Geneva Conference Hits Snag

Full German Participation Demanded

Western Powers Refuse Requests

GENEVA (AP)—The Big Four Foreign Ministers conference hit a snag Sunday before it even got started when the Soviet Union demanded that Communist East Germany be brought in as a full participant.

The Western Powers rejected the demand. The dispute created some uncertainty about the actual opening of the conference set for 2:30 p.m. (9:30 a.m. EST) today. The issue will be taken up again today before the scheduled first session.

Spokesmen said the Western Powers regarded the effort by Moscow to put the East Germans in the center of the conference stage as a matter of substance rather than a mere procedural wrangle. They said it involved a form of recognition of the Red East German regime.

They indicated by their remarks that the West would back Moscow.

Although the Soviet move brought a crisis atmosphere, there was a growing expectation in the Western camp that the Soviet side on the final analysis would not push the wrangle beyond a breaking point.

Behind the scenes moves were under way Sunday night to settle the dispute and informants said the first session probably will be resumed as scheduled with the four powers at the table.

After hearing a welcoming speech from UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold, they said the Ministers can get down to debating the Russian demand. Sources close to the Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko insisted on seating the East German at the conference table with the name "German Democratic Republic" placed with that of the Big Four powers. It would be a signal for the Western nations to walk out. That would suspend the talks.

The French sources did not explain how this might come about. But apparently they meant that the Western delegations would maintain their refusal to accept the communist East Germans as a full-fledged delegation even if this meant breaking up the talks.

Allan Secretary of State Andrei Gromyko had agreed in an exchange of diplomatic notes that representatives of East and West Germany should have only advisory status at the conference.

Spartan 5 will go on sale for three days starting Tuesday. It will feature "The Table, Sparty Pix, humor and an interview with Dr. Stanley Iizerda, dean of Honors College.

Coupons will be inserted in the Spartan 5 and will offer the purchaser special prizes being offered by East Lansing stores. Winners must prove ownership of coupons by bringing them to the Spartan office, 345 Student Services. Spartan 5 will be sold in the Union, Natural Science, Berkey, Kresge, Short Course and at South Campus bridge.

Junior Class Petitions For Offices Available

Petitions for junior class chairmanships, committee memberships and Junior Council memberships are now available at the Union Desk or in the junior class office in the Student Services building.

Greek Week Opens With Sorority Sing

Alpha Gamma Delta Receives First Place for Second Year

Alpha Gamma Delta harmonized with "Mick McGilgan's Ball" to win top honors at Sorority Sing Sunday at the Aud and open annual Greek Week.

Outstanding Juniors Presented

16 Winners Given Plaques Sunday

Bill Hampton, junior class president, presented plaques Sunday at Sorority Sing to the 16 "Outstanding Juniors of 1959."

Winners of the annual award were chosen on the basis of exceptional leadership, activities, service to the campus and scholarship, from about 120 petitions and more than 250 nominations from living unit presidents.

The selection committee represented Mortar Board Executive, AUSG, SWL, Blue Key and Junior Council.

The "Outstanding Juniors" include:

Jennings Bird, Knoxville, Tenn.—associate editor of 1959 Wolverine, Alpha Gamma Rho president, Blue Key, recording secretary, Green Helmet (past vice-president), Phi Eta Sigma and Honors College.

Mary Broun, Nile—executive secretary for Career Carnival and J-Hop, Tower Guard, Alpha Lambda Delta, Honors College, Phi Mu treasurer.

El Flournoy, Detroit—Bailey Hall vice-president, Green Helmet, MSU Players "Mr. Roberts," "Imaginary Invalid," Spartacade programs chairman, Hinnam Scholar, State News.

Mark Harrold, Lansing—Union Board vice-president, Blue Key treasurer, Pre-Med Club, Beta Beta Beta.

Tom Hood, Paw Paw—Council for Christian Work president, Ag Council, Green Helmet, Phi Eta Sigma, Honors College, chairman of Greek Week religious convocation.

Bill Livingston, AUSG president, Greek Feast chairman, Water Carnival Police and securities chairman, Spartacade tickets chairman.

Joyce McNamara, Eaton Rapids—PanHel vice-president, co-chairman of Big 10 PanHel-IFC conference, Tower Guard, Alpha Lambda Delta, Honors College, co-chairman of Lantern Night.

Second prize went to Kappa Alpha Theta's arrangement of "Looking for the Lost Chord—A Medley."

Chi Omega received third place for "Black is the Color of My True Love's Hair." Honorable mention was awarded to "The Happy Wanderer," sung by Alpha Phi.

Sorority Sing traditionally opens Greek Week, which this year is "Fit For the Gods." Each day of the week will be in honor of a particular Greek deity.

Sing also in honor of Academic goddess of love, and was also dedicated to mothers in observance of Mothers' Day.

