Sen. Porter Seeks New Fund Action*Won't Speculate About Revisions

LANSING (AP)—The spot light swung Tuesday on Sen. Elmer Porter, Republican Senate money chief, in the state's tightening financial pinch.

Porter refused to speculate on whether he could get favorable action on the measures, either in their present trust fund liquidation form or revised to their original mortgaging approach.

The Bills Approved by the House March 24 have been stuck in Porter's Senate appropriations Committee for three weeks.

Following the conference, Wilkins told newsmen a financial crackup could be averted if the Legislature cleared the bills in one form or another next week and they reached his desk by April 24.

"If it's later than that, we have no guarantee as to what will happen," the Governor added.

Newsmen recalled that last week seven of the nine committee members lined up against reporting the Trust Fund bills.

"I don't know of any of them that have changed their mind. I haven't polled the committee, of course," he said.

Asked if he could get the bills out of committee under these circumstances, Porter replied:

"That's the $64 question."

The Governor told Legislators Monday night that reckoned one way the state general fund will lack $1 million dollars of meeting its obligations by May 15.

Serving MSU For 50 Years

EAST LANSING, MICHIGAN WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, 1959

Republicans Losing Vote Of Negroes*States Official In White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—A White House Negro official said Tuesday the Republican party has failed to win support of Negro voters because, he alleged, it has not recognized Negroes as first citizens.

Ronald Morrow, who since July 1, 1955, has been a White House Administrative Officer, made this criticism in a speech before the Seventh Annual Republican Women's Conference.

Morrow, of Hickory Hill, was educated at Bowdoin College and Rutgers University Law School. He told the 1,200 women delegates, the basic failure of the party to recognize Negro Americans as integral class citizens with all the hopes and aspirations that go with this role in American life, is the primary contributing factor to the party's failure to attract and to hold the Negro voter's loyalty.

Morrow said the GOP can win in 1960 if it "stands for something beyond the usual lip service to obvious ideals."

At another point he said the party must realize that Negroes all over the land are alert and militant "over the issue of first class citizenship."

Morrow excepted President Eisenhower from his criticism, saying:

"Despite the brilliant record of the administration on a national scale, President Eisenhower's philosophy of democratic non-penetration of the local precincts, the county and state governments, and local party machinery."

And until it does, there is no remedy available that will overcome the Democratic Party's ballyhoo that it is the poor man's party, and despite the indifference of the South on the matter of human rights, that it—the Democratic Party—has an exclusive patent on a brand of democracy that embraces the downtrodden and the damned."

Nye has headed the English department since 1946, having joined the faculty in 1940.

Before coming to MSU he taught at Jordan College, 1935-36; University of Wisconsin, 1936-39; and Adelphi College, 1939-40.

Nye won the Pulitzer and Knob prizes for biography in 1945 for his book "George Bancroft: Brahmin Rebel."

Other books written by Nye are "Fettered Freedom," 1949; "Midwestern Progressive Politics," 1951; "The Modern Essay," 1952; "William Lloyd Garrison," 1955; and "A History of the United States," written with J. E. Morpurgo, 1955.

More books are: A. Baker's "Dogen," 1951; and "Benjamin Franklin," 1958. He has also authored numerous journal articles.

Nye is a member of the Modern Language Association, Michigan Historical Society and Phi Kappa Phi scholastic fraternity.

A graduate of Oberlin College in 1934, he received his MA and PhD degrees from the University of Wisconsin in 1935 and 1939.

Dr. Halle, associate professor of sociology and anthropologist, stressed the need for adequate counseling during a farm youth's high school career.

"Research has amply demonstrated that the men reared on farms tend to have less success on the job market than do those reared elsewhere," Dr. Halle pointed out.

Possibly the main reason for this lack of success is the "shock" a farm youth must face if he discovers that he is unable to make a living at farming and must seek employment elsewhere.

Dr. Halle believes that adequate counseling would do much in easing this transitional experience.

East Lansing's fire marshals urged MSU students to help prevent the rash of fires that usually occur in the spring.

John Patriarca said burning rubbish and carelessly tossed cigarette butts are the major causes of spring fires.

"Never leave burning rubbish and always have a garden hose nearby when burning anything," Patriarca said.

He said off-campus residents should be particularly careful about a fire that occurred at 2:02 a.m. Monday at the men's Hendrick Cason.

A utility pole was set ablaze by burning rubbish piled against it, Patriarca said.

"It was plain carelessness," Patriarca continued. Five trucks and several men were tied up for one hour and 17 minutes. This could be disastrous, he said, if another fire began at that time.

