AUSG Candidates Speak

By DAN REIDEL

In a precedent-setting campaign movement, I have requested a review of my platform. I frankly confess that when I received word of the deadline some three hours prior to press time, I had singularly prepared for two other exchanges with my opponent. This presents excellent opportunity to second guess and call down each plank in his platform. This opportunity will not be exploited by me on this or any other occasion.

I am opposing the controlling cliques that have taken over the rule of every well-known organization on campus. I have been approached by certain of these organizations which assured me the presidency of the senior class if I would not enter the AUSG Presidential race.

The latter is what irrevocably prompted my final decision to ask to represent you with a student-represented and oriented government. Steps taken by organizations such as Bryan Hall this last year in exhibiting school spirit are sure fire indicators that apathy exists only in the highest governing bodies on this campus.

For Students by Students
Promotion of better understanding problems on the part of the administrative departments is obviously needed and necessary for the establishment of a foundation upon which increased student control can be built and expanded.

More authority for student judiciary on the initial level is the first step indicated.

An awareness of the facilities offered by the Placement Bureau needs to be increased. I would like to see a committee formed which would work as an agency of AUSG which would make available to all undergraduate students the benefits of the Placement Bureau, thus making the student aware of where he should be developing in respect to his aims and desires from the standpoint of the employer.

I have it on good authority that due regulations changes are being for the 60-61 academic year. It is my intention to form a committee to reduce the red tape that has impeded the tempo of such progress in the past.

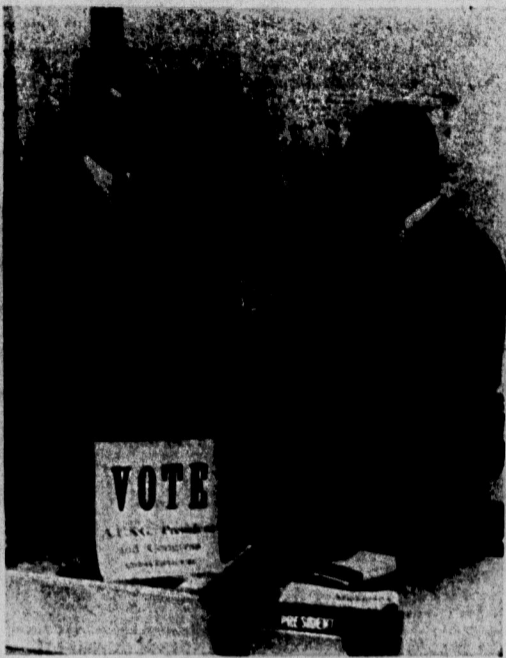

Selection of Members
As I intimated previously, I am opposed to the criterion upon which several organizations on campus select their members. In my opinion, selection of members for any organization should be based primarily upon ability and leadership potential, not on "who you know" or connections. A re-evaluation of this present condition is vital.

Class Controversy
The deluge of criticism recently aimed at the institution of class officers does not deserve the censorship it has received. Instead, criticism should be directed at the lack of cooperation and coordination between the classes, which is not a result of officer-shortcomings, but rather the system itself. Revision of class government, not abolishment of it, is the obvious way.

Whether the officer system remains or an alternative class council for each class is instituted as I recommended, is not the vital issue; class government is only a part of All-University government. I advocate the establishment of periodic joint meetings of class government with all-University officers to discuss common problem areas. Along with this line of thinking, the feasibility of an assembly comprised of the executive officers of all major university organizations would be a worthwhile development.

The responsibility of AUSG or that of bringing Student Government to the students so that it is controlled by them has been almost entirely ignored. AUSG, as it now exists, is too narrowly conceived. Its importance as the voice of the entire university population has been misused and under-developed for a university of this size. The progress of MSU has been stalled at the point where physically MSU remains a giant, but governmentally it is still in the awkward adolescent stage.

It is my goal to delve into those matters of practical concern to the student body and not into idealistic theoretical issues. Student Government must consider student issues on a positive and increasingly more democratic level.

U. S. Gets New Blast By Castro

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. government Tuesday came its closest yet to branding Fidel Castro a dictator.

The sharp words came from the state department after officials here were stung by the Cuban premier's latest blast in his series of attacks on Uncle Sam.