Eighteen of the twenty national sororities on campus participated in Sing. Purpose of the event is to promote competition between houses, provide opportunity to work harmoniously in presenting a musical program to the entire university.

During intermission, the sixteen outstanding junior awards were announced by Bill Hampton, president of the junior class. Entertainment was a quartet of songs by the Four Speech, Dr. William Sweetland, associate professor of humanities, was master of ceremonies.

Sorority workshops and Interfraternity leadership conference will be held this evening at 7 p.m. in the Union. The meetings are in connection with Greek Week.

Dean Eunice Roberts, director of educational programs for women at the University of Indiana, will be guest speaker at the sorority convocation. She will speak on leadership responsibilities of sorority women.

Alumnae advisors for all sororities and faculty members will attend the conference with the sorority women.

After the convocation, work shops for standards, social scholarship and activities chairman and pledge trainers will be held at various houses on MAC Ave.

National officers of fraternities will be featured speakers at the IFC conference. Smaller workshops with open questions and answer periods will follow.

Both conferences are held annually to provide opportunity to discuss problems of the Greek system, including scholarship, rushing, and community relationships.

Susan Freeman Elected Dem V.P.

Susan Freeman, Lansing junior, was recently elected vice president of the Young Democratic Club of Michigan. Six MSU students attended the convention in Detroit Saturday.

First Water Festivities Held in 1923

Red Cedar Carnival Evolves From River Dunkings

A lot of water has gone under the bridge since the days of the original water festivities on the Red Cedar before Water Carnival came into its own.

While today's carnival is believed to be the only one of its kind produced in universities throughout the nation, the first "splash pageant" came into existence as a result of the tomfoolery, practical-joke type of recreation existent among college fellows.

Dunkings took on a serious aspect during the troubled times of the "30's" when the Red Cedar figured twice in the nation's news.

A movement was abroad to stage a peace strike in every college on April 12, 1935, with students deserting classes to meet and resolve action against participation in war.

On the appointed day an estimated 500 unsympathetic MSU students gathered to hear several potential speakers. A session of heckling and fruit throwing followed.

Finally the crowd closed in and escorted the party to the river. Newspapers the next day announced large, orderly meeting at other colleges, but only "dunking" at MSU.

Two years later an even more vigorous reception was staged for another group of visitors from the Lansing area.

Next, holidaying goon squads set out to extend "vacation" to merchants in the East Lansing area.

Students congregated at the main crossroad in East Lansing and forced the group back. More labor recruits were sent out to re-establish the blockade in East Lansing, but they failed to reckon with the Red Cedar spirit. The dunking followed.

Over the years canoe clubs had formed, and gradually unorganized water sports, patterned after those of Indian ancestors, began taking place, particularly during the weekend of Commencement.

The orthodox tug of war often took place, with the river awaiting the losing side.

Talk of organizing these water games into an all-college event was interrupted by World War I. In 1919 a spring pageant was arranged which gave way a year later to a Mardi Gras and a canoe parade presented by the senior class.

In 1923 the first full-fledged Water Carnival took place under the theme, "Songs of Our Times." Since that era such motifs as "Worship of the Spartan Gods," and "Night in Fairyland" have been featured.

Even the thin pocket books of the Spartans during the depression failed to dim the enthusiasm for the carnival production. In 1942 with the title "All Out for Victory," activities closed down to further the war aims, resuming again in 1947 with "Songs We All Know."

In 1950 rumor had it that a national magazine would feature the activities. In order that the Red Cedar live up to its name, the committee purchased $400 worth of red vegetable dye. All was in vain for "didn't it rain!"

Committee Seeks Opinions

4,000 Students Get Questionnaires on MSU

The 4,000 questionnaires sent this weekend to MSU students is probably the largest single polling of its type, according to Willard Warrington, evaluation services.

The Committee on the Future of the University is polling student opinion with two-page questionnaires which have been sent to all dorms, fraternity and sorority houses. Four thousand questionnaires were mailed to off-campus students.

As all resident students and almost half of the off-campus students received questionnaires, Warrington said the Committee hopes to receive a good sampling of student attitudes.

Thursday is the deadline for completion of the questionnaires. The committee will run an analysis of the questionnaires beginning the end of this week. Warrington said they hope to have an accurate analysis of student opinion by the end of the month.

Specific questions concerning aspects of MSU along with general questions concerning the student image of the University comprise the questionnaire.

Although it is not intended to be a student gripe session, the questionnaire does deal with specific fields of contention in the hope of procuring an accurate perspective of campus attitudes.

Residence halls will receive forms with an extra section of questions concerning dorm life.

State Grad Author of Play

Two-Act Begins Wednesday

"Ages of Secular," a two-act original drama concerning a Southern Michigan family, will be presented on campus May 13-14.

Written as a "revival" of the annual production of Theta Alpha Phi National Dramatic Society, the play will be staged at 8:15 p.m. in the Meru Theater, 49 Ave.

