Congress to Probe Payola, Jet Safety

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional inquiries were set up Wednesday into radio-TV payola, jet age airline safety and the law on food additives which set off the cranberry scare last fall. They were announced by Rep. Owen Harris (D-Ark.) as chairman of both the House Legislative Oversight Subcommittee and its parent Commerce Committee.

The food additive hearing was scheduled for Jan. 26. And Harris said the Oversight Subcommittee will begin its long-awaited radio-TV investigation about Feb. 8.

He said the group will go into all phases of payola—under-the-table payment to disc jockeys and others for plugging music and other commodities on the air. Other than indicating that several disc jockeys will be invited to testify, Harris declined to say what witnesses would be called. Nor would he say what other phases of broadcasting would be looked into.

Mark Stevens Surprise Witness to Finch Trial

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The sensational Finch murder trial, recessed Wednesday due to a juror's illness, resumes Monday with a surprise witness: actor Mark Stevens.

He says Dr. R. Bernard Finch's estranged wife told him several days before her death that the tennis-playing surgeon "was going to try to kill her and had tried before."

The wealthy 42-year-old physician and his red-haired mistress, Carole Tregoff, 23, are accused of playing his socialite wife, Barbara, 36, so they could marry. The prosecution says they feared Mrs. Finch would get much of his wealth via a divorce settlement.

Prosecutor Frederick Whitcher did not say why he is calling the dark, handsome Hollywood actor. Stevens told a newsman that he is a member of the swank Los Angeles tennis club, to which the Finches also belonged. He had known them, he said, about four years.

63 Die in Lima Earthquake

LIMA, Peru (AP)—Sixty-three persons were reported killed and 200 injured Wednesday by a savage earthquake in the southern Peru city of Arequipa. Earth shocks were felt in five countries but the only reports of casualties came from Arequipa, a city of 270,000 people. The Lima government dispatched planes and troops to the area with rescue equipment and relief supplies. Reports filtering out over shattered communications said most of the casualties occurred in the Arequipa suburbs of Trillo, Tabaya, San Lazaro and Miraflores—the same areas that were struck by a quake in 1958 which took 28 lives.

A panel discussion, sponsored by the Inter-Co-op Council and the seven men's co-ops at MSU, will take place tonight from 7:30-9:00 at the Student Congress meeting room on the 3rd floor of Student Services.

The purpose of the discussion is to talk over ICC policy as concerned with co-op membership problems and the possibilities of co-op expansion.

The panel will consist of four men, two from co-ops, Tom Bacon, Howland House, and Pat Smith, Motts House, the other two will be Dr. George Mattis, agricultural economics prof, and advisor to the ICC and Louis Hekhuis, assistant to the Dean of men.

The meeting is open to all co-op members, advisors, and members of the administration. Jim Burns, president of the ICC will be the chairman and moderator of the panel.

This meeting will also be in with the co-op rushes which will begin around the first of February.

Anyone interested in more information about the co-ops may call Jim Burns at either extension 3410 or ED 2-3391.

The show, sponsored by Alpha Epsilon Rho, dramatics honorary and Theta Alpha Phi, TV honorary, will be shown March 16.

Says Campus Broadway Critic

Musicals Spark NY Theater

The 1954-55 New York theater season has so far been highlighted by an unusual number of musicals, a nostalgic return to the 1930-40 era for the setting of many new plays and an obvious confusion on the part of playwrights.

These were the opinions offered by Prof. Don Buell of the speech department in his talk, "Broadway at Mid-Season," Wednesday night in the Union. The lecture was sponsored by Union Board's Fine Arts Committee.

Buell said the early months of the traditional Broadway "season," which runs from September through June, have been characterized by fewer than the usual number of outstanding productions. Popular carry-overs from last season and a few well-done musicals have been the brightest spots so far, he said.

Buell cited as the year's top new musical, "The Sound of Music," with music by Richard Rodgers, lyrics by Oscar Hammerstein and starring Mary Martin. He summarized the show as being filled with "ethereal goodness" which failed to impress critics but which became a popular hit with audiences.

The budget is the only controversial issue over the executive branch. "I feel we should know what they are doing with the money we appropriate them," said Rep. Charles Herbert (Lansing).