The law states that fires cannot be started within 15 feet of any combustible object, Patriarca said, and all fires must be contained in approved burners.

He said it is better to have rubbish picked up on one of the city's five rubbish days than to risk burning it.

Balk Dispute Tense

U. S. Reports Reds Buzzed Transport

BALK (AP) — The East-West dispute over air access to isolated Berlin sharpened Monday with disclosure that Soviet fighters have buzzed a second U.S. Air Force transport plane.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman said that on April 3 two MiGs conducted "dangerous maneuvers" in front of a big double-decked cargo plane on the three-air routes to Berlin with West German officials.

Soviet fighters flew within 100 feet of the C-97 transports as they buzzed over Berlin airports. At one point it was flying at an altitude of 12,000 feet, in addition to a dogfighting altitude of 10,000 feet, which may stay below 10,000 feet.

United States and Soviet representatives at the four-power safety center in Berlin held controls rights in the skies, swapped oral protests over the incident, the embassy added. Each side accused the other of dangerous air tactics.

The U.S. State Department in Washington said the American representative again advised his Moscow counterparts to slow down flights of our planes to strengthen regulations and increase flight safety.

The department said the pilots were flying at 12,000 feet because they could not reach the 10,000-foot altitude due to the time required to keep clear of other aircraft.

4th Straight Loss

Indians' Herb Score, Homers Beat Tigers

CLEVELAND (AP)—Brilliant pitching by southpaw Herb Score and a home run bombardment by his teammates gave the Cleveland Indians an 8-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers Tuesday in the Tribe's home opener before 33,098 fans at Municipal Stadium.

The loss was the fourth straight for the Tigers, who dropped a three-game series to the Chicago White Sox at Detroit last week.

Score, who was wild in a nine-inning relief appearance in Kansas City last Friday, had trouble controlling the ball.

He was one of the best pitchers in the game, however, striking out nine batters, walking only one and allowing but five hits.

Woodie Held blasted two home runs out with the bases loaded, and Minnie Minoso and George Strickland hit one apiece for the Indians. Gall Harris homered for Detroit. Held drove in six runs with his two homers.

Minoso's leadoff homer over the left field fence in the fourth inning broke a scoreless deadlock.

Held's blast in the same spot after two men were out also scored Russ Nixon, who had walked.

Strickland followed with a home run in the left field stands. Score singled through the box, but Jim Piersall struck out to end the inning.

Held's home run was his first of the season.

Jim Bunning, the Tigers' starter and loser, was the victim of the Indians' fourth inning uprising.

He gave up five hits, two walks and had three strike outs in the four innings he pitched.

Lean Plan Petitioning Opens

Applications for National College Honor Society for the 1959-60 year were opened July 1 by the Michigan State Board of Education.

The application was developed by the Michigan State Board of Education and consists of a petition, a statement of purpose, a letter of recommendation, and a copy of the National Honor Society Constitution.

For those who have applied, the application will be available at all full-time state universities in good standing. Freshmen may rank in the upper one-third of their high school graduating class. Other students must rank in the top 10 percent of their class or be all university city point average and make normal progress toward their degree.

Graduate assistants, research assistants, students holding fellowships, receiving less than $2,000 a year are eligible.

After Aug. 15, the applications will be divided into the following categories:

E.L. City Manager Requests Three Extra Patrolmen, Car

Four additional city patrols recommended in the city's proposed 1959-60 fiscal budget, an estimate of three men and a patrol car to the 20-man police force.

John Parrache made the recommendation before the city council Monday night. He said that increased activity made more and more patrolmen necessary.

Parrache also said that more emphasis should be placed on traffic control, and that a faster speed limit be set.

The fire department, Parrache said, should be given an additional personnel at this time even though its size has never been increased.

He recommended retention of the former high-powered service truck the truck would serve as a standby unit to assist in rural areas lacking fire hydrants, he said.

Parrache also recommended replacement of the fire station trucks and He said the 1943 Plymouth, which is used in the fire prevention program, is in terrible condition.

COLLEGE PUZZLE CONTEST FOR STUDENTS AND FACULTY MEMBERS

2 GRAND PRIZES

WIN A RAMBLER STATION WAGON!

ENTER OFTEN—HAVE FUN—AND WIN! But think carefully! This puzzle is not as easy as it looks. At first the DOWN and ACROSS clues may appear simple. There may appear to be more than one "right" answer. For example, the clue might read: "Many a coed will be given her best date's P-N." Either "I" (PIN) or "E" (PEN) would seem to fit. But only one answer is apt and logical as decided by the judging staff, and therefore caged. Read the rules carefully. ENTER AS OFTEN AS YOU WISH. Good luck!