Written as a "revival" of the annual production of Theta Alpha Phi National Dramatic Society, the play will be staged at 8:15 p.m. in the Meru Theater, 49 Ave.

He also served as publicity director of Spartan spirit and as chairman of Spartan Club.

Tom belongs to the Society for the Advancement of Management and the Finance Club. He has a 3.4 all-university average and is a member of Excalibur and Blue Key.

Tom's reaction to being honored as Senior of the Year, was "I know it wouldn't be possible without a very mature and sensible wife." He and his wife, Maxine, have two sons, Tom and Curt.

After graduation Tom will work for Kaiser Aluminum in industrial sales and public relations. Presently, Tom works 20 hours a week in the equipment department of athletics.

Tom Kolesiak Named Senior Of the Year

The main action of Act I takes place during May, 1934, and the main action of Act II during late March, 1934. However, both acts include "flash-backs" which present recapping of action in the past.

To facilitate frequent scene changes, the sets have been constructed on varying levels. An elaborate lighting system will effect the changes.

Included in the cast are Don and Bill Bumpstead, Pontiac graduate students; Homer Weaver, Three Rivers senior; Mary Bagnone, Grand Rapids sophomore; Linda Kolbied, Birmingham sophomore; John Albert, Saginaw graduate student; Joe Parkson, Bay City freshman; and Evanston, Ill. junior Jazel Dick, Patricia Ridge, Trenton, N.J. freshman.

The play will be directed by Allen Axen, Detroit senior. He will be assisted by Michael Welch, technical director, and Thonissa Mankas, assistant director.

Anne Nokes Gets Education Award

Anne Nokes, Cleveland, was the receiver of Senior Award given each year to an outstanding graduating senior in education.

The award was given at the annual Kappa Delta Pi education honorary Spring initiation banquet May 5.

Dr. Ernest Melby, MSU Professor of Education, delivered the address entitled "Education for Renewed Faith in Freedom."

New Fraternity Slates Meeting

An organizational meeting of the Beta Chi Chapter of Gamma Theta Upsilon, the national professional geographers fraternity, will be held at 7 p.m. Friday in 499 Natural Science.

The chapter which has met the last two years as an informal group, was chartered May 4. Dr. Charles Boas, faculty adviser to the group, said.

Dare We Question A Questionnaire?

WE READ WITH sparse interest the questionnaire on higher learning mailed out last weekend. It was only mildly interesting simply because it reminds us of so many questionnaires...

Question 1, the first involving a decision, asks: 'To what degree should a college education contribute to academic as compared to personal and social development?'

The choice of answers: 'More emphasis on personal and social development', 'Equal emphasis on both sides', 'More emphasis on academics', 'Much more emphasis on academics'.

THE QUESTION, in the first place, assumed education should 'contribute' to some degree to 'personal and social development'. The question merely asks how much.

And what, if we may question the question, is 'contribution'? Whisking through the booklet in the brief 15 minutes required according to evaluation services spokesmen we might think 'contribution' means the university will leave students sufficient free time for social activities.

After all, MSU contributes to the nation's host of engineers by listing engineering curricula in its catalog and contributes to its armed forces by requiring two years of military training.

WE PREDICT the Spartan student body will answer '2' on the seventh question, since it feels, without pausing for much thought, that 'personal and social development' is a nice thing to have and shouldn't be eliminated during the four years of academic advance.

This, essentially, is all the questionnaire asks and it is for this reason invalid.

Assuming that changes in the university will be guided by this questionnaire, we wonder what kind of changes the Committee on the Future would be pushed toward in noting student dissatisfaction with the existing system.

WE ARE ASKED to rate rules and regulations concerning 'student conduct' regarding their logic, fairness, impartiality, inconsistency. We are asked in a round about way to indicate if 'fewer' rules would be better, and to choose the proper authorities for carrying them out.

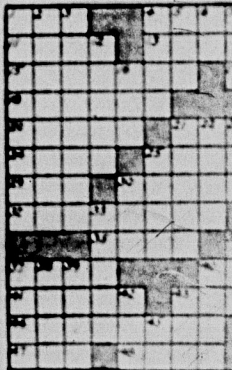

But nowhere do we find a definition of 'student conduct'. Are dress, good manners, study habits, punctuality, and dating practices in the realm of student conduct?

What would happen if all dormitory residents agreed that 'some residence hall regulations are too strict'? The only real guide to change, rules we think of as the baby with the bath (which might be a good idea anyway), are the two lines provided for a written answer at the bottom of the questionnaire.

We hope this faculty booklet will take more of a fourth place to several other interesting and important documents on the same problems, but in a more significant endeavor.

U. S. Policy Changed In Past Year

To Better Relations With Latin America

WASHINGTON (AP)—The year since Vice-President Richard Nixon was spat upon and stoned in Caracas has been a period of big changes in U.S. programs affecting Latin America.