He listed among the season's most surprising failures, "The Warm Peninsula," starring one of the first ladies of theater, Julie Harris; "A Mighty Man Is He," with Nancy Kelly, which folded rapidly in New York after a preliminary run in Detroit, and "A Loss of Roses," by William Inge, who has had four hits in "Come Back, Little Sheba," "Picnic," "Bus Stop" and "Dark at the Top of the Stairs."

Show stoppers, songs from stage shows which become popular single hits, were a necessary part of a production's success in the days of Irving Berlin, Jerome Kern and Cole Porter, Buell said.

Iowa Greeks Probationed

DES MOINES (AP)—Alleged drinking at a formal holiday dance has led to probationary action against the Drake University chapter of Phi Kappa Alpha social fraternity.

The Times-Delaware, Drake newspaper, said Wednesday that the fraternity was put on probation for a year by the judicial committee of the inter-fraternity council, in which all social fraternities at the university are represented. The chapter also was fined $150.

Faculty adviser on the council is Fred Kramer, assistant dean of men. Kramer said he and Carroll Galbreath, dean of students, were guests at the party. He said they did not want to disrupt the party but asked the judicial committee to investigate.

This indication comes on the heels of a tour of State's programs abroad by Dean Alfred Seelye of the College of Business and Public Service and Dean Glen Taggart of International Programs.

Under requests from the U.S. Government or the countries involved, Michigan State has been asked to:

Another Navy Test Missile Leaves Pad

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy Wednesday reported another successful launching of a Polaris ballistic missile test vehicle from Cape Canaveral, Fla.

The test version of the missile designed for launching from a new class of nuclear powered submarines, left the pad at 5:07 p.m.

The Navy said that the primary objective of the test was "missile performance and control action during powered flight."

Both the launching and the flight were normal and all test objectives appeared to have been met, the Navy reported.

This was the second successful test of a Polaris missile reported within a week and the eighth in the series of test firings of an advanced version of the vehicle with a range of about 900 miles.

The first operational Polaris missiles will be installed in submarines of the George Washington class and will have a scheduled range of up to 1,200 miles.

3rd Medical Center Necessity By 1963

THE RECENT FUROR that has erupted in two Detroit newspapers regarding MSU's proposed medical center has unnecessarily resulted in a good deal of unfavorable publicity for the university.

Since the plans for the center were announced at a December meeting of the Board of Trustees, the Detroit Free Press and Detroit News have been checking their tom-toms and shaking their heads in disapproval of "such wasteful spending" at MSU.

They've loudly and longly proclaimed that this university should have its "hand slapped" for thinking of spending the Michigan taxpayer's money simply for the procurement of some prestige.

This sort of thinking seems to me to be a direct result of a lack of information on their part.

NEITHER NEWSPAPER had a representative at the board meeting in question, nor did either make any attempted inquiry afterwards pertaining to the business of the meeting. Instead, they gained their information from wire reports which gave only a skeleton report of the proceedings. Because of this, some misconceptions resulted.

The primary misconception seems to be that these newspapers almost dogmatically believe that the state's two existing centers should be enlarged before a third one is thought about. Economy was their main reason.

However, had they checked further, they would have found that any future enlargement of this sort will be impossible within four more years. The U of M has admitted that it can expand no further without considerably reducing the quality of its instruction.

REALIZING THIS, the Ann Arbor school suggested a few years ago that Wayne State University be expanded to absorb some of the overflow enrollment.

Now Wayne is reaching its capacity and by 1963 or 1964 expects to be taxed to its limit with no further room for physical expansion. A third medical center, if initiated now, would be ready for operation by then. This is what MSU proposes and has been proposing for the past 10 years.

In terms of dollars, the arguments of some that it will cost a great deal more of the state's money to locate a new center here is almost baseless. The initial cost of the construction could come, for the most part, from outside sources. Proposed funds could be solicited on the grounds that the new center would represent a completely unique approach to medical education that is urgently needed.

The university's position has been one of waiting for the appropriate time for such an understanding. In view of the facts, we feel that the appropriate time is now.

Interpreting the News

J. M. ROBERTS AP News Analyst

President Eisenhower and Anthony Eden gave a different interpretation on what John Foster Dulles was up to six years ago during the critical time of decision on what to do about the Indochina war.