This time Castro publicly declared he saw some similarity between U. S. policy and those of Hitler, Mussolini and Spain's Generalissimo Francisco Franco.

State department press officer Lincoln White denounced this as "another of the baseless remarks which the Cuban prime minister makes from time to time from reasons best known to himself."

The U.S. spokesman noted that the United States had gone to war against Hitler and Mussolini in world war II. He said America now considers international communism a real threat to democracy and hopes that Castro and the Cuban people will come to realize this.

"If comparisons must be made," White said, "one of the principal hallmarks of a dictatorship such as that of Hitler and Mussolini was the muzzling of a free press."

"It is difficult to understand how the Prime Minister can make such references when 95 per cent of the Cuban press is under government control."

Earlier, Washington had denied another allegation which was tossed out by Castro Monday, Castro had charged that officials at the U. S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, were helping anti-Castro rebels.

Lorrie Oetke, Detroit special student, and Norma Smith, Detroit, are the candidates for Senior treasurer.

Junior President candidates are John Barkham, Los Altos, and Pete MacPherson, E. Lansing, while the Vice-President candidates are Bill Myers, Hastings, and Nancy Schurberg, Placida, Fla.

Competing for Junior secretary are Anne Berg, Grand Rapids, and Jane Collins, Greensburg, Ky.

Sue Dhooze, Grosse Pointe; Pat Graff, Flint, and Karen Kraus, Lansing, are all up for treasurer of the Junior class.

In the sophomore class elections, Fred Sutton, Western Springs, Ill., and Bob Andringa, Wayland, are running for president.

Thomas Laverly, Drayton Plains, and Fredrick Tasker, Lake Odessa, are competing in the sophomore vice presidential elections.

Rae Ann Kubin, Detroit; Pat Girvin, Kirkwood, Mont.; and Diane Luchman, Northville, are candidates for sophomore secretary while Michael Barbour, Lansing; Hargie Vaughan, Salem, Ohio, and Janet Van Conant, Inlay City, are running for treasurer.

Verdureau, the town industrialist, is the prospective buyer of the house and during the course of an argument over the price, Mme Lebidou has a nervous fit.

Convinced that the old lady cannot possibly live much longer, Verdureau agrees to her demands.

WILLIAM McMAHAN (l.) as Verdureau and Robert Kobel as M. Verdureau look on as Linda Hoover (Mme Lebidou) signs the deed of sale for her house.

Rhee in Trouble as Mobs Battle Troops in Seoul

U. S. Calls Measures 'Excessive'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Christian Herter charged the South Korean government Tuesday with adopting "repressive measures unsuited to a free democracy."

He called on President Syngman Rhee's government to take necessary and effective action to protect democratic rights, including freedom of speech, assembly and the press.

Herter, summoning Ambassador You Chan Yang to his office, also called for an end to what he described as "unfair discrimination against political opponents" of the regime.

The State Department made known Herter's strongly-worded comments a few moments after the ambassador ended his 30-minute visit.

In an unusual step, Herter made public to newsmen what he called "the profound and growing concern of this government over the serious, continuing public unrest and acts of violence in Korea."

Ambassador Yang had told newsmen on leaving the State Department that Herter considered the police measure in Seoul "excessively repressive."

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower was briefed Tuesday on rioting and imposition of martial law in Korea.

White House officials were making no surmises as to whether continued trouble there would alter Eisenhower's arrangements to visit Seoul June 22 after touring Russia and seeing some of Japan.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The internal troubles of South Korea are causing no danger to the forces-guarding the border with communist North Korea, military men here believe.

Two divisions of U.S. Army troops are deployed on the border, along with the ground forces of the Republic of (South) Korea (ROK).

The United Nations agreement under which the U.S. and South Korean troops operate assigns full control of troops of both countries in the border area to the UN Commander, Gen. Carter Magruder.

The ROK forces represent about 90 percent of the total strength.

None of them could be pulled out of the line to assist in the Korean government's attempt to end mob action in several of South Korea's big cities without permission from Magruder.

Ralph Goldman, associate professor of political science and specialist in U.S. party politics and opinion research, will speak Thursday on the influence of foreign affairs on the 1960 conventions and campaigns.

Goldman's talk, in 32 Union at 7:30, is sponsored by Delta Phi Epsilon, the foreign service professional fraternity.