The year has brought officials here and a remarkable number of U.S. moves aimed at meeting some of the criticisms hurled at Nixon along with the Venezuelan risks.

The effectiveness of these moves, they say, was indicated by Secretary of State Christian Herter in a March 18 appearance before the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Herter said in response to a question that U.S. relations with Latin America are better than they were a year ago.

Guidelines Laid Down Some of the guidelines which brought about this change were laid down by Nixon himself, others by Dr. Milton Eisenhower, the President's brother, who headed central America in July.

Herter said in response to a question that U.S. relations with Latin America are better than they were a year ago.

The moves, the officials here say, may not be readily apparent to the Latin American man in the street. But the climate among political, economic and cultural leaders appears much warmer, they say.

Here are some of the Latin American criticisms of U.S. policies and the actions cited by U.S. officials in response.

Lack Financial Aid

1. Criticism: The U.S. is not giving enough financial help to the underdeveloped Latin American nations.

Officials reply that the U.S. has given strong support to the various U.S. and international agencies which can provide loans or give technical assistance to Latin American nations.

2. Criticism: The U.S. is friendly with exploiters, notably Marlow Peres Jimenez, who fled from Venezuela during an uprising there in 1958 and fled to the U.S. in 1962.

Students Called 'Conformists'

To the Editor:

Greek Row Interest Lags

Policy Fails To Stir Up Enthusiasm

Fraternities Object Proposed Location

By DICK WARD
Interest in Fraternity Row has waned to the point where the university is ready to forget the whole matter, according to Merrill Pierson, assistant treasurer.

When the project was first proposed by the university two years ago, there was a considerable amount of interest shown by some of the fraternities. Seven fraternities made commitments to build, depositing $1,000 each.

Since that time, however, three of the fraternities have withdrawn their deposits, deciding to build elsewhere, Pierson said.

Because of the high cost of developing the area, Pierson said, the university feels that it must have at least 10 houses interested in the project.

In an attempt to create this interest, a new policy was drafted and sent to each fraternity last March.

The proposed site, located at the corner of Harrison and Hope roads, will be divided into 26 one-acre lots.

The entire site will be developed by the university, including paved streets, water, street lights, water, etc.

These lots will be made available for a price equal to the actual investment of the university. This would be approximately $18,000 per lot, including land cost.

The lots will be leased for a 30-year period, with privilege of renewal by the fraternity.

The university will finance two-thirds of the cost of building the houses. The cost is estimated to be approximately $4,500 per man.

The financing would be paid back over a 30-year period at a reasonable rate of interest, currently about 4 1/2 percent.

The houses will have to be built under the safety code of the university, which is the same as that of East Lansing.

Applications will be accepted from all fraternities and societies, except those which have discriminatory clauses as to race or religion in their charters, Pierson said.

The organizations will operate their houses independently of the university, subject to the same rules and regulations existing elsewhere in the community.

Eldon Nonemaker, assistant director of student affairs, said he feels that the idea of a Fraternity Row is a good one.

"This is the opportunity for the fraternities and societies to build the types of houses that they want."

"The fraternities and societies, regardless of where they are built, come under the same university policy," Nonemaker said. "Certainly no new or different regulations will cover those that are built on Fraternity Row."

The main reasons for the lack of interest are that the distance is too far from all of the campus activity, and that the university is attempting to put more control upon the Greeks, according to the officers of some fraternities.

One president felt that many of the fraternities are not interested because they have an excellent location and good house where they are and have no desire to move.

The president of another organization said he felt that there was a more intimate contact with the city by having the Greeks spread through the community.

Awards Announced

Judy Peters Reigns Over Engineers' Show

The Engineering Exposition climaxed Saturday evening at the May Hop as Engineering Queen, Judy Peters, Dearborn sophomore, presented awards to builders of outstanding exhibits.

Throughout Saturday, students and parents weekend visitors flocked through the engineering buildings and saw displays depicting research and classwork done by MSU engineering students.

Numerous other exhibits were sponsored by government agencies and industry.

Awards in the upper school individual division were given to Bill Kerr, Flint senior, M. D. Beckwith, East Lansing senior, and Harold Quackenbush, East Lansing senior.

In the Junior College individual division, Harvey Selmer, Birmingham freshman, James Norberg, East Lansing sophomore, and Dick Hooper, Lansing sophomore, received prizes.

John Haggart, Benton Harbor senior, and Harold Bennett, Mendon senior, placed second. The exhibit of Clarence Prentice and Ray Wilson, East Lansing seniors, tied for third place with the display of James Feller, Okemos senior, and C. Anderson, East Lansing senior.

The Deans Trophy was awarded to civil engineering for having the best departmental display. Electrical engineering had held it for three years.

Brian London Offered Second Chance

LONDON (AP)—Brian London, Britain's beaten heavyweight hope, disclosed Sunday that he had been promised a second crack at Floyd Patterson's world heavyweight title within 18 months.