Eden says in his memoirs that only the firm opposition of Britain prevented U.S. military intervention when it appeared that the Communists were about to hand the French a final defeat.

Boos Beards

I haven't any dispute with the quantity or quality of the food in Brody Hall because I do not live there. However I wish that the males on this campus who find it necessary to work in the dorm kitchens would not enter the curriculum of forestry.

It seems that every school year at this time these foresters find it rather chic to sport germ-carrying beards. This is my idea of the lowest possible ebb in the sanitation field. I almost "reflexively" each time I am forced to take my food from one of these lousy tree-carrying foresters.

And as for their Shingling, I certainly would not be present, even if I was asked.

From the British I got the impression that they were very worried. The principles that they urged then were entirely different from those they adopted when they decided to fight for Suez.

There was public speculation that the United States' failure to help the Communists would send members to help the French, and perhaps follow through on the ground if that seemed necessary. The French thought the bombom would do. Eden says that was the Dulles plan.

First Novel Abounds In Cliche Characters

By Sue Kaufman

"The Happy Summer Days," a first novel, deals with the summer of a disturbed teenage girl babysitting for an 'arty' set who inhabit a summer island.

Kathy Albert loves her father, but much and boys too little. She comes from a broken home and has no knowledge of friendship. She knows only how to manipulate and use people deviously.

The novel's chief weakness is that its characters have been met too often in slick fiction. Miss Kaufman has picked her own cliches: sex-starved divorcee, wife's old flame, straying husband, sex perverts, and is unable to work through them.

Although the author's summer vision is a wry one, she bravely pushes off situations, leaving confusion with the reader.

De Gaulle Drops Policy Critic

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle Wednesday dropped Antoine Pinay as finance minister rather than let him exercise a veto over Gaullist economic policy.

A conservative who revived an ailing French economy, Pinay has quarreled with Premier Michel Debre and some of his ministers, insisting they were moving toward the left the economic policy Pinay founded. In Pinay's stead, De Gaulle named Wilfrid Baumgartner, 57, governor of the Bank of France and a financial wizard in his own right. Baumgartner's financial orthodoxy equals Pinay's, but he is considered somewhat more flexible.

The switch followed days of political suspense which wobbled the stock market as vain efforts were made to have Pinay

Khrushchev Moves Man Far-Away

MOSCOW (AP)—Alexei Kirichenko, one of Premier Nikita Khrushchev's proteges, was moved out of the political world of Moscow Wednesday to a small-town job as Communist party chief in the Rostov-Don region.

The appointment to this post was made under circumstances that convinced foreign observers here his bright days as a member of the party presidium of the Soviet Union were eclipsed if only temporarily.

He could have been sent in as a troubleshooter, although official notices gave no hint of this.

The transfer was announced in such an icy manner that observers could only speculate that this man, often mentioned abroad as heir apparent to Khrushchev, had been sharply downgraded.

It could prove the most dramatic downgrading from top political circles in Moscow since Premier Georgi Malenkov, and Foreign Ministers Dmitri Shepilov and Vyacheslav Molotov were sent to far away jobs in 1937 after challenging Khrushchev's policies.

In the official Tass agency announcement of Kirichenko's appointment, he was not referred to as a member of the presidium. This immediately developed speculation that he had been bounced from the presidium.

Just what precipitated Kirichenko's transfer to a lowly post in the Don Basin is difficult to surmise.

He has been one of Khrushchev's favorites for a long time. Before coming to the presidium he was first secretary of the Communist party of the Ukraine, Khrushchev's old job.

It is a vast change from the post of the presidium whose voice determines the whole national policy.

patch his quarrel with Debre and the cabinet's Gaullists.

No one was particularly happy with the way it all ended, but Debre saw his authority firmly upheld by the President. Pinay said he is quitting political life. He is a former premier.

Baumgartner, protesting he has no political experience, promised he will do his utmost to work for continuance of financial recovery.

"It is guided by duty alone that I have just accepted the task," he told reporters.

