Spartans Win Big 10 Cage Title

Team to Go To NCAA Tournament

Defeats Indiana In 86-82 Thriller

By CHUCK RICHARDS
There were no snakes in the streets Saturday after Michigan State won its first undisputed Big 10 Championship and clinched its second NCAA bid in three years by beating Indiana, 86-82, the defending champion on its own floor. The Spartans' first basketball championship was greeted with strident enthusiasm. Two years ago the Spartans won the cage crown with Indiana and went to the NCAA tournament, and in 1957 the late football team lost for the Big 10 title and went to the Rose Bowl.

A few other minor sports have won Big 10 titles—but never a big crowd-attracting sport like basketball.

A student carnival took the place of a basketball game in Denison Fieldhouse as the Spartans won the title at Bloomington, Ind., in the Hoosier's back yard.

"We would like to have won on our home floor," Anderson said when the team returned Saturday night to the carnival crowd in Lansing. "But to win a championship here we would have had to win on our own floor."

That is just what the Spartans did. Indiana is notorious for being virtually invincible on its own floor in previous years but the Spartans dealt them their fourth straight home court loss.

It took another of the pressure performances which have made Michigan State a great champion to win this one.

"This was our best game," said Indiana coach Branch McCracken—but State was better. John Green was superb. Bob Anderson wasn't far behind. Horace Walker delivered in the clutch. Tom Rand didn't quit. Lance Olson played with his heart, and little Dave Fahn contributed the best substitute role of the season.

Trainer Gayle Robinson even furnished his part. He mended Green's out lip and sent him back to the game to make minimum out of Indiana's 6' 10 1/2" Wait Bellamy.

Green scored 20 points to Bellamy's 13. Green grabbed off 10 rebounds and Bellamy could get only 10. Green outscored him from both the field and the foul line, and screened the big player out of Walker's 6' 10 1/2" Wait Bellamy.

Anderson also scored 20 points and played a rough defensive contest, refusing to let his man drive against him. He also got hot in the clutch when State needed every basket.

Nobody could deny Walker's role as the best clutch performer, though. The fine-rebounding forward dropped in 10 of 12 from the foul line where the pressure is felt most. He closed with 16 points.

Rand hit four important field goals and Olson dropped in seven points before he had to leave because the fast pace was hard on his bruised hand.

Maybe it was Fahn who did it. (See CAGERS, Page 6)

WINNERS OF THE NON-PARTICIPATION Division of Spartans are first place, Zeta Beta Tau (Rich Shapiro) and Gamma Phi Beta (Sue Gray); second place, Kappa Kappa Gamma (Kay Allington) and Delta Tau Delta (Rook Shan); third place, Sigma Kappa (Karen Lindquist); Phi Kappa Tau (John Gustafson).

Macmillan Urges Summit Conference

Convinced Khrushchev Key To Successful Negotiations

LONDON, (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan will return from Moscow Tuesday determined to urge the Western allies into a summit conference as the only way of removing the Soviet threat to Berlin, responsible British sources said Sunday.

Graduation Poll Now In Progress

Seniors Eligible To Voice Views

Senior Council is conducting a poll, today through Wednesday, to determine a convenient date for Commencement in the light of the new spring finals requirement.

All June graduates have an opportunity to state their choice with ballots appearing on the State News editorial page.

Through this poll the student's preference will be presented to the Commencement Committee, which recently told Senior Class President Dave Hall that it would change the date from the present June 7 to either June 14 or 18 if a majority of the graduates wished.

Ballots may be deposited in ballot boxes at the Union desk or in the Senior Class office, 327 Student Services.

This vote is open to both senior class members and to any graduate students receiving degrees at the June commencement.

In a letter to the editor published Wednesday, Hall listed some of the pros and cons of changing from June 7.

He presented the following points in support of this earlier date:

1. This is a Sunday which will cause fewer problems for working parents.

2. Water Carnival, which is presented for the parents and depends upon them for support is scheduled for this weekend. From the profits of this event come the funds for the senior class gift to the University Development Fund.

3. Underclassmen who might wish to attend their friends' graduation would still be on campus.

4. Once the graduate has finished finals, he will be free to leave rather than having to remain on campus for a formal ceremony.

On the negative side, Hall said the 7th would leave the student with a feeling of anticlimax, when he had to return to classes and final exams.

There would be an added inconvenience for some parents who would have to make a second trip to campus to transport belongings for their sons and daughters at the end of the exam period.

Hall felt that these disadvantages were small when compared with the 14th, which falls in the middle of the exam period, or the 18th, which is in the middle of the week (Thursday) and would require graduates to stay on campus at least one extra day after their last exam.