The subjects Goldman plans to cover include his analysis of the real forces which will operate at the conventions this summer, who the nominees will be, and what influence international questions and events will have on and during the campaigns.

Goldman is director of the American Politics Graduate Training Program on campus.

He served as consultant to the Democratic National committee during the 1952 campaign, and for four years as research associate with the Brookings Institution of Washington, D.C., an organization devoted to research, education, and publication in the social sciences.

Dr. Goldman's current study recommends better preparation for party conventions, and more representative allotment of positions on party committees as well as at the conventions.

Abba Lerner

Dr. Lerner Slates Series Of Lectures

Dr. Abba Lerner, professor of Economics, will present three lectures this week in the Union.

Lerner will speak on "The Economic Aspects of Civil Rights" tonight at 7:30 p.m. The lecture is sponsored by the Union Board Forum Committee.

"The Hydrogen Bomb and Peace" will be the topic of two related lectures to be presented by Lerner Thursday and Monday at 8 p.m. In the lectures Lerner will offer a proposal for preventing nuclear war and ending all wars, discussing and elaborating on ideas originally developed by Dr. Leo Szilard in a series of articles in the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists.

Szilard was one of the developers of the atom bomb, and was instrumental in acquainting President Roosevelt with the possibilities of developing and using such a bomb.

Lerner is a distinguished professor and author. Before coming to MSU he served as a professor of economics at New York School for Social Research, and at Roosevelt University, Chicago. His books include "Essays in Economic Analysis," and "The Economics of Employment."

Sun Power Planned For Space Generator

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced a project Tuesday for the development of a sun-powered electrical generator to be used on space craft.

NASA said the system would be designed to generate 3,000 watts of electrical power continually for at least a year by drawing energy from the sun.

Proclaims Martial Law in City

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Army tanks and truckloads of troops moved on the north-eastern suburbs of Seoul Wednesday where hundreds of armed students and civilians still defied the government of President Syngman Rhee.

Rhee's government proclaimed wartime martial law on the capital and four other major cities Tuesday night after a bloody day of near revolution in which about 100,000 students and townspeople clashed with police.

The clashes, facing the tough-minded, 83-year-old Rhee with his gravest crisis since the Korean war, were sparked by protests over alleged frauds and strong-arm tactics in the March 13 presidential elections which Rhee's Liberal Party won.

Reports that 81 persons were killed and up to 300 wounded in Tuesday's street battling brought rebukes from the United States.

The government listed 21 dead in fighting before Rhee's palace, but unconfirmed reports said the death toll was near 80, with up to 250 wounded.

Censorship blanketed out spaces in this morning's newspapers where casualty figures would have appeared.

Heavily armed soldiers, called into the capital late Tuesday, guarded key buildings in downtown Seoul where mobs virtually ruled for a time.

Peace of a sort prevailed in the central sections where near revolution had rocked the city and nation.

The troops quickly cleared the streets. The soldiers moved firmly against crowds and frequently fired into the air but there were no reports of clashes between troops and demonstrators.

"Emergency Martial Law" — meaning military rule under wartime conditions — was invoked to meet a swelling tidal wave of public protests growing out of March 13 polling which re-elected Rhee — this country's "George Washington" — and First President.

Seoul, Pusan, Taegu, Taejon and Kwangju were under martial law, and the capital for a time seemed almost in a state of anarchy. The army imposed censorship on Korean newspapers.

Almost like a capital at war, Seoul was in a state of riotous turmoil.

U. S. Ambassador Walter McCaughy personally urged Rhee to "take into account the basic causes and grievances" of the demonstrators.

The statement did not elaborate on the "causes and grievances," but obviously referred to election complaints which have caused a series of bitter protest demonstrations ever since mid-March. The statement was an unusually strong one, and marked the first time the U.S. government publicly acknowledged justification behind the demonstrators' complaints.

Nehru Cool With Chou At Meeting

NEW DELHI (CP) — Red China's Chou En-Lai, looking plump and stolid, arrived here Tuesday for talks on the bitter boundary dispute with India. He was promptly told by Prime Minister Nehru that India's relations with communist China "have been imperiled for the present and future."

This declaration, voiced shortly after the Red Chinese premier stepped from an Indian air force plane, set the tone for one of the toughest speeches Nehru has ever made to a visiting dignitary.

