East Landon Coeds Challenge AWS Judiciary Ruling in AUSG

140 Girls Revolt at Punishment

Congress Debates Subject Heatedly

One of the most controversial resolutions of the term was passed by the student congress Wednesday night concerning the AWS Judiciary ruling on the 140 East Landon coeds.

The resolution, introduced by Caroline Gezon, East Landon dormitory representative, was debated by the congress for over an hour before it passed in its original form and three amendments to it had been voted down.

The resolution stated that AWS be advised that mass punishment is not consistent to the democratic process of the Michigan State University and that they reconsider the ruling with revisions that will suit the feelings of the student body.

During the members-private period, a time devoted to congress members to voice their opinions on campus functions, Miss Gezon read a letter by Ben Whitehead that was published in the State News Nov. 21 attacking the AWS five late minute ruling on the 140 coeds.

Miss Gezon told the congress that the resolution would be introduced during the legislative part of the meeting and urged the entire support of congress.

In one of the arguments presented for the passing of the resolution, Bob Hess, married housing representative, stated that mass punishment such as this was similar to army rule and "Hitlerism." He also suggested that AWS was wrong to punish only the 140 coeds if they were to practice the mass punishment they should have given late minutes to the coeds, who are first floor and terrace residents.

Ginny Seeley, a second floor resident of East Landon, was then recognized by the congress and stated that since only the signout sheets on the second and third floors had been defaced, AWS ruled the late minutes only to these residents.

Arguments against the resolution included that the matter should first be appealed to AWS then to congress but the answer to this suggestion was that some of the coeds would already have taken their campus and the matter would probably be dropped until another such incident were to happen.

In the final minutes of the meeting a motion was made to table the resolution indefinitely. However, the preceding argument was also used in this case and the resolution was passed by a majority of the members.

U.S. May Let More Rebels Into Country

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration is considering an increase in the number of Hungarian refugees to be admitted to the United States. Officials said Wednesday the total for permanent residence may be raised from the present 5,000 to 8,000.

President Eisenhower set the emergency quota of 5,000 Hungarian refugees on Nov. 8. Officials said that since the time indicate that under the law about 8,000 could be brought here for permanent residence.

In addition, consideration is being given to a plan to waive many of the legal requirements in order to admit temporarily additional thousands who are now in Austria. Their permanent status would be determined sometime after their arrival in this country.

Officials said that this would require legal action by Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell and undoubtedly full consultation with congressional leaders to gain approval also would be necessary. The estimates of the number of refugees who might be brought in under the emergency measure run up to 25,000.

Student Insurance Report Made at Congress Meeting

By ANNE TODOR
State News Night Editor

Truman Schragg, student insurance representative, gave his official report to the student congress at their final meeting of the term Wednesday night.

Schragg said since the plan began in September 6,302 students had signed up and 17 cases have been paid out with two pending payment for a total of $3,016. The cases range from $875-$287 apiece.

There has been one death claim turned in also, after the death of Carol Annell, Dearborn senior, in an automobile accident on the way back to school Sunday evening.

Another case, where $287 was paid out to a student, was during the U of M-State football game when a student had an attack of acute appendicitis and was treated at the University Hospital in Ann Arbor.

The student insurance program will open again during registration for winter term, Schragg announced. The program is the project of the student government executive and rates very high in comparison to other universities that are sponsoring similar programs.

Schragg also asked that any student who has not picked up his policy should go to the student government office on the ground floor of the Union.

Jack Schramke, administrative assistant to the president, gave a report on the polo shot program in which 6,000 students participated.

Dr. Clifford Menzies, director of the health center, called the program a success. The vaccine program was co-ordinated by the student government and the health center. Dr. John A. Hannah, president of the university, initiated the program.

The third necessary and final shot will be administered spring term.

Becker also commended the different cabinet members of his executive board for jobs "well done." He said that the jobs had been improved over the past years.

AUSG Plans Winter Ice Show

Bob Becker, student government president, made a proposal to the student congress Wednesday night to present an Ice Show winter term starring world skating champion Carol Heiss and her championship winning brother and sister.