Nicholas Carroll, reporting the Macmillan tour for the Times, said Macmillan believes "Khrushchev is the only path open to the West for realistic negotiations with the Soviet Union. On no other level is it possible to do any real business with Moscow."

Robert Stephens, accompanying the Prime Minister's party for the Observer, said Macmillan feels "the only practicable way to conduct serious negotiations with Moscow on major issues is directly with the Soviet Premier himself."

Macmillan's reported viewpoint would be a departure from the western position that the Big Four foreign ministers, assisted by German advisers, should meet to discuss Germany's future.

This was the stand taken in Western notes to Russia last month.

MSU to Vote 'No' on NCAA Plan

Football TV Policy Opposed

By LARRY WROBLEWSKI

MSU will cast an opposition ballot to the new NCAA television policy for the 1959 football college season, according to MSU's Big 10 faculty representative Harold Tukey.

The NCAA provision will provide 10 national and 3 regional dates for televising collegiate football games, in addition to provisions for pay-as-you-see televising.

The plan, which was mailed out last week to 500 member colleges for approval, cuts down for a second time the number of games to be televised nationally.

In 1955 and 1956 eight games were televised nationally and five regionally. During the past two seasons there were nine games on the national hookup and four on a regional basis.

"Although the Big 10, as a body, is still opposed to the NCAA proposal, some concessions are being made by the collegiate ruling body," Tukey said. Notre Dame is also reportedly opposed to the plan.

Tukey said that the NCAA gave its encouragement for experimenting by using a close-circuit network to televise football games. Last year the Michigan State-Michigan grid classic was televised throughout the state's major cities by close-circuit television.

Tukey said that the NCAA would now allow seven colleges from one region to televise games instead of last year's practice to have only six schools from one region.

The 1959 NCAA program specifies that eight games must be carried on a national network, on another date the network may be split to carry two or more games, and on the 10th date the bidder who retains rights to the program can choose to televise one game nationally to split the national network a second time.

This year's plan includes a clause recommending co-operation with experimental home pay-TV of college football games. One firm said it was ready to try pay-TV in San Francisco and Los Angeles this fall.

Tukey remarked that the Big 10 bloc and Notre Dame are a minority which opposes the plan. "Some 90 percent of the member schools will approve the plan," Tukey said.

MSU President John A. Hannah has been appointed to the College of Electors of the Hall of Fame for Great Americans at New York University.

One hundred and fifty-one distinguished citizens, representing all 49 states, now make up the College of Electors. They will vote next year (1960) on candidates for inclusion in the Hall of Fame. The candidates are nominated by the public.

At present there are 85 bronze busts of famous Americans in the shrine's open-air colonnade on the University Heights (Bronx) campus of NYU. Only American citizens who have been dead at least 25 years are eligible for the honor.

The 1960 election will be the thirteenth quinquennial (every five years) since the Hall of Fame was founded in 1900. Any American citizen may nominate a candidate. The nomination period extends from April 1, 1958, to April 1, 1960.

DON BUMGARDNER, Pontiac grad student, tries to tempt Allan Ken, East Lansing senior, appearing as Archbishop of Canterbury in the "Murder in the Cathedral" which will be presented Wednesday through Saturday in the Education Building.

"Murder in the Cathedral"

T. S. Eliot's Drama Opens Wednesday

"Murder in the Cathedral," T. S. Eliot's poetic drama based upon a liturgical theme, will be presented Wednesday through Saturday in the Education Kiva, at 8:15 each night.

Tickets are now on sale at the Union ticket office.

"Murder in the Cathedral" is about the Archbishop of Canterbury, Thomas Becket. He will be played by Allan Aiken, East Lansing senior.

The tragedy of the Archbishop's life which ends by assassination has been made a near-classic by Eliot.

The play will be staged in arena style with the audience on three sides.

Eliot, writing a poetic tragedy, treats the liturgical theme presentationally. In accordance the MSU production features a formal style of staging.

The non-representational sets will be constructed into abstract arches to give only the idea or suggestion of a cathedral, and platform pieces of various heights and size will complete the setting.

Against the bleak and mysterious shapes will be actors dressed in twelfth-century costumes of brilliant colors and rich fabrics. These have been especially designed by Waymond Underwood, doctoral candidate in theater.

The costumes are historically accurate, and the predominant colors used are those found in liturgical symbolism.

The play is directed by Harry Mahnken, a doctoral candidate in theater.

Sororities Slate Rush Registration

Coads interested in participating in spring rush which begins April 9 can register March 9-13 in the PanHellenic office Student Services from 9-4 p.m.

To be eligible a coed must have a two point all college average and a two point winter term. A convocation will be held April 2 to acquaint rushees with sorority life.