The usually affable Nehru wore a tight smile as he told Chou:

"When your excellency came here three years ago as the representative of a great people conveying your greetings and good wishes to our people, we reciprocated in full.

"Unfortunately, other events have taken place since then which have put a great strain on this bond of friendship and which have given a shock to all our people."

Nehru left no doubts that the "events" were last year's border clashes with Chinese troops. A dozen Indians were killed as poaching was enforced. His claim to 51,000 square miles of mountain territory.

Nehru's strong words, and the unusually chilly reception, had Chou grim-faced. But the communist leader read off a prepared speech voicing friendship between India and China and hopes for settling the border crisis. Such a settlement, he added, should be reached in accordance with the principles of coexistence.

On his three-nation tour Chou has been trying to rebuild Red China's image as a peaceful neighbor. This was shattered by communist suppression of last year's revolt in Tibet.

But his smiling demeanor in Burma, where he even got into water fights with holidaying Burmese last week, was in marked contrast to the way he looked here.

Chou, whose seven-day visit is strongly opposed by all opposition parties but the communists, appeared a bit apprehensive as he descended from the plane that brought him from Rangoon.

Only a few hundred persons witnessed the arrival. Several thousand stood along the roadside, where security guards were posted, as the auto sped by. There were no cheers.

The chilly prelude was continued as he began today negotiating the 2,300-mile border between India and communist-controlled areas including Tibet. Chou has declared the entire border area is vague and must be defined by negotiations. Nehru maintains that the border is well defined by history, tradition and usage and therefore only minor adjustments can be considered.

Few Indians look for a final settlement to emerge from the talks.

They will participate in the organized conventions of the Hellenic women and Inter-Fraternity Council men who gather each year to discuss the projects and problems of the "Grecs" on the modern campus.

Each school will bring a project reflecting some aspect of fraternity life on their campus. These will tie in with the speaker's themes of "The Role of the Greek in His University" and "Growth of the Greek System on Expanding American Campuses." These activities, plus discussion groups, a banquet

Urquidi Talks On Sino-Russ Relationships

Donald Urquidi, political science instructor and specialist in international communism, will speak Thursday at 4 p.m. in 24 Union, on the background and prospects for relations between Russia and China.

His talk, sponsored by the International Relations Club, will cover the history of the Sino-Soviet alliance since the signing of their 1950 pact, influences for unity or a split of the bloc, and pertinent U.S. policy considerations.

Urquidi, newly elected faculty advisor to Delta Phi Epsilon, the foreign service professional fraternity, accompanied the university delegation to the University Model UN at Montreal last February.

Urquidi was a Fulbright scholar at the University of Rome, where he began work on the doctoral dissertation he is now completing on the history of the Italian Communist party and its relations with the Soviet Union.

Besides teaching a year at the University of Miami, Urquidi has worked with the Council on Foreign Relations and the Foreign Policy Association in New York, and with Radio Free Europe.

During his first year at MSU, he has taught international relations, comparative government, U.S. Far Eastern policy, and international communism.

and a panel will be held at the age of 17 for the convention. MSU delegates to this convention are Pat Anderson, Gerald Rapids, Jr., president of Phi Kappa Phi; Bill Mitchell, Rho Chi; Ohio, Jr., president of IFC; Ted Rulina, E-Lansing Jr.; Judy Kaufman, Chicago Jr.; Judy Hume, E-Lansing Jr.; and Pat O'Connell, Flint, soph.

George Leonard, a visitor to IFC, and Miss Mabel Peterson, visitor to Pan-Hel, will accompany the students.

Importance of Education Emphasized by Hannah

Dr. John A. Hannah was the guest speaker last week at the meeting of the student chapter of the American Veterinary Medicine Association.

Dr. Hannah said that "our neighbor, the Soviet Union, recognizes the great importance of education, and too many of our bright youngsters are wasted and don't have the opportunity for higher education."

He backed that up by saying two weeks ago that the state legislature came within 16 votes of passing a resolution advising the state universities to limit the enrollment of out of state students to a total of 10 percent of the enrollment.

"This is silly," he added. "This arbitrary number would include graduate students as well. The graduate students are made up almost one hundred percent from out of state."

"The kind of society we live in is almost entirely dependent upon the education system we have," he said.

