

Kennedy, Nixon Renew Tries To Get State's Undecided Votes

Michigan's 20 electoral votes have lured both Vice President Richard Nixon and Senator John Kennedy into the state this week for more attempts at capturing the wavering votes.

KENNEDY IS in Detroit today, his fourth appearance in Michigan during this presidential campaign. He will arrive from Chicago at 2 p.m. Nixon is closely following Kennedy's agenda...

Campaign Story Still On Islands

CINCINNATI (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon declared Tuesday night Sen. John F. Kennedy was completely wrong in stating that the Eisenhower administration had tried to get the Chinese nationalists to withdraw from Quemoy and Matsu.

NIXON, in his first nationally televised speech from a Republican rally in the campaign, took up this challenge, asserting, "I do flatly, categorically and emphatically deny," his opponent's statement.

'Harvey' Opens In Fairchild

"Harvey," the first of the University Theatre productions opens tonight at 8 in Fairchild theatre.

HARVEY IS ALSO a menace to Edward's sister Veta Louise, played by Lois Martin, and her daughter Myrtle Mae, played by Bert Covell.

DR. CHURLEY is particularly impressed with Harvey after they make the rounds of a few local bars. He dismisses Harvey from his office, but he sends a letter to a pretty Miss and Harvey can help him do this.

'Prestige Survey Is Concealed'

HE CONTINUED HIS sharp attacks on his Democratic foe, saying at Marietta that Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev would have stomped on Kennedy if the Senator had represented the U.S. at last May's summit conference in Paris.

KENNEDY SAID FRIDAY that he had read over Senate testimony by Gen. Nathan F. Twining, until recently the chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, and of an assistant secretary of state, and that the testimony had confirmed his statement the administration sought to extricate itself from the off-shore islands.

These officials said: "Any discussion that took place... related only to the deployment of Nationalist Chinese forces as between the main island of Taiwan (Formosa), the Pescadore Islands and the off-shore islands of Quemoy and Matsu," the Vice President said.

Report of Decline Is Hidden—Kennedy

IN ILLINOIS WITH KENNEDY, (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy charged today that the Eisenhower administration concealed the findings of a survey of 10 nations—showing that American prestige has declined—in order to protect Vice President Nixon.

He referred to a survey made by the United States information agency. KENNEDY SAID the administration "refused to release it. And the reason is that they (the findings) show Mr. Nixon is misinformed."

The Democratic presidential candidate hammered his attack as he motored through cities and towns around Chicago Tuesday.

Reds Shrug Congo Cost

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld Tuesday handed the United Nations a cost estimate of $46,625,000 for this year's U.N. Congo operation.

The Soviet Union quickly announced it would refuse to pay a share of the Congo costs, and accused Hammarskjöld of violating General Assembly directives in his conduct of the Congo operation.

In a speech to the 99-nation budgetary committee, Soviet delegate A. A. Roschin also asserted that the Congo operation is leading to "a very serious financial crisis which may have very serious political consequences."

Deadly Blast Levels Store

13 Killed, Scores Injured In Windsor, Ont. Explosion

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP)—A shattering explosion collapsed a busy department store in the downtown heart of this Canadian border city Tuesday, killing at least 13 persons and injuring more than 65.

Nine bodies were recovered. Civilian defense worker Bill Bennett said there still were at least four, one of them a baby and another a woman cut in half, buried in debris in the basement.

THE FIRST IDENTIFIED dead was a Canadian woman. Two of those injured were Roy Pons and Mrs. Delores Pons, both of Cincinnati, Ohio. Why the latter two were in this motor city of 120,000 wasn't determined immediately.

The back of Metropolitan Stores Ltd. was blown out. The second floor and roof collapsed in a portion of the building. Snapped power lines started fires, but these were extinguished.

ST. ALPHONSUS Roman Catholic school is just beyond the rear door of the store, and while the explosion was most fierce in the back of the building, none of the school's 200 children was hurt.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union Tuesday virtually wrote off U.N. disarmament debate at the time as useless. It said the only way to resolve the East-West deadlock is to hold a special General Assembly session next spring at the summit level.

His words foreshadowed an imminent boycott of the entire Soviet bloc of the committee at least on that phase of the debate dealing with Khrushchev's call for an international treaty on complete and total disarmament.

About Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge

By SAM MARTINO
State News Staff Writer

Detroit—Henry Cabot Lodge, former ambassador to the United Nations, left here Monday to campaign to become vice president of the United States.