Spring rush which is informal will be under the chairmanship of Sue Bishop, Birmingham junior.

Vets Meet

A special meeting of the Veterans Assn. will be held tonight at 7:30 in Room 31 of the Union, according to President Tom Kolesiak.

Honor Women To Attend Tea

The University Honor Women's Tea, presented by the Faculty Women's Assn., will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Faculty Women's Room of the Union.

Dr. Ruth Hill Ussem, who spent last year in India, will discuss "College Women in a Changing World."

Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, will present an $85 scholarship to a senior coed, which may be used for anything.

FRED HENNINGER, East Lansing sophomore, and Jerry McDonald, Bettle Creek senior, look approvingly at the dress worn by Sue Overmyer, Chattanooga, Tenn., sophomore, Union Board showmate. She will model the dress at the Union Board Fashion Show Tuesday night.

THE SPARTANS, along with Purdue and Northwestern, were considered pre-season favorites, but no one figured State would run away from the field...

Anderson has compiled an impressive coaching record, winning 280 games as against 121 losses in 14 years of coaching... Since arriving on the MSU basketball scene, Anderson has promoted basketball in every way possible...

Anderson has promoted basketball in every way possible, interest in the cage sport roomed to an all-time high for this area last year...

CERTAINLY, A UNIQUE feature of this year's team is the overall balance which has made each of State's victories a team effort.

Usually, with Bob Anderson and John Green pacing the servers, the Spartans have managed to have four or five players hit double figures.

The team's excellent shooting, tight defense, outstanding rebounding and bench strength combined to make the Spartans the scourge of the Big 10.

WHEN CONGRATULATIONS are distributed, who can overlook the coaching aides? Both Asst. Coach Bob Stevens and Frost Coach Sonny Meeks have played somewhat obscure, but vital, roles in the rise of MSU basketball.

This Spartan team is probably "the greatest team in the nation." It doesn't depend on any particular one man.

To Fordy, the coaching staff and team go the congratulations of a successful and prosperous season.

Now on to Evansston, Ill. for the NCAA regionals! Then on to Louisville, Ky., for the NCAA semi-finals and finals!

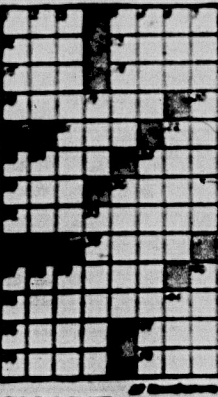

This team has proved its Big 10 potential and only the hugh national competition awaits it.

With a disastrous conference football record of 0-5-1, a basketball championship was deemed to rejuvenate the traditional stadium spirit.

It's great to be a winner!

Preparatory Talks Open In E. Berlin

Soviets, Germans Discuss Proposals: BERLIN (AP) — Preparatory Soviet-East German talks on ending of West Berlin have opened in East Berlin, ADN said Sunday night.

The official East German news agency reported the subject was taken up by Soviet Ambassador M. G. Permyukhin and East German Premier Otto Grotewohl.

They discussed questions connected with the proposals by the Soviet government for the conclusion of a peace treaty with Germany and the liquidation of the occupation regime in West Berlin.

Officially he is coming to visit the spring trade fair which opened in Leipzig Sunday amid a display of Communist peace signs.

Western intelligence men estimate the Soviet Union has about 400,000 men in East Germany. The East German armed force number about 110,000.

Possible War Over Berlin Stirs Concern

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional concern mounted some Sunday over the possibility Russia may start a war over Berlin.

Manfield, assistant majority leader of the Senate, said Khrushchev would not start a war deliberately although he said it is "always possible" he might risk one.

Interviewed on a recorded radio program (Reporters Round-up), Manfield said "I think he (Khrushchev) cannot be trusted not to do something on the spur of the moment."

Manfield said he did not believe "we ought to let the Russians take a big lead on long range missiles or any other form of offense or defense."

Cyprus Freedom Cheered

Makarios Greeted by Thousands

Leader Receives Hero's Welcome

NICOSIA (AP)—More than 100,000 Greek Cypriots gave Archbishop Makarios a tremendous welcome here Sunday upon his return from three years in exile.

The bearded leader in the successful fight for independence of this British-ruled eastern Mediterranean island told the throng, shouting thousands of times, "We have triumphed. Today Cyprus is free. Let us celebrate, brethren."

He paid tribute to Gen. George Grivas, the hero of the Greek Cypriot underground. There was speculation he may have been celebrating the celebrating thousands, and other underground leaders have been offered safe passage to Greece, but have not yet returned.

Excitement came here from London, where agreement was reached with British, Greek and Turkish leaders for giving Cyprus its independence. He will be the first president of the Cyprus Republic. Church bells tolled, flags waved and flowers were thrown. He landed in an airliner in London until the end of a 15-minute message to his people he was cheered like a hero here.