The whole story was obviously highly displeasing to De Gaulle. An Elisee Palace communique said the decision had been taken "for reasons concerning the interior working of the government." It went on:

"Gen. De Gaulle expressed to M. Antoine Pinay his full appreciation of the results obtained in the policy of financial balance, freedom of exchanges and monetary stability adopted in 1958 to assure a solid basis for economic development and social progress, and applied with success. This policy will be continued."

Ike Remains Active After Tour

WASHINGTON (AP)—When our leading tourist, D. D. Eisenhower, left on his long whirlwind journey last month, there was considerable concern over whether his health could stand the strain.

Three serious illnesses — 69 years old — a trip that might wreck a young man.

Well, Wednesday the President held his first news conference since Dec. 2 and though he has made formal appearances in that time, here was a chance to watch him give and take.

Maybe this gadding about is good for him. Maybe he needed a vacation from direct contact with the newsmen.

Anyway, he seemed livelier than usual. He even lost his temper—in just the right way. The temper showed up during a question by Sarah McClendon, who writes for a number of papers, including several in Texas, and whose questioning has nettled the President before.

She was asking about defense matters and whether politics played a part in the decisions. When Eisenhower cut in with: "Are you asking a question or making a speech?" Mrs. McClendon said she was asking a question.

THIS IS A COPY of one of the cartoon posters linking West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and two of his co-workers with anti-Semitic demonstrations and with Hitlerism. West Berlin police arrested two men for putting up the posters. Cartoons depict Adenauer weeping into a swastika handkerchief, and shows Hans Globke, one of his close advisers, and Refugee Minister Oberlander reaching from his pockets to paint swastikas and slogan "Jews Get Out." Arrests were mounting in the area as wave of anti-Semitic incidents spread Jan. 12.

asking a question. "Okay," Eisenhower said. He grinned as he said it, but as far back as you could see his neck, it was bright red.

When the question was completed, Eisenhower launched into a scolding defense. Said he didn't like the implied suggestion that he was playing politics with national defense. Said he had spent his life in this business. Said he knew more about it than anybody. At times, he was groping for words but even then he groped forcefully.

But Eisenhower's flareup did work a disservice on those who sat on Mrs. McClendon's side of the room. Normally Eisenhower takes questions from one side, then switches to the other.

U.S.'s Top Negro Aide In Court

NEW YORK (AP)—Manhattan Borough President Hulan Jack, highest Negro holder of municipal office in the nation, was indicted Wednesday in connection with a loan he accepted from a man doing business with the city. He promptly pleaded innocent to any conflict of interest deal.

Jack immediately suspended himself from his $25,000 a year post, and said he would not draw any salary or perform any official duties until the case has been decided in court.

Mayor Robert Wagner withheld any immediate comment on the worst scandal to hit his seven-year-old democratic administration.

In Albany, Republican Governor Nelson Rockefeller said only, "I'm just sad about it."

Rocketteller called for a copy of the indictment and of the grand jury minutes, and asked Wagner to come to Albany to discuss the case.

A Manhattan grand jury accused Jack, a Democrat, of conspiracy and violation of the city charter through acceptance of a $4,400 remodeling job on his Harlem apartment from his white one-time campaign manager, a realtor doing business with the city.

Jack claimed he received the money as a legitimate loan.

Home Demonstrators Meet To Learn Traffic Safety

National and state leaders of Home Demonstration Councils and Co-operative Extension Services gathered at MSU Wednesday to learn what women can do for traffic safety.

As delegates to the first national safety conference called by the National Home Demonstration Council, they represent an advance guard of an army of 10,000 women who are making traffic safety their major project for 1960 and upcoming years.

Some forty states are represented at the conference, which is financed by a grant of $20,000 from the Allstate Foundation of Skokie, Ill. Each state was invited to send the leader of its home economics extension program and the safety chairman of the state home demonstration council to the three-day conference which constitutes a school of traffic safety instruction.

Appointments Urged by Gov.

LANSING (AP)—Appointment of a new officer in state government to work at the capitol for the cities, townships and counties was urged Wednesday by Gov. Williams.

Williams told the Michigan Townships Assn. he would include the recommendation in his message to the Legislature.

The officer would work out of the executive office, the Governor said. He described the post as "a practical-minded friend of the courts" for the local communities.