While in the Detroit area, Lodge appeared to be on leave from his former UN headquarters in New York as he dwelled on international affairs.

spread their kind of truth-communism" throughout the world. Lodge, who has swung hard and plucked Khrushchev back on his heels many times in the UN, told a crowd of 1,500 during his Detroit United Nations Charter day speech that the U.S. is always challenging the untruths of the communists.

The Republican's diplomatic and political venture into Michigan was received as a request

The six-foot-four inch Republican running mate of Vice President Richard M. Nixon looked and acted the role of Nixon's correspondent on foreign affairs.

Political analysts called the 58-year-old stately looking ambassador America's biggest thorn in the side of Khrushchev and the communists.

Wearing a tan trench coat and talking in a direct and unforced way to small crowds throughout the Motor City, Lodge repeatedly hit the Russians for trying "to for a world leader who could stand up to communism.

Although absorbed by a seemingly personal battle with Khrushchev and the communists, he said the nations of the world look to the U. S. for advice and encouragement.

Detroiters appeared to accept the hand shaking and ever ready photographic crusader as a friend of all.

He said our national motto should be to go forward and leave no one behind.

Eisenhower Back After 2 New Officers Assigned To Air Force Detachment

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower came back to Washington Tuesday apparently happy about his 10-day trip to the west with a nonpolitical label. He seemed ready to "clear the air" in a frankly political campaign speech in Philadelphia Friday.

Despite the nonpolitical sticker on the trip that ended Tuesday, some of the things Eisenhower said along the way were interpreted widely as digs at Democratic presidential nominee John F. Kennedy and plugs for Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican candidate.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty was asked, in the light of these interpretations, whether he or any of the White House staff had any estimates as to the effect of the tour.

Hagerty grinned and said he would leave that to newsmen.

Asked whether Eisenhower is "happy about it," Hagerty replied that "he seems to be."

But he said that Eisenhower doesn't begin making political trips until Friday.

2 New Officers Assigned To Air Force Detachment

Major John M. Engebretson has been assigned to the Air Force ROTC detachment here after a tour in southern France.

While in France, he served with a transport squadron assigned to patient evacuation and airlift operations.

EARLIER IN his career, he headed an Intelligence Training Command, for officers and airmen, at Lowry AFB, Colorado. In Korea he directed photo interpretation operations with the 5th Air Force.

In W.W.II, Major Engebretson was stationed in England and worked with the Royal Air Force in Intelligence.

Major Engebretson holds a BA degree in education from Western Washington college and a MS in business management from the University of Colorado. He lives in East Lansing with his wife Brownie, daughters Sheila 11, Janet 7, and his son Roland 5.

Their home is in Seattle, Washington.

Another new officer assigned to the AFROTC detachment is Capt. Donald D. Hollway.

Capt. Hollway received his commission in 1950 through the AFROTC program at Gettysburg College, Pennsylvania where he also received his bachelor's degree in chemistry.

HE ATTENDED New York university for a year's study in meteorology under the Air Force Institute of Technology's education program. In Korea he worked with a weather squadron supporting aircraft operations out of Seoul airport.

After two years in the Philippines with a radio squadron he was assigned to MSU as an instructor for sophomore cadets.

Capt. Hollway lives in East Lansing with his wife Jean and their daughter Mary, 3. Their home is in Reading, Penn.

Marston Ends European Study

By JACKIE KAMPFERT
State News Staff Writer

What is the extent of the development of the public relations man in western Europe? John Marston, associate professor of advertising, sought the answers to this question during his recent trip to Europe.

Unable to find any information about European public relations development, Marston's curiosity got the best of him. Last summer he took a leave of absence from the University and went to Europe.

While he was there, he made an extensive survey of public relations activities.

Marston met with public relations experts from several countries. He found that European public relations men are every bit as capable as their U.S. counterparts.

Public relations sprang up in Europe about 1946. American firms abroad and the American armed forces inspired its development.

"Public relations is definitely an import from the United States," said Marston. "However, most countries don't care to admit this."

HE FOUND that Europeans seemed to be more interested in an international exchange of information than Americans. The first international public relations conference was held at the Brussels World's Fair in 1958, a second will be held in Venice in May and a third is planned for Montreal.

"We have one great thing in common," said Marston. "All of us depend on freedom of speech in which to operate, for freedom to speak includes freedom to persuade. Far more than American public relations men are, I found Europeans aware that freedom of speech is essential to their very existence."