Becker told congress that there would be no professional ice Capades on campus, although there would be one at the Civic Center in Lansing. He also stated that Miss Heiss, who is tentatively planning to attend MSU, called him and told him she would be glad to appear for the State show.

David Olsen, congress representative, then introduced the bill to congress to endorse and transfer money for the show to be held on Jan. 19 for the purpose of entertainment to the student body and to improve and contribute to a general scholarship fund. Admission proceeds are to be under the discretion of the student government. They plan to charge $1 admission to the show.

Becker said that the money collected from the show would go into a general scholarship fund. The seating capacity for

Ike Sends Guy Mollet Message

Reaffirms Faith in French Friendship

PARIS (AP)—President Eisenhower has sent French Premier Guy Mollet a personal letter reaffirming faith in French-American friendship and the Atlantic Alliance.

Diplomatic sources reported this Wednesday as U. S. Ambassador C. Douglas Dillon prepared to fly home Thursday for conferences on the differences between France and Britain on one hand and the United States on the other.

French and American sources described the President's message as "warm and cordial" but declined to go into details. Dillon delivered it late last week. "The first hint of the message came from French sources who apparently wanted to de-emphasize the differences."

A White House statement Tuesday stressed that differences over Suez were only a single incident and denied that they had disrupted bonds of friendship with Britain and France.

Foreign Minister Christian Pineau has told Parliament that "despite our bitterness" France can not renounce the Atlantic Alliance or American friendship. He described these as safeguards against "a fate similar to Hungary's."

French newspapers are printing many columns on relations with Washington, but tend to emphasize the United States' split with Britain, rather than with France.

Anti-American feeling in Britain has soared, with cartoonists lampooning the President without mercy.

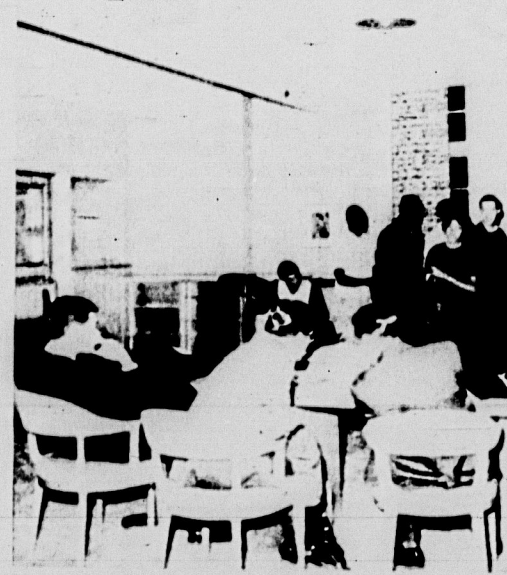

The United States has supported four UN resolutions calling on Britain, France and Israel to withdraw troops from Egypt.

The British and French contend they invaded the Suez Canal zone to guard the waterway from Israeli-Egyptian hostilities. They say they uncovered evidence of massive Soviet arm supplies intended to make Egyptian President Nasser a Communist puppet.

As spokesmen picture it, both Britain and France feel they have been let down by their U. S. ally. Seeking to calm tempers, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd expressed hope the differences could be patched up. Exaggerating them, he said, could only benefit the Communists.

"We have to face the fact that we have disagreed and are not yet in agreement," he conceded.

"The atmosphere in the United Nations has undoubtedly improved so far as we are concerned. We are slowly persuading people this is an opportunity to get a permanent settlement in the Middle East."

Michigan State recording artists, the Kappalliers, are shown auditioning for a berth on the Ray Anthony TV show. They won the approval of the contest judges (foreground) and will appear on a national network Dec. 7.

'Swan Lake' to 'Hound Dog'

Waring Wins Approval With Musical Potpourri

By NELDA TROUT

A production of "music from top to bottom and beginning to end" moving at a breath-taking pace, was presented by Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians Wednesday night before a capacity audience in the Aud.