In a signed newspaper article, London said the offer had been made to him by Patterson's manager, Gus D'Amato, after London had been knocked out by Patterson in the 11th round at Indianapolis.

London said one of the conditions of getting the second bout would be signing a contract that would give D'Amato a share in managing him if he should win the title. Patterson is due to risk his title against Sweden's Ingemar Johansson in New York June 25.

"Mr. D'Amato made two conditions, one that I should keep it (the offer) secret until I returned to Britain.

"And the other: 'Before you fight Patterson again, said Mr. D'Amato, you must come to this country six months in advance of the fight, not to meet another opponent, but to sharpen up."

London claimed D'Amato told him he would then be the most likely man in the world to defeat Patterson.

"To take such an offer," London said, "it would be necessary for me to sign a contract. In it I would let Mr. D'Amato take over as my manager if I should win the title or at least have some share in it."

In Battle of Home Runs Detroit Beats KC, 7-6

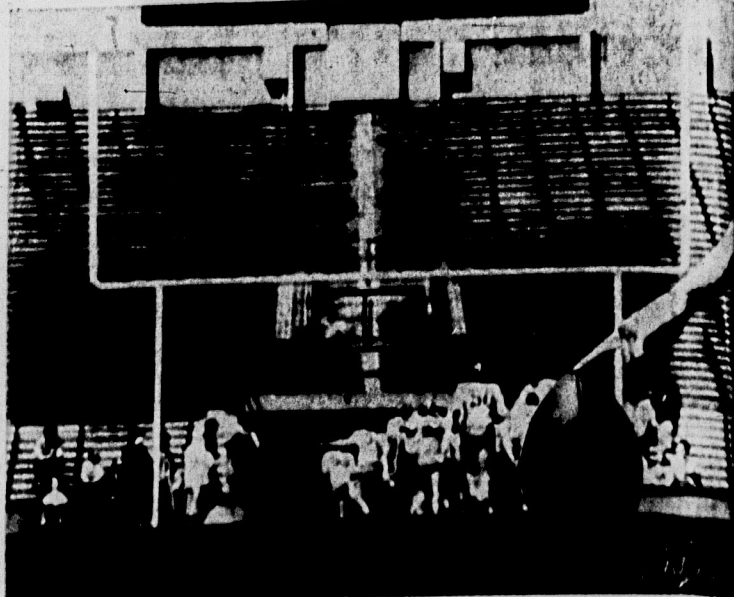

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers won a battle of home runs against Kansas City's Roger Maris Sunday and bent the Athletics, 7-6, for their seventh victory in eight games.

Maris chubbed two home runs for five runs but Charlie Maxwell, Lou Berberet and Rocky Bridges hit homers for the Tigers as Detroit swept the third straight series since Detroit relieved Bill Norman.

Two Kansas City players were injured in the contest. Bob Carey was hit on the right thumb by a Foystack fast ball and pitcher Russ Meyer was struck in the leg by a hard smash off the bat of Al Kaline.

Foystack received credit for his first victory although Ray Narleski came on after Foystack gave up Maris' second home run.

Maris hit a two-run homer in the first inning and the A's increased their lead to 3-0 with a second inning run driven across

Riccuci Scores Lone White Tally

Green Gridders Win, 26-7

In Saturday Scrimmage Game

Tommy Wilson, Blanche Martin and Herb Adderley started as a strong Green team ran over the undermanned White squad, 26-7, in a game-type scrimmage Saturday in Spartan Stadium.

Wilson, at the helm during all four quarters, had a direct hand in three touchdowns and passed for two others.

Martin penetrated the end zone twice and Adderley once.

The scrimmage, the last before next week's football wrap-up with the Old Timers, started on a dull note. It wasn't until early in the second quarter when the Greens scored first.

Quarterback Wilson joined the running game to go for nine yards for a first down and three yards for the initial score. Jon Marx and Martin kept the drive alive with just down gains. Carl Charon split the new width goal posts for the point after.

The two teams fought an even terms for the rest of the half.

Park Baker pounced on a White fumble just after the start of the second half to enable the Greens to move in for their second score. Marx' 25-yard sprint set up Wilson's aerial to Adderley for a 25-yard touchdown. Charon's kick went astray.

Green's third score came the next time they had the ball. Starting from midfield, Wilson, Martin, Adderley and Bob Suci moved the pigskin to the three where Wilson connected with Martin for the touchdown. Martin's boot was good for the extra point.

After the Whites failed to make headway and gave up the ball, it took 13 plays for the Green 11 to hit paydirt from the midfield stripe with Martin going 12 yards for the marker.

Wilson, Suci, Baker and Gary Ballman toted the ball to the five where Wilson was then thrown for two lengthy losses to give his crew a fourth down-38 yards to go situation. Martin came in to punt. A bad pass from center forced the speedster to run. And run he did, for a touchdown.

Charon again failed in his PAT attempt.