Continuation and irritation frequently result in business dealings between the state and local governments because there is no one to coordinate the complex strands of interest, Williams said.

Asian Flu Strikes Again

LANSING (AP)—Several cases of Asian flu have been confirmed in Michigan, the State Health Department said Wednesday.

Three cases were confirmed in Detroit where more than the usual absenteeism were reported in schools and industrial plants.

Higher absenteeism because of a flu-type ailment also were reported from Flint and Saginaw. "At the moment it is nothing alarming," said Dr. Albert Heustis, state health commissioner. "There is a lot of flu and disease of the upper respiratory tract around, however."

"Asian" flu is nothing more dangerous than any other kind of flu, Heustis added. "It's just the name that is alarming."

Dr. F. S. Leeder, director of the department's bureau of disease control, said he thought any outbreak would be milder than in 1957 — the last year Michigan was hit by the disease. Absenteeism hit as high as 60 percent in some schools when the flu swept through the state starting in early fall.

"Those who had it in 1957 shouldn't get it again," Leeder said. He said the health department was making no recommendation for wholesale inoculations such as were urged in 1957.

AP Chooses Syracuse '11' Team of 1959

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Syracuse's national college football champions, who scored 413 points in an 11-0 season that included a Cotton Bowl victory, Wednesday were named Team of the Year for 1959 in the annual AP poll.

The Orange from upstate New York edged Baltimore's National Football League titleholders and the Los Angeles Dodgers, World Series winners, in the balloting by 114 sportswriters and broadcasters.

Syracuse, which put the East back on the football map, had trouble only with Penn State, finally defeating the Nittany Lions by two points. In the New Year's Day Cotton Bowl, The Orange beat gritty Texas 23-14.

The Colts came back strong to defend successfully their NFL laurels. They won only four of their first seven games, then rebounded to win the Western Conference title.

Over Cannon LA Promises Fight to End

NEW YORK (AP)—"Our skirts are clean in the Cannon case," General Manager Pete Rozelle of the Los Angeles Rams insisted Wednesday. "We'll fight this thing to the end," he insisted. The West Coast executive said he was disturbed by Houston charges that the Rams had violated a National Football League rule and hold an illegal contract for the services of Billy Cannon, Louisiana State's all-America halfback.

"We have precedent and the word of our league commissioner to back us up," Rozelle said. "We're satisfied to let the courts decide the issue."

The Rams claim title to Cannon on the grounds they signed him to a written contract Nov. 20, a month before the Sugar Bowl game, and gave the athlete a $10,000 binding check (later returned, un cashed).

Cannon now has announced he plans to play for the Houston entry in the new American Football League. He contends his contract with the Rams is invalid.

The Rams have brought suit in a Los Angeles court, seeking (1) to prove the validity of their contract; (2) to restrain Cannon from playing football for any other team.

Lions Return $1,000 Fine To FB John Henry Johnson
DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Lions have returned a $1,000 fine to John Henry Johnson.

President General Manager Edwin Anderson said the fine, levied after Johnson missed the team plane back from the West Coast and consequently failed to show at a Monday practice, was returned "under threat of litigation."

Johnson appealed to Creighton Miller, attorney for the Players' Association, and Miller got

In Substitute Rule NCAA Rules Committee Goes Only Part of Way

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The NCAA Rules Committee assured this Wednesday by revising the substitution rule so that one substitute from each team may enter a game at any time, whether or not the clock is running and regardless of whether he had been charged with two appearances in any one quarter before.

That was the compromise devised by the rules makers between the unlimited substitution advocated by a majority of the coaches and a status quo situation urged by the NCAA.

The vote of the 13 eligible members was unanimous, or nearly so, said Gen. Robert Neyland of Tennessee, committee chairman. Neyland would have voted only if there was a tie.

The action was negative on two other rules that had been discussed at length. It was voted to keep the goal posts where they have been, 10 yards behind the goal line, and to retain the one or two-point option on conversions that was instituted last year.

Munn Says 'I've Always Been Double Platoon Man'
The NCAA rules committee didn't go far enough, frowned Michigan State athletic director Biggie Munn, commenting on the football rule innovations announced Wednesday.