"Musical" is made up of samples of practically every type of music from Negro spirituals, folk tunes and "classical" selections to the more recent hits such as "I Could Have Danced All Night" and "Hound Dog."

As a sort of introduction, Waring had several of the choral members sing a few measures of familiar songs including "Old Man River" and "Irish Eyes Are Shining." Although certain performers were spotlighted throughout the show, the entire cast presented a backdrop of enthusiastic interest.

In order to bring in music to suit the classical tastes, the Pennsylvanians gave modern renditions from ballet, opera and symphony. Princeton student Bob Sands showed outstanding voice control and volume in "See What I Bring to Thee" based on a theme from the Swan Lake Ballet.

Typical of the humor throughout the performance was Waring's crack about composer Tchaikovsky playing tackle for U of M.

Capitol recording star Tommy Leonetti, crooned into the mike his rendition of "Friendly Persuasion," while Waring's pop version to Leonetti's and Mae Sagan's duet of "Hound Dog," brought down the house.

Keeping the show moving at its brisk pace, Waring returned to the stage after the intermission, while half the audience to its seats. Later he jokingly asked that, in order to "save time," the spectators give only one loud handclap to show they were enjoying the show.

The minstrel players, featuring another phase of American music, paraded onstage decked out in infra-red costumes. Carrying out the Southern theme, Gordon Goodman displayed a

By Aiding Syria With Weapons

Claims Shipments Stall UN Efforts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States accused Russia Wednesday of adding to Middle East tensions by shipping "substantial" amounts of arms to Syria.

Concern over these weapons deliveries also has been expressed to the Syrian government by the American ambassador in Damascus, the state department reported.

The Syrian government, however, is now believed to be under the control of a group of pro-Soviet army officers. Reports from Lebanon, Syria's neighbor to the west, spoke of the likelihood of an open clash by the Syrian army clique to consolidate its position.

Washington officials said more than 30 million dollars worth of Soviet weapons, including light tanks, artillery, mortars, machine guns, armored cars and munitions, have been delivered in the last year. British sources at the United Nations furnished bigger figures.

They said the Soviet bloc had shipped about 60 million dollars worth of arms to Syria and about 40 million dollars worth to Egypt up to Nov. 19. Lincoln White, State Department press officer, said Russia has made additional shipments to Syria "since the Middle East crisis."

In Damascus, Prime Minister Sabri Assad denied his government had received any Red arms recently.

White said the Russian activity contrasts sharply with UN efforts to "diminish tensions and work for a settlement" of the issues stirring the Arab world.

White asserted the Soviet policy "is adding to tensions in the area."

White's comment contrasted remarks by White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty, who reported at a news conference about the same time that he believed international tension over the Middle East "has been greatly eased over the last two or three weeks."

Talking to reporters at Augusta, Ga., where President Eisenhower is vacationing, Hagerty disagreed with a reporter who expressed the view that the Middle East outlook had not improved.

Hagerty cited the cease-fire gained by the UN in Egypt as well as the movement of UN police forces into the area as encouraging signs.

White told a news conference at the State Department Ambassador James Moore Jr. has discussed the Soviet arms problem with Syrian authorities during the past few days.

Syria and Iraq are now at dagger points, with the government of each country accusing the other of destructive plots.

Fraternities and Football

Favorite Whipping Boys Catch a Right to the Jaw

Fraternities and football, a couple of favorite whipping boys, took another one on the chin recently.

They're contributing to the nationwide shortage of qualified technicians, said members of the American Association of Land-Grant Colleges and Universities, meeting in Washington, D.C. (MSU is a member of the group).

This bit of logical horse-dung came out of discussions on the dearth of enrollees in two-year technical courses.

The work of these men—laboratory assistants, draftsmen, electronic equipment men and others—is vital to science and industry.

The committee said a prime reason for the technician shortage is that two-year students occupy a second-class status in most universities. In many cases, the committee said, they are not eligible for football and cannot join fraternities.

Certainly the two-year student can be just as hard-working and conscientious as the four-year student—and in many cases more so. Certainly he doesn't deserve to be treated like a lackey.