"It is concluded by saying, 'Every college has three main objectives: the preservation of knowledge, to increase knowledge, and to impart knowledge.'"

Tie Games Protest Enlivens IM Softball

Three tie games, one of them a protested contest, highlighted the IM softball games Tuesday. Bryan 1 protested its tie with Bryan 2. Each team picked up four runs. Bob Fayley allowed three hits for one, while Earl DeLong was nicked for four for Bryan 2.

AVMA and Armstrong played to a five inning tie, with Frank Shoarer and Jerry Kossoff the respective pitchers for each squad, that saw each team scoring three markers.

Butterfield 5 and 6 played to a tie, with each team garnering seven runs on six hits.

Although out-hit seven to four, the Catholic Student Organization topped the Vets, 6-4. The Vets had four extra base blows during the game, including a home run by Al Van Pelt, while the winning CSO nine had none. Mike Essenmacher picked up the win for CSO.

Two errors plus a two base hit by Dave James and a single brought in three runs for the Leeches in the third and final inning to pitch Luther team, 4-2. Eberhart pitched a two-hitter for the Leeches. Bryan 3 went down to defeat before the Six Paks by a 10-3 score. Marice Jones homered and Pete Cook tripled during the fracas. Jerry Lane pitched a two hitter for the Six Paks. Butterfield 7 scored 10 times in the third inning to trounce Butterfield 8, 14-3. Bill Spute smashed a home run for the victors. Dick Smith pitched two hit ball as Bryan 7 topped Bryan 8, 4-1. Ira Sheridan for seven and Wayne Pecknold for eight both tripled. Gary Karmer struck out five and allowed but two hits in a four inning fracas that saw Bryan 3 stopping Bryan 4, 5-2. Dave Goddard tripled for the winners.

TED WILLIAMS slams his second home run in two days, this time against the New York Yankees as the Red Sox dropped its second straight game. It was "The Thumper's" 49th home run of his career, putting him in fourth place among the all time sluggers. Lou Gehrig is now fifth with 493.

Injuries Hit Gridders; McLucas Hospitalized

By JIM WALLINGTON

State News Sports Editor
The second major injury of the spring hit MSU's football team at Tuesday's practice.

Ed McLucas, one of the few veteran linemen, suffered a knee injury that sent him to Olin Health Center. The senior tore ligaments in his knee. Team physician Dr. James Feurig will operate this morning.

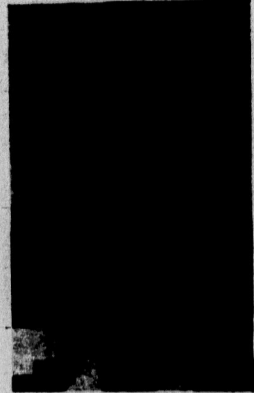

Trainers at Secret Practice Field and Dr. Feurig feared the worst for McLucas, who played first string last year. He might not be able to play this fall.

McLucas, a 27-year-old native of Newark, N.J., was hit from the side during Tuesday's scrimmage buckling his knee.

Jake Lewandowski, a junior guard, suffered a knee-strain injury minutes after McLucas went off. Lewandowski's injury is not too extensive. It is expected to keep him from practice more than two or three weeks. He was bothered last fall by a shoulder injury.

The injuries came during the second straight day of rugged scrimmaging by the Spartans' top units. Line coach Gordie Serr said more of the same rugged work is promised for Thursday and Saturday.

Viewing the practice were two former Detroit Lions greats —

ED MCLUCAS ... future doubtful ...

Les Bingham and Thurman McGraw, both linemen.

Bingham, who will be defensive line coach for the Lions this fall, is observing coaching methods under the wing of MSU's defensive line mentor, Burt Smith. The 350-pounder will be here for several days.

Also viewing the workout was Jim Bobbit, who was injured during the opening day of spring grid drills. He was on crutches. He will not be ready until this fall.

Former Spartan quarterback Tom Yepick arrived at the camp is working as an assistant coach.

Two sparkling pass plays highlighted the scrimmage. Leroy Loudermilk, presently listed third among the quarterbacks, struck a blow in his favor in the battle for starting signalcaller. He tossed a 30-yard pass to Wayne Fontes who romped for a touchdown.

Tommy Wilson, who is in the driver's seat of that QB fight, miraculously got away a pass to Gary Ballman. A defender had a hold of Wilson and was hauling him to the ground when the Lapeer native threw.