"I've always been a two-platoon man," Munn said. He explained he likes the dual-system because it allows more men to play. Young men should have the opportunity to play, he said.

As an example, Munn pointed out that in 1952 with free substitution 44 men lettered in football. The average since the restriction has been 32.

The athletic director expressed disappointment that the committee didn't solve the time consuming sign-in problem.

Duffy Warns—Watch Waistlines
Michigan State's football players were warned that football practice is just three months away and to start watching their waistlines at a meeting with Coach Duffy Daugherty Monday at the football offices.

The coach pointed out that Spartans were a better team last fall because they were in condition. After a weighing session Daugherty prescribed a weight for each varsity player to reach by spring practice.

At the meeting Daugherty urged the players to do a good job academically.

For Cagers Illinois Poses As Roadblock

The Spartan cagers will be attempting to redeem themselves Saturday night when they meet Illinois at Champaign.

The State squad will carry a 2-1 won-lost record into their second consecutive away game. The Illinois also have a 2-1 record since they dropped Purdue Monday night.

The big guns, so far as points go, for the Illinois squad are Capt. Mannie Jackson, 6-2½ at guard and Governor Vaughn, 6-3½ at forward.

Coach Harry Combes has six other players to choose the rest of his starters from. They include: John Wessels, 6-7, and Vern Altmeyer, 6-8, at center; Al Gosnell, 6-3, and Ed Perry, 6-5, at the forward slot; and Gerald Colangelo, 6-2 and Lou Landt, 6-2 at the other guard post.

As in the Iowa game, Horace Walker, center, Lance Olson, forward and Dave Fahs at guard will be carrying the work load of the game.

'Greatest Player' Tab to Walker From Coach Forddy Anderson
Spartan basketball fans still talk about the phenomenal feats performed last season by jumping-jack center Johnny Green, former all-American and now professional rebounder with the New York Knickerbockers in the NBA.

But there is a member of the 1960 Michigan State cage team that is toning down the Green memories. He is Horace Walker.

MSU basketball coach Forddy Anderson has said, "Pound for pound and inch for inch, Walker is just as good a ballplayer as Green." That was after the Michigan romp last Saturday.

Following the Iowa loss Monday, Anderson this time exclaimed, "Horace Walker is the greatest player I have ever coached."

"He has the greatest hands I've ever seen—strong, quick, and with a feather touch to his shots," Anderson explains. "He can play anywhere—pivot, which he did in high school and now does for us, corner or back court. Walker is as good on defense as on offense."

That is strong praise coming from a man who is rated one of the best basketball coaches in the country.

Walker has done much to receive this praise, though. His performances rank in the top in the Western Conference and he was the lone Spartan to come through with a top-notch performance in the 92-79 clobbering State suffered at Iowa.

The 6'3" center's 29 points Monday helped to boost him to the second notch in conference scoring. He has 82 points in three games for a 27.3 per game average.

His season total is 172 points.

Walker, mainstay of the team's rebounding crew, leads in individual rebounds in the Big 10 with 19 per game. He has 57 rebounds while the rest of the team has 105 in three conference games.

The Spartan co-captain has made 24 of his 63 field goal attempts and has hit on 14 of 22 charity shots.

Hailing from Chester, Pa., the senior was an all-state pick.

Walker is wedged between two sensational sophomores in the scoring race, Terry Dischinger of Purdue who leads with a 34.3 average and Jerry Lucas of Ohio State in third scoring at 25.5 points a game.

Lance Olson ranks 10th in scoring and Dave Fahs 18th. They have a 17, and a 15.3 average respectively.

Teamwise Anderson's midgets are fourth in scoring racking up 259 points. Indiana, Wisconsin and Iowa have more points, but they have played four games to State's three.

Ted Williams Contract Talks in Boston Soon
MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Ted Williams told the Herald Wednesday he was going to Boston in a few days to talk over his physical ailments and a Boston Red Sox contract he said he recently received.

"I honestly don't know whether I'll sign," Herald sports editor Jimmy Burns quoted the power-hitting outfielder as saying. "I'll talk to (general manager) Bucky Harris and have some consultation about my neck and shoulder. The pain still bothers me occasionally."