It was a dramatically different scene from his secret departure in a British military plane March 9, 1958. After the London agreement he was barred from union with Greece.

As their cheers grew less fervent when he declared the republic is only at "the beginning of new and long but arduous struggles. Try to make your country a happy and just one."

WILL THE NEW month come in like a lamb or a lion? This will be the burning question at the Spartan Wives fashion show, "March Moods," scheduled for tonight at 8 in the Red Cedar school auditorium. Giving a preview of the show's theme are models, Mrs. Donald Proud, Mrs. David Simacek, and Mrs. James Edwards.

Teachers Receive Language Training

Nearly two-thirds of the grade school teachers in East Lansing are voluntarily taking part in a special foreign language workshop for three hours every Tuesday evening for 10 weeks at Michigan State University.

They hope to learn how to aid in the French and Spanish lessons taught by their classes two to three times a week by the two foreign language consultants in the East Lansing school system.

"They think they could make these lessons more effective," explained Dr. Georges Joyaux, associate professor of French. "If they could occasionally say something such as, 'Fermes la porte, Jean,' instead of, 'Close the door, Johnny.'"

"When they talk about Christmas in America, they would like also to talk about 'Le Noël' in Spain. And they think that following 'Old MacDonald' with 'Aloette' would be interesting and educational."

However, few of the teachers are language experts. Some had language courses in college but some did not.

The Michigan State language instructors intend to teach the teachers to carry on some conversation with their pupils. "We emphasize pronunciation," Joyaux said. "Children learn this quickly because they are natural mimics. It is important that they learn it right."

POVERTY CAN BE FUN

It is no disgrace to be poor. It is an error, but it is no disgrace. So if your purse is empty, do not skulk and brood and hide your head in shame. Stand tall. Admit your poverty. Admit it freely and frankly and all kinds of good things will happen to you. Take, for instance, the case of Blossom Sagaloo.

Blossom, an impetuous freshman at an Eastern girls' college, was smart as a whip and round as a dumpling, and scarcely a day went by when she didn't get invited to a party weekend at one of the nearby men's schools. But Blossom never accepted. She did not have the rail fare; she did not have the clothes. Weekend after weekend, while her classmates went frolicking, Blossom sat alone, saved from utter despair only by her pack of Marlboro's, for even an exchequer as slim as Blossom's can afford the joys of Marlboro—joya far beyond their paltry price: rich, mellow tobacco, lovingly cured and carefully packed, a new improved filter that works like a charm. Cigarettes himself could not buy a better cigarette!

However, Marlboro's most passionate admirers—among whom number 1 am paid to count myself—would not claim that Marlboro can entirely replace love and romance, and Blossom grew steadily more so.

Has ask him has he got an Older Brother

Then one day came a phone call from an intelligent sophomore named Tom O'Shaunter at a nearby men's college. "Blossom," said Tom, "I want you to come down next week for the barley festival, and I won't take no for an answer."

"No," said Blossom.

"Foolish girl," said Tom gently. "I know why you refuse me. It is because you are poor, isn't it?"

"Yes," said Blossom.

"I will send you a railroad ticket," said Tom. "Also a small amount in case you get hungry on the train."

"But I have nothing to wear," said Blossom.

Tom replied, "I will send you one suit of cashmere, two yards of lace, three slacks of velvet, four shoes of calf, five yards of nylon, and a partridge in a pear tree."

"That is most kind," said Blossom, "but I fear I cannot dance and enjoy myself while back home my poor little brother Tiny Tim lies ailed."

"Send him to Mayo Brothers and put it on my tab," said Tom.

"You are terribly decent," said Blossom, "but I cannot come to your party because all the other girls at the party will be from rich, distinguished families, and my father is but a humble woodcutter."

"I will buy him Yosemite," said Tom.

"You have a great heart," said Blossom. "Hold the phone while I ask our wise and kindly old Dean of Women whether it is proper for me to accept all these gifts."

She went forthwith and asked the Dean of Women, and the Dean of Women laid her wise and kindly old hand on Blossom's cheek and said, "Child, let not false pride rob you of happiness. Accept these gifts from Tom."

"Lord love you, Wise and Kindly," breathed Blossom, dropping grateful tears into the Dean's reticula. "I must run and tell Tom."

"Yes, run, child," said the Dean, a smile wrinkling her wise and kindly old eyes. "And ask him has he got an older brother."

