kicked off
the first play from scrimmage tipped off a 41-yard pass to Marur at quarterback. Mazur threw the ball right and threw it into Mutscheller in the end zone. Caprara's try for a field goal was no good.
Spartans roared back at kickoff with Pisano grinding through the line and around end to the 10 yard line. State lost five yards for off-side. Pisano made them forget the take a reverse and around right end for a first down. Caprara's extra point was in favor of State.

Grandelius Goes Over

A high-spirited band of Spartan football gladiators swung into practice sessions yesterday, with Indiana's aerial-happy Hoosiers on their minds.
Head coach "Bugs" Munn's charges ran through both lightcontact offensive drills and defensive drills designed to throttle the air attack of Indiana's Lou D'Achille.
Yocca Injured
John Yocca was the only Green and White regular to miss practice. He was sidelined by a shoulder injury suffered in Saturday's Notre Dame game.
It was revealed that Yocca's injury was not a shoulder separation, as had previously been feared.
Left halfback "Sonny" Grandelius was nursing a slight charley horse.
Coaches Praise Team
Spartan coaches and officials had only words of praise for the teamwork and individual efforts of the Green and White in last Saturday's triumph.
"It was the greatest game of football I have ever seen, without any question," was "Bugs" Munn's unqualified comment.
All the coaches and players were very happy to win. They started out to do just that. But they have learned the lesson about getting over-enthusiastic about winning a football game," Munn said.
Meaning, of course, the letdown
after the Michigan victory.
Dawson Happy
Backfield coach "Red" Dawson
said:
"Naturally we are very happy to have won that one. We figured before the season started that it was one of our toughest games.
As far as Indiana is concerned, I think our boys can win if they are ready mentally and physically, although Indiana has an exceptionally good team this year."
Line coach "Duffy" Daugherty discounted the "lack of defense" theory.
"It was just one of those offensive games," he said. "Not many people were watching the blocking and tackling."
Daugherty pointed to the defensive work of end Jim King and line-backer Doug Weaver as exceptional.
More than 700 athletes reported to coaches of the nine football playing members of the Western Conference.

Left end Bob Carey spelled the difference for the Spartans Saturday in their win over Notre Dame with his 28-yard field goal in the third quarter to give MSC the three-point margin of victory.

Rickey Open
To Any 'Firm'
Baseball Offer

'MURAL'
SIDELIGHTS

Five Newcomers

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Branch
Rickey, known as a shrewd man-ipulator of the dollar, said today he is open to any "firm" baseball offer but that money isn't the important thing.
The 69-year-old Rickey, who sold his interest in the Brooklyn Dodgers for more than $1,000,000 last week, said baseball is still a big challenge to him.
Has he had any definite offers?
"Yes," Rickey replied. "But terms and conditions have not been discussed."
Asked if he had any interest in the Browns or Cardinals, Rickey carefully rephrased the question and replied:
"There is little likelihood that I will become identified with one of the St. Louis clubs."
How about reports he might wind up in the front office of the Pittsburgh Pirates?
"Mr. (John) Galbreath, president of the Pirates" has openly said he would like me to come to Pittsburgh," Rickey answered.
"I'm under great personal obligation to Mr. Galbreath and if I were to go back into baseball Mr.
Galbreath would be given careful consideration."

Left halfback Everest Grandelius (24), hammered four yards into the end zone while State guard, John Yocca (67), blocks out an unidentified Notre Dame griddler in the third quarter of Saturday's game. A holding penalty nullified the touchdown, but a few seconds later, Bob Carey kicked a 28-yard field goal to give MSC a 36-33 victory. (Photo by John Randall).

Harriers Defeated
By Penn State, 19-44

Buck's Coach
Tries To Stop
Victors' Virus

The injury-ridden Michigan State cross country team stepped out of Big Ten competition Saturday to challenge the nation's top distance crew and came out as expected, with a 19-44 trouncing at the hands of Penn State.
Don Makielski, the most consistent runner to date for the Spartans saved some face for the harriers by coping second place behind the Nittany Lions terrific Bill Ashenfelt-er, who toured the Penn State five mile course in a winning 25:41.
Walter Ninth
Penn State captured all the other positions with sophomore Mickey Walter breaking the Penn
er, who toured the Penn State five
State monopoly by finishing ninth.
Wayne Scott followed close behind with Herb Cook and Ed Kiczenski following in that order to place for State.
The Spartans were handicapped with the loss of their ex-sophomore runner, Jim Keplord, who was called home due to a death in the family, and Dick Roberts, who was sidelined with an ankle injury.
Druetzier Drops Out
Capt. Warren Druetzier, one of the nation's outstanding distance runners and No. 1 man for the Spartans dropped out of the race early with a severe side-ache.
Definitely the best cross country team in collegiate circles, the Nittany Lions, their apparent to the Spartans' NCAA title, had all seven runners from last year's team back in action.
Stops Win Streak
The loss broke a Michigan State two meet winning streak. Both wins were against Big Ten competition.
Although Coach Schlademan stated that the meet would serve only as a tune-up for the coming tournament, he was disappointed in the Spartans' showing and figured on a much closer battle.
The defeat closed the Green and White schedule in dual competition with a winning 2-1 record record.
Babe Ruth led the American League 13 times in slugging percentage and Rogers Hornsby nine times topped the National League in the same department.