Lansing High Schools Stock MSU's Mat Team Supplies

Michigan State's wrestling forces annually depend on the Lansing area for support. This year is no exception. Of the 17 home squad eight are home town products.

The year's Spartans who hail from Michigan's capital city and the high school they attended are John Baum (Eastern), Ben Brown (Sexton), Doug Millman (Frederic), Mike Senzig (Eastern), Roger Tavenner (Eastern), Bob Weber (Eastern), Duane Wohlert (Sexton), and Norman Young (Sexton).

According to State assistant coach Gale Mikles, some of the best high school wrestling in the state takes place in Lansing.

The high school coaches in the area are right at the top," commented Mikles. "Fortunately, because of our location we get a lot of them."

Young, a junior, heads the list last season while a sophomore won the Big 10 championship in the 130 lb. division. This year he has been moved up to the 137 lb. class.

thus allowing teammate Bill Gucciaro to take over his former position in a move designed to strengthen the team overall.

Heavyweight Baum is another outstanding member of the group. Only a junior, he has proved to possess deft wrestling ability. According to Mikles, he should be one of the better league grapplers in his division.

Currently Senzig has been working out regularly with the squad, but due to academic troubles he hasn't been able to participate in a match yet. He is expected to run out his difficulties and be ready to go by next week. It is felt that with everything else out of the way he will step into the starting spot as a 175 pounder, replacing

Cincinnati Rocks Around St. Louis

CINCINNATI (AP)—The University of Cincinnati's top-ranked unbeaten Bearcats broke loose from St. Louis' possession of the Big 10 title in the last half Wednesday night to whip the Billions 79-57, with Oscar Robertson getting 27 points.

It was the 13th straight victory for Cincinnati.

Cincinnati had only a 26-21 lead in the tightly played first half but the Bearcats got their first break offense into gear in the final period and gradually pulled away.

Bob McDermann wound up as St. Louis' high scorer with 19 points.

St. Louis was ranked No. 11 in the nation going into the contest.

Wings Beaten: Howe Scores

CHICAGO (AP)—Gordon Howe of Detroit scored a goal to tie Maurice Richard for the all-time National Hockey League scoring leadership Wednesday night, but the Chicago Black Hawks clipped the Red Wings, 3-2.

Howe's marker, the 436th of his career, ran his point total for regular season games to 943. Richard's total includes 331 goals.

The victory, Chicago's second over the Wings this year, moved the Hawks to within a point of fourth place Boston.

Chicago's Bobby Hull scored Chicago's final goal in the last period to move within a point of Boston's Bronco Horvath for the league scoring leadership.

Detroit rookie Bryan Smith hit his first major league goal early in the first frame to start the scoring, but Ed Litzenberger tally late in the frame pulled the Hawks even.

Chicago added three quick goals in the first five minutes of the second frame.

MSU-U of M Home and Home Favorites 'Skate' on Other Foot

By MIKE PATTON

Michigan State pucksters take to the ice this weekend in a home and home series with the University of Michigan.

The game Friday will be State's first defense of the Big 10 title which they won last year with a 3-2-1 won-lost record. Michigan was in last place with a 2-6 record.

The rules of the two teams will be reversed this year. The Spartans will be out to improve on their dismal start, while the Wolverines will be putting an experienced team on the ice.

Coach Arno Besson's Spartans will be sporting a 1-8-1 mark going into the series. They are, however, a much improved club. In last weekend's series with North Dakota, they looked more like a team than they had in their previous home games against Colorado.

Players who became eligible winter term furnished the spark and the goals that give State their first win in 10 starts. Claude Fournel and Real Turcotte teamed up with veteran Terry Moroney to give the team a second line that is as good as the starting line.

Both Turcotte and Fournel played on the Memorial Cup champion Ottawa-Hull Canadiens in 1957-58. The Memorial Cup is to Canadian junior hockey as the Stanley Cup is to the National Hockey League.

In addition to the two top lines, Besson has an adequate third line and defense. Ed Ozyrko, Bob Norman and Mel Christofferson are all steady at the blue line. Jack Feste, who appeared in his first home game last weekend, played a hustling, hard-checking game.

In Eldon Van Spybrooke, Besson has a goalie as good as any in the league. While letting in an average of 57 goals per game, Van Spybrooke has stopped 319 shots. He is steady under fire and seldom loses sight of the puck.