State was outbounded for the first time this season, 31-45 outshot from the floor, 24 to 30, and threw quite a few bad passes.
But when the important play was needed someone was there to make it.
State cashed in with 26 of 31 free throws while Indiana had 14 of 18. There was the difference.

half, the Hoosiers cooled off from the field, and State kept putting them in from the foul line.
The lead changed hands frequently the second half after Indiana led throughout the first period. Finally, baskets by Anderson and Fabs gave State an 83-77 lead with 1:48 left to go.

Track Team Fails in Quest For First Win

Michigan State's thinclade, who haven't one victory to show for the entire indoor season, let their last chance to win a meet slip through their hands Saturday, losing to host Iowa, 79-54 to 60-34.

Despite Jim Horan's stellar performance in winning the two-mile with a 9:24.9 effort, Mike Kleinhaus' 13-point output, and Al Neuman's 50' 11 1/2" heave in the shot, the Spartans lost to the Hawkeyes, to dim their hopes of finishing in the first division in the Big 10 Championships next week at Madison, Wisconsin.

To add insult to injury, MSU set four meet records in their losing cause.

Horan's victory came as a surprise to some, for the Spartan runner had to beat teammate Fordy Kennedy to take top honors.

Kennedy, a 23-year-old RAF airman, won the NCAA individual cross country title last Nov. the first Spartan to accomplish this feat. The Scottish runner also won the ICAA mile late last spring.

Horan's run bettered the old mark of 9:30.6 set in 1958 by Charles "Deacon" Jones, Iowa's top runner until his graduation last fall.

MSU Sophs Stand Out Illini Beat Gymnasts

By PETE WALTERS
State News Night Editor

Relying on superior depth to overcome an off-night by star all-around man Abie Grossfeld, Illinois' gymnasts beat Michigan State, 64-48, Saturday at the Men's Intra-mural arena.

Don Tonry took four first places and shared another with State's Stan Tarshis, on horizontal bar. The 1957 NCAA all-around champ, sidelined from last year's nationals by illness, finished with high score for the meet—27 points.

The Spartans, who lost several key performers since tying Illinois for the NCAA team championship last year, had two especially bright spots in defeat.

They were sophomores Chuck Thompson and John Daniels, who posted State's only clear wins, in trampoline and tumbling, respectively.

Both men were still taped heavily from injuries they received more than a month ago in the Ohio State meet. Thompson also had a third in tumbling and Daniels a third in free exercise and fourth on tramp.

Capt. Cal Girard, State's five-event man, finished second to Tonry on side horse and had thirds on horizontal bar, parallel.

Reserves Pace Spartans In Season's Final Meet

By SUZETTE RAMSKY

Spartan swimmers wrapped up the dual meet season with a victory over Wisconsin, 59-46, winding up with 5-3 mark.

Many of the "reserve" swimmers, usually found in the shadow of MSU's champions, Billy Stewart, Don Patterson and Frank Modine, got their chance in this last meet and turned in good performances.

Stewart swam in two events the 200 and 400 freestyle, winning both and breaking pool records in both. In the 400 he cut the old mark of 4:40.5 by Ohio State's Ford Kenno made in 1953 to 4:33.3.

Patterson swam in the 60-yard freestyle, beating Wisconsin's Fred Westphal, but left the 100 yard freestyle to Donny Baker, who placed third after Westphal and Elmo Wilson.

Modine's only race was the first one, the 400-yard medley relay. His event, the 200-yard breaststroke, was filled by Dave McCaffree and Bill Singleter. McCaffree was beaten by Wisconsin's Kurt Sirena, but not lost by a tenth of a second. Singleter finished third for State.

Spartan divers Jerry Chadwick and Tony Kaufman took first and third place, respectively, by Art Maxwell and Baker finished first and third also in the 200-yard butterfly.

Al Conson and Jack Wickert placed second and third in the 200-yard backstroke in favor of Tom Wising, whose 2:10.0 time set a new Badger varsity record. The 100-yard individual medley, a foreign event at MSU was won by the Badgers' Wilson, to set a new NCAA and pool record in a 1:43.7 time with surface butterfly stroke Dave Diget and Larry Pontius came in second and third.

Diget, Baker, Larry Jones and Patterson set a new pool record in winning the 400-yard freestyle relay with a 3:30.1.

Defeat Indiana, Case Fencers Win at Detroit

Michigan State's fencing team got back into the win column Saturday, as they beat Indiana and Case, while losing to Wayne State in a quadrangular meet held at Detroit.

Indiana fell victims to State 17-10, as the foil squad won 7-2 and the sabre team came through with a 6-3 victory while the epee was edged 5-4.

State's other victim was Case, thanks to a 7-2 win by the foil squad, as both the sabre and epee teams were defeated, 3-4 and 6-3 respectively.

However the Spartans were downed by the host school Wayne State by a score of 10-10 in their third bout. Frank Plonka with three wins in one and John Miller with three victories in sabre competition.