It wasn't until the last minute of the game that Bob Riccuci went around end to break into the scoring column for the Whites.

Sophomore quarterback Leroy Loudermilk guided the Whites to the score by throwing to Barry Zindel for a 25-yard gain and chipping in with short gains. Riccuci went around the end for the yard TD with just 10 seconds remaining. The point attempt was successful.

Larry Bielak, who had failed to move the Whites by a team of third and fourth team members.

Fred Boylen, a second tackle, was forced out of a game with a reinjured ankle before booting a pair of pressure kick-offs which nearly into the end zone.

Wilson played much of the time at the quarterback for the Greens, working two backfields. He teamed with Martin, Adderley and The other trio was Bob Baker and Suci.

Bob Berelch did not act as planned.

Dorne Dibble, who had a clash with the Michigan varsity Saturday with the all-star cast of assistant coaches.

Four former Spartan players, Dan Currie, Jim Nowinski, Masters and Bob Foy, are set to help the team.

Kobsmen Tie for Fourth In Big 10 Baseball Race

Win Two, Lose One At Home

Ross, Radatz Win; Sinks Takes Loss

The Spartans moved into a tie for fourth place in Big 10 baseball standings with the U of M Saturday as they split a doubleheader with Northwestern. This pushed their average above the .500 mark.

Friday's game helped the Spartans keep some title hopes alive as they downed Wisconsin, now in fifth place in the standings, by a score of 5-3.

Capt. Dick "Moose" Radatz, the old reliable of the State pitching staff, started and checked up his sixth victory of the year. An injury, sustained when hit on the face by a throw from third baseman Jerry Lumianski in Tuesday's Notre Dame game, did not affect his ability.

In the opener of the doubleheader on Saturday two home runs, by Look and Lumianski, accounted for five of State's eight runs as they won by a score of 5-6.

The nightcap saw them lead by five hits and only three runs when Northwestern scored eight tallies.

Don Sackett started the opener for the Spartans, but pitched only one complete inning and allowed four runs before giving way to southpaw Bob Ross, who beat the rest of the way to check up the win.

It looked like MSU's hitting troubles were over when in the first game of the doubleheader, six of their 10 hits were for extra bases. The nightcap, however, was a different story. Leftfielder John Fleser's circuit clot was the only Spartan extra-base knock.

Mickey Sinks, one of the big three of the pitching staff, was double-duty Saturday afternoon. In the opener Sinks was at his best position of first base. The second game saw him as starter on the mound.

His mound duty was short-lived. After two innings of hitting he gave way to Don Plagenhoff. Sinks retired after allowing five runs, four of them earned.

Picmann was, in turn, relieved by Craig Van Sciever in the fifth. Starter Sinks got the loss.

Prof. John Fuzak of the college of education conducted between-the-games festivities celebrating the 100th anniversary of collegiate baseball. Former Spartan diamond greats such as Ben Patterson, Harold "China" Clark, George Wenner, Russell Davis, Chuck Higbie, Fred Barratt, John Gafner and Don Fleser, father of present-day left-fielder John Fleser.

Coach Fred Lindstrom of Northwestern, former star for the New York Giants, was introduced by veteran Spartan mentor John Kobs.

On Tuesday the Spartans will journey to Detroit for a single game with Wayne State. Wednesday the Spartans play host to Notre Dame in a single game at Old College field. Starting time is 3 p.m.

A SPARTAN BATS MAN swings for the fences in one of Saturday's games. Michigan State won two and lost one of their week-end schedule to put them in a tie for fourth place with the University of Michigan.

Mesall Still Undefeated, Netters Defeat Purdue For Seasons 4th Win

The MSU tennis team swept five of the six singles matches and all three doubles as it defeated Purdue Saturday, 8-1.

The victory was the netters' fourth in regular season play and the third out of four in their current home stand. They have lost twice.

Bill Holtekiss, No. 1 singles player, was the lone loser for State. Playing against the toughest competition in each meet, Holtekiss has nevertheless managed to perform creditably for the Spartans. He was defeated Saturday by Purdue's Don Semple, 6-2, 6-2.

Doug Smith, Foster Hoffman, Roger Plagenhoff, Bob Sassack and Ron Mesall all turned in singles victories.

Smith beat Jim Himmelfright of Purdue, 6-2, 6-3. Hoffman defeated Phil Conrux of the Hoosiers, 6-2, 6-3.

Don Drysdale Fined

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Don Drysdale, Los Angeles pitcher, drew a $50 fine Sunday for hitting Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants with a pitch.

Mays was hit in the shoulder Saturday in the third inning of a game Los Angeles won in 11 innings.

A telegram from National League headquarters in Cincinnati advised Drysdale of the fine.

Spartans Set Good Times
Thinclads Lose Meet To Penn State Squad

Michigan State's track squad returned home on the short end of a 9:15-3:30 p.m. meet with Penn State. However, there were several outstanding performances turned in by the Spartan thinclads despite losing.