Michigan will see a strong squad of veterans that knocked the props from under a high flying Michigan Tech squad by taking both games in their series last weekend. The two wins put Michigan in first place in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association with a 3-1 league record.

Coach Al Rentrew has nine lettermen on this year's team. Coupled with this, the Wolverines have a successful year in the East under their belts. While the Wolverines haven't had as many games as the Spartans, they still will have plenty of game experience.

Pistons Win At Old Home

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—The Detroit Pistons came back to their old home town Wednesday night and shaded the New York Knickerbockers, 114-113, to end a five-game National Basketball Assn. losing streak.

After trailing 110-104, the Knicks pulled within a point at 112-111 with 25 seconds left.

Gene Shue, who played the full 48 minutes, led Detroit with 29, and Bailey Howell added 23 for the winners.

BOSTON (AP)—The ailing Boston Celtics, playing the second half without Bob Cousy and Bill Russell, crushed St. Louis 124-112 Wednesday night to maintain a two and a half game lead in the NBA Eastern Division.

Philadelphia, the Celtics' challengers in the division, nipped Syracuse 132-131 in the opener of the doubleheader.

'57 Apalachin Rendezvous Ends With Jail Sentences

NEW YORK (AP) — Twenty underworld delegates to the Apalachin convention of 1957 were sentenced Wednesday to prison terms ranging from three to a maximum of five years. The judge said their backgrounds and shady activities constituted "a tale of horrors."

The defendants were described in court as two-faced—outwardly respectable businessmen, active in charitable and civic projects, but actually criminal leaders or fronts for underworld kingpins.

One of the 20, John Montana, is a former Buffalo, N.Y., city councilman and one-time "Man of the Year" in that city. He got four years.

Eleven of the defendants got the maximum five years plus a fine of $10,000 each. Four got five years with no fines. Two got four years and fines of $10,000 each. Two got a straight four years. One drew three years.

It was one of the stiffest mass blows ever delivered by the government against the membership of the organized criminal syndicate in this country.

None of the defendants, convicted Dec. 18 by a federal district court jury, was immediately put behind bars. Instead, they were allowed to remain free on bail while they appeal their convictions.

The appeal is expected to test a facet of the Federal Conspiracy Law under which the men were convicted. The government has hailed it as a new, potent weapon against the underworld.

The 20 were convicted of defying the law by conspiring to conceal the purpose of their gathering in 1957 at the upstate New York home of Joseph Barbara Sr. The government claim-

Claim Pilots Fight FAA Efforts

WASHINGTON (AP) — E. R. Quesada, federal aviation agency administrator, told investigating senators Wednesday "a small hard core" of airline pilots is fighting his efforts to make aviation safer.

He said the pilots have raised baseless allegations of Gestapo type spying in efforts to discredit parts of the safety program with which FAA is trying to combat the soaring rate of commercial aircraft disasters.

The number of deaths in air crashes last year—294—was the highest in the history of the commercial air lines.

Quesada made his angry allegations at a hearing before the Senate aviation subcommittee.

The subcommittee chairman, Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla.), told the FAA chief the agency should "get plenty tough" with airports which fail or refuse to install adequate safety equipment. Quesada said he agreed.

MIAMI MANUFACTURER Emanuel Röss says he's not worried about stock of 100,000 Rocketeer buttons. He says they can be stored for 1964.

Guitar Player to Run; Ike's Brother Refuses

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — A guitar-playing TV cowboy singer Wednesday launched a well-publicized bid to become President of the United States while a brother of President Eisenhower announced he is not a candidate "under any circumstances."

Elton Britt, 41-year-old Danvers, Md., stage and screen star, entered the democratic preference poll in New Hampshire's March 2 presidential primary. Britt said he'll stump the state with a ten-piece hill-billy band.

Dr. Milton Eisenhower, president of Johns Hopkins University, attempted unsuccessfully to prevent his name from being used in the nation's first presidential primary.

Officials said a candidate for a Republican national convention seat cannot be barred from running as favorable as the nomination of the President's brother.

Meanwhile, the name of United Nations Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge was injected into the New Hampshire primary as a possible Republican running