Nevertheless, it seems to us that there may be good reasons why two-year students cannot be allowed all the privileges of their longer-staying brothers.

It takes time to build a football team, and no coach would want to spend time and effort to develop players who were going to kiss the campus goodbye at the end of their second year.

Likewise, one can understand why fraternities would like their members to stay around a little longer than the year or so available to short-term students.

In any case, we wonder just how much objective evidence the association has compiled to support its claims.

How many prospective technicians are actually dissuaded from taking a two-year college course because they can't play on a football team? The percentage of college students who can make the team is infinitesimally small anyway.

Joining a fraternity is fine. But how could a person decide that if he can't join a fraternity during his two-year stint, he won't go to college at all?

Maybe the association should campaign for new state-supported technical institutes which would handle only two-year students. Then the regular state universities could concentrate on giving their students a broader and better curriculum.

2 Tons of Clothing Given to Refugees

$1,430 Money Contribution Believed Collegiate Record

More than two tons of clothing and $1,430 were collected by the student government and the YMCA for the Hungarian refugees during the drive last week. It is reported that this is one of the largest college contributions.

The Inter-State Trucking Company volunteered its services for transporting the clothing to the St. Louis office of World University Service and left Wednesday afternoon with the two tons of clothing. The WUS will then ship the clothing to Vienna and the Hostile set up there.

The money is being sent to the New York office which will forward it to Vienna where food and medical supplies will be purchased.

The largest single contribution was sent to the student government office Monday. It was a $100 check from a man in Charlevoix who had read about MSU's drive in the Grand Rapids Press.

A check for $620 was sent to New York on Nov. 20 and reached Vienna on Thanksgiving Day. The remainder of the money has been sent also, according to Bob Becker, student government president.

A bill was passed in Wednesday night's congress meeting to thank the trucking firm for transporting the clothing to St. Louis.

Becker also stated that he would officially like to thank all of the organizations that pledged to help the government with the drive.

He also stated that all organizations must turn in the collection canisters to the government office today.

Franz Captures 3 Firsts In IM Gymnastics Tourney

By LARRY WROBLEWSKI

Jerry Franz displayed true championship form to win three events in the All-University Gymnastics Meet in Jenison Gym Wednesday night.

Franz showed almost faultless form to score 252 points out of 300 to capture the side horse event. Bill Durell placed second with 247 points followed by John Baughman, 223.

Computing a total of 259 points, Franz won the horizontal bar event. Durell was runner-up again with 244 points. Len Efron's 225 captured the third spot.

The parallel bars event went to Franz who compiled 265 points. Ten points behind was Bob Sass with Efron finishing third.

In the final event of the evening, Bill Boucher and Marshall Norgaard teamed to win the doubles tumbling title with 240 points. Stan Mitchell and Charles Young tallied 234 points to finish second. The twosome of Lynn Strang and Richard Shaprio counted 225 points for third place.

Ed Lopat, who was manager-pitcher for Richmond in the International League in 1956, plans to retire as a pitcher next season and devote all his baseball time to managing.

Whites Edge Greens In Final Practice Game

By JOE HOFFMAN

The varsity White team successfully froze the ball for the final 65 seconds Wednesday afternoon to edge a fired-up Green squad, 67-66, in the annual Green and White basketball game played at Jenison Fieldhouse.

The game marked the final scrimmage for the team before its season opener here Saturday night against Iowa State.

Though trailing most of the way, the Green team kept with in striking distance and eventually pulled into a one-point lead with three minutes to play, 63-62.

But the White team—George Ferguson, Larry Hedden, Chuck Bencie, Harry Lux and Jack Quiggle—scored five straight points to pull ahead, 67-63. Lux then attempted to ice the game but missed an easy layup.

The White team called time out and then went back and held onto the ball the remainder of the time.

Guard Tom Rand of the Green team had the hottest hands of the afternoon, hitting on nine of 12 shots, most of them long jumps, for the game's high of 18 points.

Tom Markovich of the Green team, along with Hedden and Lux of the Whites, each counted with 16 points.