After Bob Lake made a personal-record showing (4:04.9) while losing to Penn State's Ed Moran (4:02.1) had Lake won the event he would have broken the eight-year-old MSU varsity record, surpassing the present mark of 4:08.8.

Capt. Fordey Kennedy also would have set a new varsity record as he covered the two-mile distance in 9:06. The present record is 9:08.4. However, Dick Enebrink of the Nittany Lions set a new Penn State record with an 8:58 performance to win the event.

The mile relay team also made its best showing of the year as Don Marsh, Bob Hughes, Max Weissengruber and Brian Castle won the event in 3:15. However, even with this good effort, the Lions took the event.

The best event for the Spartans was the broad jump as George Ward, Roy Elliott and John Harness finished one, two and three, respectively.

The high jump was also a good event for State as Harness had a 5'8 1/2 performance while Ward finished third, Mike Kienig was second, the 120-yard high jump was won by Harness placed third.

Kienig also placed second in the 120 yard low hurdles and tied for second in the pole vault while Al Neumann took second in the shot put.

The Nittany Lions gained most of their points through wins in the 100, 220, 380 and 800 yard runs, one, two and three mile runs, two in the 440.

In the 440, MSU's Brian Castle had a bad break due to a slow start out of a poor set of blocks and therefore ran third. Castle ran the distance in 4:38 and had only two-tenths of a second despite the bad start.

Coach Fran Dietrich said he was more pleased in losing to a strong Penn State team than in beating Wisconsin a week ago. He felt the better performance of the team turned in. The coach thought his team ran very well.

Next weekend the thinclads will journey to South Bend, Indiana, to meet Notre Dame in their first dual meet of the outdoor season.

1st Defeat of Season Golfers Get Beaten By Indiana Team

After rolling up a streak of seven straight wins, Michigan State tasted its first golf setback of the season Saturday at the hands of a powerful Indiana squad, 201-157, in the Spartans' final home showing of the year.

Coach Ben Van Alstyne's Spartans did add the University of Detroit to its list of victims with a 25-9 humbling of the Titans in the triangular match at Forest H. Akers golf course. Indiana bested Detroit, 31-5.

C. A. Smith won medalist honors for the Spartans with rounds of 74 and 73 for a five-over-par 147. Smith won by number three match, 43-21, from Hoosier Earl Kriete, who was the Indiana medalist with 23, 4, 149 for the only individual Michigan State win with the victors.

Ed Schmidt and Gary Barrett halved their matches with Indiana's Dick Barth and Tom Cable respectively. Schmidt shot a disappointing 86 in the morning round, but came back with a par 71, the day's best single round, in the afternoon. Barrett carded a 76-81-163 in his match.

Te Capin scored to a 163 on rounds of 79 and 84 and lost 4-2 to Ron Hoover in the number one match. Hoover, who finished sixth in the Big 10 meet last season, shot a 76-80-156.

Jack Reynolds, in the number two match, lost 41-114, to Don Sommer. Reynolds carded a 157 total on rounds of 78 and 79, to Sommer's 76-75-153.

Indiana, which placed second to Purdue in the Big 10 conference meet last year, used two men in the number six position to best Marly Kleva, 42-111. Kleva carded an 82-81-163 for the 36-hole course, while Jim Brucker tallied an 82 in the morning and Dave Pelz a 75 in the afternoon for the Hoosiers.

Smith, Barrett and Kleva swept their matches with the Titans to clinch the Spartan eighth win of the season. Smith showed Paul Predhoming, who shot 152. Barrett tallied 151. Samples 168 and Tom Sarowski 171, a 173, moved to Kleva. Bernholz topped the Titan medalist, Don Molenda, who scored an 80-78-158. Schmidt halved his match with Detroit captain Tom Skover, who shot 162 on rounds of 83 and 79.

Bob Adams scored the only Titan individual win over the Spartans, defeating Capin, 53-21, on rounds of 84 and 77 for a 161.

Kobs Named Coach For Pan Am Baseball
Spartan baseball Coach John Kobs has been named to pilot the United States baseball entry in the Pan American games this summer in Chicago.

The appointment was named by Everett Barnes of the U.S. Olympic committee, sponsoring body of the country's Pan-Am games team.

Kobs was also coach of the U.S. team in the last games, in 1945. His squad finished second at the Mexico City site.

Kobs' assistant and team manager will be University of Chicago mentor Kyle Anderson.

Jordan Shuns Military Pact

Declines East, West Agreements

UAR Press Fears Baghdad Plans

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—The new premier of Jordan said Sunday his country will steer clear of military pacts with either East or West.

Hazza Maali has been under attack by the United Arab Republic's press and radio ever since King Hussein asked him last Tuesday to form a new government replacing that of Samir Rifal.

The U.A.R. press is charging that Maali's appointment is the first step in a plan by the king to take Jordan into the Western-backed Baghdad anti-communist pact.