COLUMBUS, O. — (AP) — "Doc"
Wes Fesler planned today to dose his rampaging Ohio State Buckeyes with some strong medicine to ward off victor's virus—over-confidence.
The medicine will be hard workouts, the Buck grid coach indicated in announcing preparations for the Big Ten conference contest with Northwestern at Evanston, Ill., next Saturday.
The Bucks' wallowed Iowa, 83-21, here last Saturday but Fes-ler appeared none too impressed.
"I don't think we had more than one sustained drive," he recalled.
And that's the reason "we're going to run their pants off this week," he said of his charges.

Robbins, Hyslop Named 'Seniors Of The Week'

Each week two students are chosen "Seniors of the Week" during the Senior Coffee hour. Started last winter term, the program will be continued throughout the year, according to Joan Crego, committee chairman.

Pictures of the seniors selected are displayed every week in the lobby of the Union building. A list of students is made up by Ann Porter and Jack Boerma and submitted to the Senior council for approval.

The two seniors named this week are Carolyn Robbins, East Lansing, and Fred Hyslop, Vassar.

Internationally Known Physicist

Osgood Nears Decade At State

By DAN McCURRY

Internationally known for his work as a physicist, Dr. Thomas H. Osgood, new dean of graduate studies, has been at MSC for the last nine years.

He headed the Physics department until 1946 when he was appointed director of the Division of Mathematical and Physical Sciences.

Born in England, Osgood, a native of Louth, England, came to this country in 1925 as an instructor at the University of Pittsburgh. Before that time he held instructor positions at the University of St. Andrews, and the University of Manchester.

He went to the University of Toledo in 1934, before coming to East Lansing as the head of the Physics department in 1941.

Osgood received his bachelor's degree from the University of St.

DR. OSGOOD

Andrews, a master's degree from the University of Chicago, and his doctorate from the University of Cambridge.

Speaking of his new position as dean of graduate studies, Osgood says, "I feel as though I'm a freshman again. It is very stimulating. I enjoy the contacts I make, and have an exceedingly good staff."

Photography and golf divide his spare time. He played on the Scottish International team in his college golfing days.

Various Activities

The editor of the American Journal of Physics, Osgood has also contributed to various encyclopedias, among them the "Book of Knowledge for Children," and "Ten Eventful Years," published by Encyclopedia Britannica.

Married, he is the father of two children, both attending college.

Scholarships Ready For 30

Foreign studies scholarships are available from the U.S. Office of Education, according to a recent announcement.

Scholarship applications may be obtained from the Division of International Education Relations, American Republics section, U.S. Office of Education, Washington 25, D.C.

The applicant must be an American student, possess a bachelor's degree, and a knowledge of the language of the country in which he intends to study. He must also have a study plan or research topic.

Students must apply for the scholarships in order to obtain them. Dr. Thomas H. Osgood, dean of the graduate school, said.

New Hours Set At Hospital

Olin memorial hospital's student clinic will operate on a five day week beginning tomorrow, Dr. Charles Holland, hospital director, announced yesterday.

Clinical service will be available to students Monday through Friday during regular posted hours but will be closed Saturdays, according to Holland.

This change puts the clinic on the same hours' schedule as the rest of the college offices.

"Our experience since the college went on a five day business week does not justify our keeping the clinic open to handle routine business on Saturday mornings," Holland explained.

"However, I wish to emphasize that the clinic is always available for the care of emergencies and emergency illnesses, night or day," he added.

U.S. Senator Will Speak To Students

United States Senator Paul H. Douglas of Illinois will lecture at college auditorium Thursday, November 8, at 8:15 p.m.

Sen. Douglas is nationally prominent as an economist, political scientist, and educator. He has taught at several colleges, including Amherst and the University of Chicago.

He has served on many federal and state commissions and was instrumental in the drafting of the first Social Security act.

In World War II Sen. Douglas was overseas with the U.S. Marines. He was wounded at Okinawa and received the Bronze Star for "heroic achievement in action" at Peleliu. From 1942 to 1946 he rose from the rank of private to major.

He was elected to the U.S. Senate in 1948.

Stuffed Horse In Ad Building Leading Attraction Of MAC

A horse named Buckskin drew more attention than MAC in the late 1800's.

This unique bit of MSC folklore was made known recently by Prof. Madison Kuhn, college historian.

The fame of the horse caused him to be stuffed and placed in the museum of the old Ad building after he died, and he became more of a drawing card than the college.

see him. He stayed there until his condition was such that he could not be displayed any longer.

Helps Capture

Buckskin was the horse that Lieut. Luther B. Baker rode when he captured John Wilkes Booth who was charged with assassinating Abraham Lincoln. (Lieutenant Baker's uncle was chief of the Secret Service at the time and assigned him to the case.)

When the lieutenant was mustered out, he came to Lansing with Buckskin. With the reward, he built the Downey Hotel on the site where Knapps now stands.

Jaunts Through Lansing

Buckskin and the Lieutenant were well-known figures on their daily jaunts through Lansing.

When the horse died he was put in the Ad building where his owner and friends could come to

"EASIEST TEST IN THE BOOK"

Everybody's doing it—

COMPARE CHESTERFIELD WITH ANY OTHER CIGARETTE!

BEFORE YOU SMOKE THEM

...you can tell Chesterfields will smoke milder, because tobaccos that smell milder smoke milder.

AFTER YOU SMOKE THEM

...you have no unpleasant after-taste.

WHILE YOU SMOKE THEM you get more pleasure than any other cigarette can give you—that's why millions of smokers say: THEY SATISFY.