The high man for MSU in the four-school meet were Sier Arnest, 8-1 in sabre, and Chuck Schmitter Jr. with a 7-1 in foil.

Terry Glimm and Dick Lawless of the foil squad both compiled 5-3 records.

Icers Take Tech Twice

Dual Wins Net State First Place

By DAVE BARRELL
The Michigan State hockey team left little doubt in anyone's mind Friday and Saturday night as to who should represent the West at the National Collegiate Athletic Association Finals March 13 and 14 in Troy, N.Y.

The triumph was wrapped up when Michigan Tech in championcy of the West defeated the Huskies 3-0 Saturday night and 5-3 Saturday night. Tech went into the series a few weeks behind State, but State scored in first place in the Western Inter-Collegiate Hockey Assn. when leader North Dakota split a two-game series with the University of Denver. The Spartans now own a 9-4-1 record in the WIHA for a percentage of .892. North Dakota is 11-7-1 for a .850 percentage. Two teams will be picked by Western selection committee to represent the West in the March 13-14. Selection will be based on league standing. State needs to be officially tabbed by the committee as one of the representatives.

Friday's action was fast and furious, but in the final count it was goalie Joe Selinger's flawless play and a combined balanced offensive and defensive attack which made the difference. Selinger made 23 saves in his fourth shutout of the season, but numbers were not the whole story. Many times he was taxed for occasional lapses in order to blank the press-hungry Huskies.

The big speedster MacKenzie led the Spartans out in front in the first of two goals at all with assists from Ed Polansky and Glenn Macdonald. His second score came just before period ended, with Dick Hamilton and Joe Polansky assisting.

Jack Roberts put the game away in the second period, scoring his third goal when he had two men in the penalty box. Polansky's one man shot to Moroney, and Moroney went through the legs of a defender to Hamilton who had it past goalie Cuculich. Raymond scored Tech's second goal at 3:15 of the final period as Spartan defenseman Dick Miller was coming out of the penalty box.

Roberts broke the Huskies' defense when he outskated the Tech defense and fired a point-blank shot from 40-ft out to score it 4-2. MacKenzie added another, one minute later, to send out the Spartans' scoring.

Tech Center Al Raymond led the scoring for the Huskies at 17:37. Raymond's goal came when State was down man in the penalty box.

Roberts' third goal came when he had two men in the penalty box. Polansky's one man shot to Moroney, and Moroney went through the legs of a defender to Hamilton who had it past goalie Cuculich. Face Badgers Tonight No Letdown Now, Forddy Promises

There will be no letdown in Michigan State's final two basketball games if Forddy Anderson can help it.

The youthful coach of State's Big 10 championship team, the Spartans, said today he expects to fight when they meet Wisconsin at 8 in Madison, Wis., tonight.

Just because we have won the Big 10 title doesn't mean we are going to lose any more. If we have to, we'll win Anderson.

Although Wisconsin has won only once in league play they have shown great improvement in their last few games. The Badgers forced Northwestern to the limit before bowing 86-82 Saturday night.

The final game is here against Iowa next Saturday night.

Five years on a long time to change an entire sporting community. It was 1954 when Forrest Anderson arrived at Michigan State to coach the school's basketball team.

Five years later he has made Michigan State into the power of the Big 10 in basketball.

Saturday's 86-82 victory over Indiana at Bloomington, Ind., not only gave State its first outright Big 10 championship.

Wingmen Honored For Play

Michigan State's balanced attack was evidenced Friday and Saturday night by the recipients of the "game puck." Bill MacKenzie won the award Friday night and Jack Roberts received the "puck" for Saturday's play.

Both MacKenzie and Roberts have been key factors in State's rapid rise to the top, but neither has figured in much of the heavy scoring all year.

MacKenzie scored twice Friday and once Saturday to increase his goal output to eight and his total scoring to 19. Roberts scored once each night, but his goal in Saturday's contest clinched the Spartans' victory. He is the only non-Canadian regular and should develop into a top scorer next year.

Captain Amos Branson praised the team effort and probably expressed the feeling of the squad with "If Joe Selinger doesn't make All-American goalie, there isn't an All-American in college hockey."

Michigan comes here next Friday and the Spartans go to Ann Arbor Saturday to complete the season. A sweep over the late starting Wolves would sew up first place and give the team a 17-4-1 record.

Grapplers Big 10 Hopes Hit by Injury

Michigan State's hopes for the Big 10 wrestling championship received a jolt when 157-pound Bob Moore suffered a shoulder separation in Friday's 14-14 draw-flock between State and Michigan wrestlers.

Michigan's Big 10 hopes were hit, also, when Fred Olim broke his ankle in the heavyweight bout with Tim Woodlin.