U. S. Leads In Decathlon

Campbell and Johnson Feature Close Contest

MELBOURNE (AP)—Milt Campbell and Rafer Johnson, both of the United States, traded first and second places in the first three events of the Olympic decathlon Thursday to go far ahead of the 15-man field.

Campbell of Plainfield, N.J., former Indiana star athlete, sped to first place in the 100-meter dash in a time of 13.8 and won the shot put with a toss of 43 feet, 5 inches. Johnson, U. S. champion and world decathlon record holder from Kingsburg, Calif., leaped 24 feet, 1 inch to barely edge Campbell in the broad jump. Campbell jumped 24 feet, 5 1/2 inches.

Johnson placed second in the other two events, tying Australian John Cann in the sprint at 10.9 seconds and placing the shot 47 feet, 5 1/2 inches.

Campbell's leading total is a slight 69 points over his countryman, having a total of 2,738 points to Johnson's 2,689.

Trailing in third place is Russian Vassili Kouznetsov, who finished third in both the shot put and the broad jump. Kouznetsov's total of 2,452 was over 200 points behind the leaders.

The United States was sending its three decathlon stalwarts, ards accumulated 1,908 points, far behind.

The Soviet Union, which previously had failed to live up to stories of its new track and field might, shot into the picture with a second gold medal for Vladimir Kouts, a triumph in the women's javelin and a 1-2-3 grand slam in the 20-kilometer walk Wednesday.

Coupled with a comeback victory in the modern pentathlon after trailing the United States through four of five events, these performances gave the Russians their biggest one-day medal harvest of the games.

The Soviets' spurt came at a time when American Olympic officials were saying that the Russians apparently were "over the hill."

The Americans still lead Russia 394-214 points in the unofficial team race.

The Yanks figured to strengthen their position by winning the 400-meter race with Lou Jones of New Rochelle, N.Y., and taking a strong lead in the half of the exhausting decathlon, which concludes Friday.

Another one of the Jones boys—Charles Jones of Bays Town, Neb.—may score in the 3,000-meter steeplechase.

Swimming begins in the afternoon and night at the modernistic stadium with heats in the men's and women's 100-meter freestyle and the 200-meter breaststroke for women.

Lou Jones, who set a world record of 43.2 seconds in winning the 400 meters in the U. S. trials, is rated a safe bet to give America its 12th gold medal in modern track and field. His main opposition is expected from Valtteri Heistinen of Finland, Arslan Ignatiev of Russia and teammate Charles Jenkins of Villanova.

The blue ribbon 1,500 heat present some of the world's greatest milers, including world record holder John Landy of Australia, who has been troubled with bad tendons. Landy rang against Britain's Brian Hewson and Denmark's Gunnar Nielson—all 4-minute mile breakers.

America's hopes are Don Borden of San Jose, Calif.; Jerome Walters of Los Angeles and Ted Wheeler of Glenview, Ill.

The United States, still unbeaten after trouncing Brazil 113-51, meets Russia in the basketball tournament semifinal Thursday night.

Wednesday wasn't all Russia in track and field, but almost. The U. S. swept the 110-meter hurdles as Lee Calhoun upset Jack Davis in record time, and finished 1-2 in the shot put with world record holder Parry O'Brien and young Bill Nieder.

Calhoun, of Gary, Ind., and Davis, the world record holder from Glendale, Calif., both were timed in 13.5 seconds, clipping two-tenths of a second off the record, but Calhoun got the nod.

O'Brien, now an airman stationed at Travis AFB, Calif., repeated as the shot put champ by bettering his 1952 record with a toss of 60 feet, 11 inches.

Farrell Named Indian Manager

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians will go into the 1957 American League pennant race piloted by Kerby Farrell, the man who guided the Indianapolis Indians to the championship in this year's Little World Series of baseball.

Cleveland Indians' General Manager Hank Greenberg, who said he had made up his mind about a new manager two weeks ago, let the public in on the secret Wednesday night. He named the 43-year-old Farrell at a press conference, but the announcement came as no surprise.