Maali declined in an interview to comment directly on the U.A.R. press campaign against him. But he obviously had the propaganda attack in mind when he said:

"Jordan has not and does not intend to be itself in any foreign political or military pact."

"With the exception of the Arab commitments in accordance with the Arab League constitution and the Arab League Collective Security Pact, Jordan will remain a pact-free country with no strings to restrict its activities."

"I have come to serve the best interests of my people and I have no secrets to hide. I had already declared that our relations with friendly foreign countries will receive care and appreciation as long as they exist on the basis of mutual respect and equality."

"Jordan has always labored toward the common good of the Arab nation and our relations with sister Arab states will be based on frank cooperation in everything that would provide an Arab nation with happiness and prosperity and protect it against the evils and danger which threaten its existence, faith and traditions."

There has been speculation that Hussein chose Maali to form a new government in an attempt to improve relations with President Gamal Abdel and the U.A.R.

Smucker to Talk Before NAACP

The MSU chapter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People will present Dr. Orin Smucker, professor of social science, sociology and anthropology, 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, 32 Union.

Smucker, former member of the NAACP, will speak on "The Role of the NAACP as Seen by a Social Scientist." The meeting also initiates the membership drive for the 1959-60 school year.

NAACP meetings are open to the public, and all interested students and faculty members are invited to attend in order to become more familiar with the NAACP as a campus organization.

FORMER PRESIDENT Harry Truman receives rare books for Truman Library from Dr. Grayson Kirk of Columbia University. The books deal with Alexander Hamilton, top pre-Democratic party Federalist.

Prof Edits Text - On Social Work

A selection of best literature in community organization is contained in a new book edited by Dr. Ernest Harper, director of the Michigan State University department of social work, and Professor Arthur Dunham of the University of Michigan.

The 400-page volume, titled "Community Organization in Action," required nearly six years to compile, Harper said. More than 100 contributors helped research the material in the field since 1949 for the resulting 75 chapters.

The book is designed for the field as a reference work and text. Initiated by the Association for the Study of Community Organization, now a part of the National Assn. of Social Workers, the collection is being published by Assn. Press of New York.

COLLEGE PUZZLE CONTEST

FOR STUDENTS AND FACULTY MEMBERS

2 GRAND PRIZES

WIN A RAMBLER STATION WAGON!

25 SECOND PRIZES:

COLUMBIA STEREOGRAPHIC HELIFISH
Big Stereo stereo designed for the most exacting taste

100 THIRD PRIZES:

EMERSON TRANSISTOR RADIOS
Packed with power plays 1500 hrs on 1 set of batteries

500 FOURTH PRIZES:

Cartons of America's finest cigarettes

LIGHT UP AND LIVE IT UP! 3 great cigarettes offer you 627 chances to win! So pick your pack—save the six wrappers—and get going! It's crossword puzzle fun and real smoking pleasure all the way!

ENTER OFTEN—HAVE FUN—AND WIN! But think carefully! This puzzle is not as easy as it looks. At first the DOWN and ACROSS clues may appear simple. There may appear to be more than one "right" answer. For example, the clue might read: "Only a coed will be given her best date's P-N." Either "I" (FIN) or "E" (TEN) would seem to fit. But only one answer is apt and logical as decided by the judging staff, and therefore correct. Read the rules carefully. ENTER AS OFTEN AS YOU WISH. Good luck!

RULES—PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

- The College Puzzle Contest is open to college students and college faculty members except employees and their immediate families of Liggett & Myers and its advertising agencies.
- Fill in all missing letters. . . print clearly. Use of checkmarks, initials, variant or foreign words prohibited. After you have completed the puzzle, send it along with six empty package wrappers of the same brand from L&M, Chesterfield or Oasis cigarettes (or one reasonable hand-drawn facsimile of a complete package wrapper of any one of the three brands) to: Liggett & Myers, P. O. Box 271, New York 46, N. Y. Enter as often as you wish, but be sure to enclose six package wrappers (or a facsimile) with each entry. Illegible entries will not be considered.
- Entries must be postmarked by midnight, Friday, May 29, 1959 and received by midnight, Friday, June 5, 1959.
- Entries will be judged by the Bruce-Richards Corporation, an independent judging organization, on the basis of logic and aptness of thought of solutions. In the event of ties, contestants will be required to complete in 25 words or less the following statement: "My favorite cigarette is (Chesterfield, L&M or Oasis) because" Entries will be judged on originality, aptness of thought and interest by the Bruce-Richards Corporation. Duplicate prizes will be awarded in event of final ties. Illegible entries will not be considered. By entering all entrants agree that the decision of the judges shall be final and binding.
- Solutions must be the original work of the contestants submitting them. All entries become the property of Liggett & Myers and none will be returned.
- Winners will be notified by mail as soon as possible after completion of the contest.
- This contest is subject to all Federal, State and local laws and regulations.