The injuries forced the wrestlers to default their bouts and give each team five points. Both teams split the other six bouts.

Assistant wrestling coach Gale Miklos was quick to point out that the injuries had no connection, even though it is unusual for two such mishaps in one meet.

Moore is definitely done for this season leaving a huge gap in State's bid for the Big 10 team championship.

Two State win streaks were continued Saturday when Jim Ferguson and Woodlin won their bouts. Woodlin's fifth straight win was clouded with Olim's accident. Ferguson (162) over whelmed Dick Fronczek 8-0 for his sixth straight.

Green: All-Star Choice

Michigan State's "Mister Basketball," center John Green, has been picked by Sporting News for pivot position on their All-Star second team. It was announced Saturday.

Heading the first team nomination is Cincinnati's Oscar Robinson, the nation's leading scorer. Trained with the Bearcats star is Bob Boozer of Kansas State.

Don Henton of Pittsburgh, Bobby Howell of Mississippi and Jerry West of West Virginia.

Green's teammates on the second squad are Johnny Cox of Kentucky, Alan Seiden of St. John's, Bob Ferry of St. Louis and Doug Moe of North Carolina.

EYE HI-LITES by Dr. Joseph B. Gutstein

Questions about eye problems will be answered by Dr. J. B. Gutstein in this column every Monday.

QUESTION: I was seriously considering contact lenses for myself; I obtained all the literature I could about them; finally I made an appointment for a contact lens fitting and then changed my mind at the last minute. I wonder if I did the wrong thing especially since the girl I ride with is being successfully fitted and seems very happy in every way?

ANSWER: Better that you found yourself out when you did, than after the fitting had begun and more or less expenses incurred. All experts in contact lenses agree that motivation is a pressure factor in successful contact lens wearing. Lacking a tremendously strong desire to wear contact lenses you are better off stopping before you start.

QUESTION: What is the youngest age for examining a child's eyes?

ANSWER: There is no age limit (young or old) for eye examinations. Infants of age 3 months have had their eyes examined accurately. Glasses or any correction are not generally prescribed for anyone under four years of age unless a very urgent need is indicated. In such an instance the patient should be checked at least 4 times a year because of eye changes associated with growth and development.

IN A REAL RAT-RACE, the combined forces of Alpha Gamma Delta and the Veterans Assn. received 318 points to win the top honors in the audience participation category; and by doing the impossible, Gamma Phi Beta and Zeta Beta Tau won first place with 376 points in the non-audience participation category at Spartacade, 1959.

The Vets-Alpha Gam booth featured a model of the MSU campus, with rats running races around Circle Drive. Visitors to the "Rat Race" booth gambled Spartacade tickets on their choices, with the winners being presented prizes.

Defying the saying "They Said It Couldn't Be Done," the ZBT's and Gamma Phi Beta's proceeded to show why famous people of history posed the way they did for paintings and sculptures.

"TIP-A-CANOE AND TANKER TOO" won the second place trophy in the audience participation class with 315 points for the Alpha Chi Omega-Phi Gamma Delta team.

The Delta Zeta-Phi Kappa Psi production of "There's Madness in Our Method" gathered 303 points to take the third place trophy.

Honorable mentions in the audience participation class went to the Kappa Alpha Theta-Delta Upsilon booth, "Ideas Have Legs," and the Gilchrist-Emmons combination, "Fools and Their Money Are Soon Parted."

IN THE NON-AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION category, "For Heaven's Sake," by Kappa Kappa Gamma and Delta Tau Delta, won the second place trophy with 364 points. The Sigma Kappa-Phi Kappa Psi production of "Love Is a Gamble" earned 361 for third place.

Phi Beta Phi and Lambda Chi Alpha teamed up with "That's What Uncle Remus Said" to earn an honorable mention in that class, while Kappa Delta-Beta Theta Pi booth of "Music Soothes the Savage Soul" won the other.

A special trophy in each class was presented to the dormitory team with the most points. The Gilchrist-Emmons combination won the trophy in the audience participation group, while Bryan and Mason placed seventh in the non-audience participation category to win a trophy with their presentation of "Go West Young Man."

DR. JOHN A. HANNAH made the trophy presentations at Jenison Sunday at 6 p.m.