This will be Farrell's first job managing a major league club.

Spartan pucksters open the 1956-57 season tonight and Friday with high hopes of winning a two game series from North Dakota on the Sioux home ice.

... this year," says Coach Amo Bessone. "We're expecting two victories and are nothing but confident. We've got good team spirit, good skating, and the team is working hard."

For the first time in the history of hockey at MSU Bessone has three forward lines to interchange on the ice. Ross Parke, last year's leading scorer with 36 points on 15 goals and 21 assists, will skate as center between two top sophomore prospects, Keith Christofferson and Glen MacDonald.

The Spartan second line will feature veteran Gene Grazia with Joe Polano and Bill Mackenzie. Dickie Hamilton will center the third line with Fred DeVouho as left wing. According to Bessone the right wing spot is yet to be decided between converted defenseman Art Barker and returning letterman Ken James.

Joe Selinger, goalie from Regina, Sask., will be aided in the nets by reserve goalie Aldo Al-

North Dakota—lost only one player from last season, center John Wade. Leading the Sioux will be Bill Reichart who tied with Michigan Tech's Jack Manus for second place in the individual scoring race with 51 points on 28 goals and 23 assists.

Another Dakota scorer who may cause the Spartan defense difficulty is Jim Radley who

Spieser Scores 2nd Round KO

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Chuck Spieser, former Michigan State star and twice a member of the U. S. Olympic team, enhanced his No. 1 ranking among the lightweightweights by scoring a second round knockout over Willie Hoepner of Hamburg, Germany, in their scheduled 10-round bout at the Milwaukee Arena Wednesday night.

Spieser, fighting out of Detroit, dropped his German foe the first time shortly after the second round began for an eight count. After a few exchanges, Spieser came on with a left-right barrage, putting Hoepner flat on his back.

Kramer, Ploen End Season Winning Weekly AP Honors

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Michigan's end Ron Kramer and Iowa's quarterback Kenny Ploen closed out their brilliant college football careers Saturday by being named Associated Press linemen and back of the week by sportscasters and broadcasters.

Kramer received his honor for his feats that helped the Wolverines whip Ohio State, 19-6. The crowd at Columbus, Ohio, saw the giant wingman in the center of numerous plays, the played an outstanding defensive and offensive game. He shared two passes and made tackles all over the field.

Ploen, after being the key figure in the Hawkeyes' narrow wins over Minnesota and Ohio State, reached his peak in the 48-8 victory over Notre Dame.

the first since 1940. He scored the first touchdown on a 10-yard run and later added another on a 41-yard dash. His 32-yard run to the Irish one set up the second low score.

The Iowa field general, whose sharp calls in crucial spots were the key to the Hawkeyes' first undisputed Big 10 championship since 1921 and the Rose Bowl trip, made the important play in the 7-0 win over Minnesota. On fourth and four on the Gopher eight, he passed to end Jim Gibbons on the one for the first down.

Crimmins Resigns IU Grid Post

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) —Bernie Crimmins, conditioned to winning as a player and assistant coach of great Notre Dame football teams, resigned Wednesday as Indiana University coach after five frustrating years.

He said he had no plans for the future.

The final blow was Purdue University's ninth successive victory over the Hoosiers in their traditional Old Oaken Bucket battle last Saturday.

Crimmins was given a new five-year contract last year — over protests of the I.U. student newspaper—but he told school officials Wednesday he thought somebody else ought to try to produce a winner at Indiana, which hasn't had one since the late Alvin Be McMullin's 1947 team.

Clyde B. Smith succeeded McMullin in 1948 and left after four seasons in which the Hoosiers won 8, lost 27 and tied 1. Crimmins' five teams won 13, lost 32.

Crimmins went ahead with a luncheon engagement at the Indianapolis Downtown Quarterback Club and was given a standing ovation by a mixed crowd of hundreds of Indiana and Purdue fans.

Crimmins quietly told the club that he felt his resignation was best for I.U.

He served as backfield coach at Notre Dame before coming to I.U.

Crimmins is 37, married and has five children.