Several Spartans have been hobbling around camp the last two days because of minor injuries received at last Saturday's practice. Among them are Herb Adorley, Carl Charon (who is nursing the same ankle operated on last fall), John Sharp, Fred Arbans and Roy Farret.

Head coach Duffy Daugherty said the team has to work on many things, but mainly fundamentals, this spring. The squad has been ragged in the scrimmages, he said. "But because of the great team spirit," Duffy said, "we're going to improve."

Bums Blank Giants, 4-0

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Left-hander Johnny Podres, with help from Ed Roebuck, blanked the San Francisco Giants on five hits as the World Champion Los Angeles Dodgers grabbed the National League lead with a 4-0 victory.

Roebuck came in with one out and the bases loaded in the ninth and got Ed Bressoud to hit into a double play.

The Dodgers scored a run in the second inning as Carl Fazio tripled down the right field line but didn't tally again until the ninth when they pushed over three more.

Billy O'Dell, the Giants' southpaw acquisition from the Baltimore Orioles, started his first National League game and gave up only four hits in eight innings. The Giants besides failing to give him any help at the plate, committed five errors.

A crowd of 26,329 watched the first 1960 meeting between the Giants and Dodgers who entered the game deadlocked for the League lead with four victories and one defeat each.

AL Draws 162,326 Fans

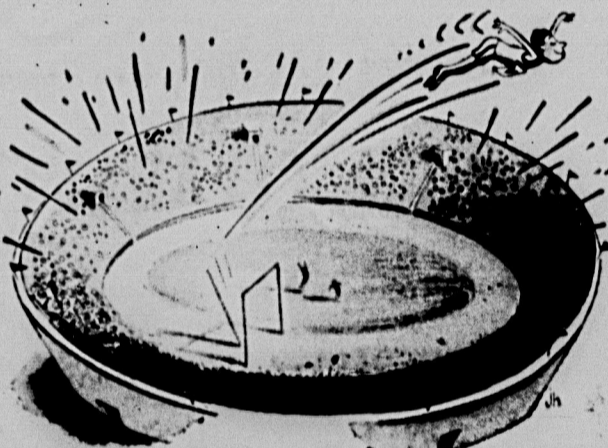

The American League drew 162,326 fans for four games Tuesday as it finally got its 1960 season opener out of the way—a week behind the National.

The total was some 17,500 less than the four-game crowd of 179,782 drawn by the National last Tuesday.

Cleveland's home game with Detroit attracted the AL's largest crowd, 52,786, undoubtedly with the help of Sunday's controversial trade that sent Rocky Colavito to the Tigers in return for Harvey Korman.

Tigers Top Tribe in 15th

Kaline's Single Decisive Blow

CLEVELAND (AP)—A two-run single by Al Kaline in the 15th inning gave the Detroit Tigers a 4-2 victory over the Cleveland Indians before an opening-day crowd of 52,756 at Municipal Stadium.

The loser was Jim Grant, the third of five Indian pitchers, who left with two men on base and one out in the 15th after pitching 3 1/2 innings in relief. The winner was Pete Burnside, the third Detroit pitcher, who hurled the last four innings.

Tuesday's crowd was the largest for a seasons opener here since 1953. Most of the fans still were in the stands at the end of the game, which went four hours and 54 minutes.

Kaline's game-winning single to center field was his only hit of the game. It was off Bob Tiefenauer, the last Indian hurler. Burnside walked to open the 15th, Eddie Yost was out on a fly to center and Red Wilson then hit a double to left field, sending Burnside to third. Grant was replaced by Johnny Klippstein, who walked the first batter he faced and was lifted for Tiefenauer. Kaline hit Tiefenauer's second pitch, scoring Burnside and Wilson. Rocky Colavito hit into a double play to retire the side.

The teams battled to a scoreless tie until the 11th inning when a single by pinch-hitter Neil Chrissy produced two runs for the Tigers. His poke to right field was off reliever Bob Grim, who replaced started Gary Bell with the bases loaded and one out. Grim retired the next two batters on flies to left field.

Colavito, sent to the Tigers Sunday from the Indians in exchange for Harvey Kuenn in a trade that brought a storm of protest from many Cleveland fans, had a bad day at the plate. The former Cleveland slugger struck out four times, walked once, was out on a fly to left field and hit into a double play in seven appearances at the plate.