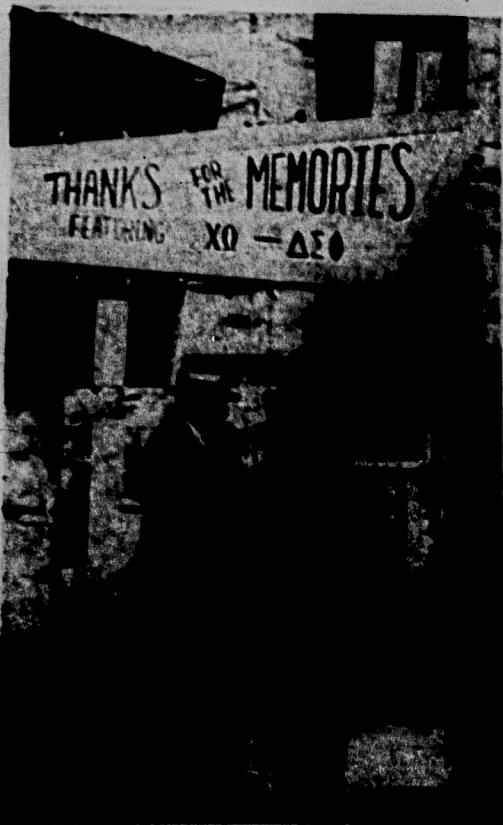

Jenison Fieldhouse, usually seen with bleachers bulging with spectators at basketball games, transformed into a fairgrounds Friday and Saturday nights for Spartacade.

Thirty-two booths, representing 63 living units of the university, lined the walls of the fieldhouse as visitors crowded the midway.

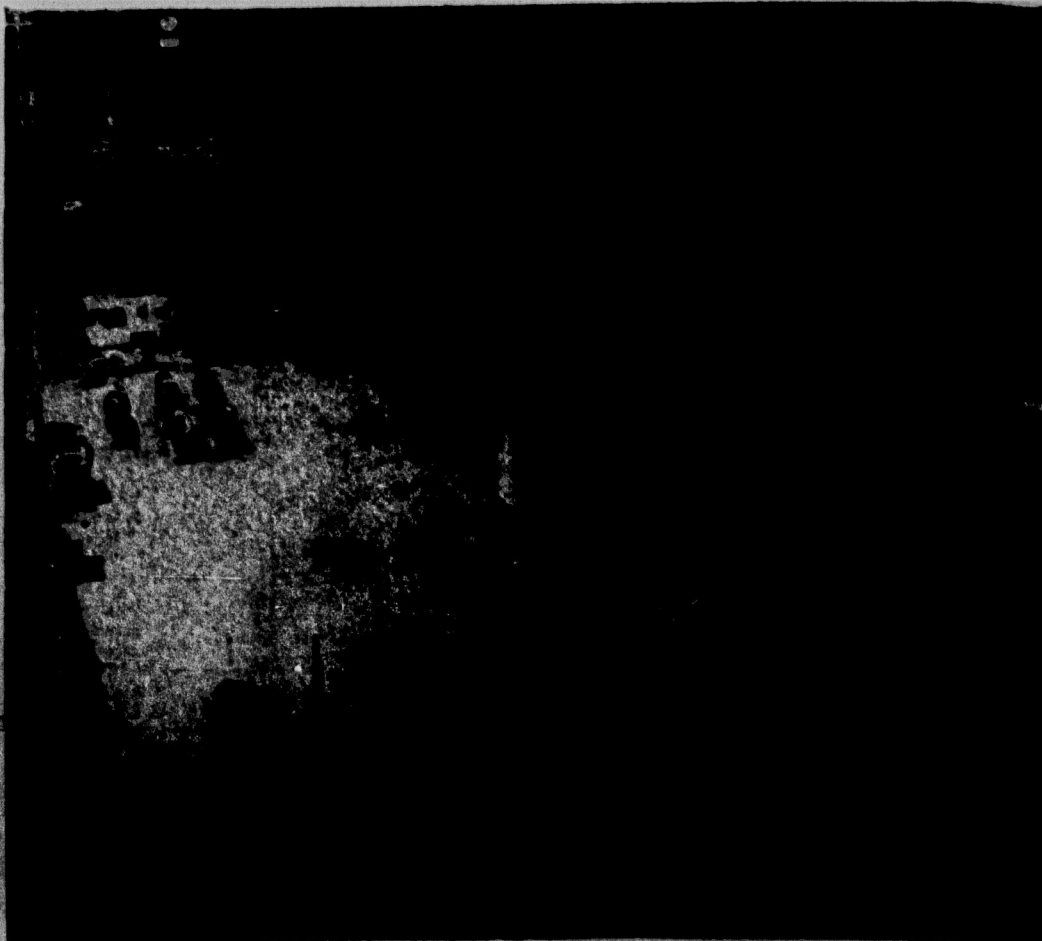

Spartacade is sponsored by Campus Chest and is a means of raising money for nine charities. Approximately 7,400 persons attended the two-day carnival, with 28,400 concession tickets sold. A total of approximately $3,960 was collected at the concessions.