Kuenn had a double and a single in seven trips. In his other appearances he grounded out three times and was safe once on an error and reached base on a fielder's choice.

Castoff Minoso Stars; Chisox Edge Athletics

CHICAGO (AP)—After hitting a grand slam homer in the fourth, Minnie Minoso belted a leadoff homer in the ninth to break a 9-9 tie and give the American League champion Chicago White Sox a 10-9 opening day victory over the Kansas City A's.

A record Comiskey Park opening day crowd of 41,661 saw the wild and woolly opener in which the White Sox blew an early 9-2 lead and then had their sixth pitcher, Ray Moore, save the game with one pitch in the ninth inning with the bases loaded.

The jittery A's yielded five unearned runs in the first two innings, and then ex-Cleveland outfielder Minoso celebrated his return to the White Sox with his base-clearing wallop over the 415-centerfield mark in the fourth inning. Minoso's decisive homer in the ninth after the A's scored two runs to tie the score at 9-9 was a shot into upper left center field stands above the 375 mark.

Just when it appeared the Sox cause was doomed with the bases loaded with A's and only one out, Moore came in and threw one pitch to end the threat.

The toss was to Bill Tuttle, whose ground smash to second was grabbed by Nellie Fox, who stepped on second and threw to first to end the threat.

Woodling Bats Orioles To 3-2 Win

BALTIMORE (AP)—Gene Woodling, the oldest pro among a flock of Oriole fledglings, batted Baltimore to victory Tuesday with a run-scoring double in the seventh inning to edge the Washington Senators 3-2.

Woodling's first hit of his 15th season as a leaguer scored Jackie Brandt all the way from first base. Brandt had drawn the only unintentional walk from Washington pitcher Pedro Ramirez.

Third baseman Brooks Robinson, an Oriole veteran at 23, tied the score at 2-2 in the fourth inning with a homer into the left field stands, and it was Woodling who scored in front of him.

Two former Orioles, second baseman Billy Gardner and centerfielder Lenny Green, put the Senators in front with a run in the third inning on back-to-back triples.

The Senators, who won their opener 10-1 over Boston Monday, picked up another run in the sixth on singles by Harmon Killebrew and Bob Allison. They still had the bases loaded when manager Paul Richards of the Orioles decided to swap 20-year-old pitchers, Jack Fisher for starter Jerry Walker. Fisher got pinchhitter Julio Becquer to ground into an unusual inning-ending double play executed by first baseman Jim Gentile and catcher Gus Triandos.

UOF M Whips Central

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Michigan unleashed a 14-hit attack Tuesday and defeated Central Michigan 13-4 in its final non-conference baseball game of the spring season.

Outfielder Dave Brown collected three hits, including a double, to lead the Michigan batting. Bill Roman and Dick Delamater both smashed out triples.

A Koch, who went five innings, was the winning pitcher. Bob Veach was the loser.

Maris Belts Two Homers; Yankees Stop Boston, 8-4

BOSTON (AP)—The New York Yankees, able to solve Boston hurling for only seven hits in three pre-season exhibitions, raked Red Sox pitching for 17 hits Tuesday and an 8-4 triumph.

Roger Maris, a New York new comer was the big batsman in this opening game of the season for the New Yorkers. He belted two 400-foot plus home runs and drove home half of the Yankee tallies. Maris also contributed a double and single to the Yankee attack.

All was not lost for the 35,162 home fans who attended the Boston home opener as Ted Williams lined a homer into the stands for Boston's third run.

It was the aging star's second in as many days and the 49th of his career. Williams now is fourth in the majors in hitting home runs, one ahead of the late Lou Gehrig. Babe Ruth's 714 is tops.

Williams' first homer was Boston's only run when the Sox opened in Washington Monday, suffering a 10-1 defeat.

Boston fangled a run in the opening inning on singles by Pete Runnels and Frank Malzone and a Gene Stephens sacrifice fly.

But the Yankees registered a pair in the fourth and added four more in the next inning, putting the game out of the home forces' reach.

Al Dorow still holds the pass completion records he set during the 1949-51 seasons. During this period he completed 123 passes, 64 of them in his senior year. That year he completed 11 aerial tosses in five different games.