Negro Integration Leader Jailed for Traffic Offense

ATLANTA (AP)—Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Negro integration leader, was ordered Tuesday to serve four months on a suspended traffic sentence after his arrest in Atlanta sit-in demonstrations.

JUDGE OSCAR Mitchell of DeKalb County criminal court in suburban Decatur denied a defense motion for bond.

Atty. D. L. Hollowell, heading a defense staff of five Negro lawyers, questioned the constitutionality of Georgia's new trespass law under which King and more than 70 others were arrested in the Atlanta lunch counter sit-ins last week.

King was given a $25 fine and a one-year suspended sentence Sept. 23 on a charge of driving without a license. He pleaded guilty then but he told the court Tuesday that he had no knowledge that he was under a probationary sentence until advised of it three days ago.

The Editor's Corner Queen Contest

BY SUE PRICE, EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Homecoming—the weekend when all alumni become nostalgic about the old alma mater—is this weekend. And the senior class project has traditionally been to sponsor the Homecoming queen contest.

The planning behind the scenes this year was under the direction of Jim Frink of Rochester. It was Jim's job to work in cooperation with Starr Kessler, senior class advisor, to organize the judging for the contest. Jim also planned the various appearances of the queen, Mary Berles, and her court.

The senior members of the Homecoming queen committee are: Bruce Struble, Saginaw; Kathy McCullough, Saginaw; and Diane Tillotson, Red Bank, N.J. Even though the contest is a senior project, a sophomore from Demarest, N.J., Pete Secchia, is on the committee.

The senior class has changed a few aspects of the queen contest and awards this year. A new system of judging was used and each semi-finalist was personally interviewed by the judges. In addition, a special ramp and platform for the contestants to walk down was used.

Senior council voted to award a traveling trophy to the living unit the coed represents. This year, East Mayo, Miss Berles' dorm, will receive the trophy.

Each member of the court will also receive a trophy. Miss Berles will be presented with a 17-inch trophy and Sue Taylor, the runner-up, will receive a 15-inch one. The other members will be given smaller trophies.

Senior council has also planned the personal appearances of the queen and her court. The women will be in the Bacchanalia parade Friday night and will be escorted into the stadium by members of Excalibur before the game. Each woman will wear a corsage made of the colors of the Big Ten school she represents.

Saturday evening the queen will be formally presented and will receive her tiara from Joan Kane, 1959 Homecoming queen.

The name of Homecoming queen was announced early because in the past she has reigned for a single day. This year she will participate in activities throughout the week and receive additional recognition.

Noted Doctor Named to Head Speech Clinic

Dr. Herbert Oyer has joined the faculty of the speech department this year and has become the director of the speech and hearing clinic.

Oyer previously held a split position on the faculty of Ohio State where he was an associate professor in the Medical school and speech department.

While at Ohio State, Oyer was one of the men responsible for the research and development of the "international language of the air." The research was done for the air force.

Oyer is also director of the speech and hearing department of the Ingham county rehabilitation center at Sparrow hospital. Oyer said he had many objectives toward broadening the scope of training in speech and hearing which he hopes to see fulfilled.

"Speech and hearing science is much more than speech correction in the public schools," he said. "Correction is only one aspect of the training field, Oyer said. He said he hopes to perform more experimental work in speech and hearing within the range of those who haven't serious difficulties.

Oyer said he would like to see laboratories instituted where detailed experimentation may be done with fine precision instruments.

Oyer has been successful in instituting a field of training for graduate students within a hospital setting working with adult correction. He obtained an appropriation from the government for such training.

In addition to working in the training field of speech and hearing correction, Oyer has worked as a part-time research associate and does much research of his own.

He has written a book on lip-reading soon to be published.

Textiles Topic of Teuton's Talk

The introduction of new textiles highlighted the speech given by Dr. Frank Teuton to a meeting of extension workers Monday at Kellogg Center. Teuton's speech covered the area of "Research in Action" as it applies to extension workers.

Teuton is the Research Information Officer for the United States Department of Agriculture. For 10 of his 20 years with the USDA, he has been speaking to extension groups across the country.

"RESEARCH COMES step by step," Teuton said as he showed them many of the USDA's newest developments.

New uses are being found for cotton, Teuton said. Processed to resemble wool, cotton can be used in drip-dry coats and suits. A non-woven cotton will soon be on the market.

Terry cloth is being refined for use in sports clothes and is already in limited production. In addition, washable cottons can be made to resemble fine silk.

Wool is becoming a more versatile fiber, according to Teuton. Science has made possible a drip-dry wool that may be laundered at home. Wool that holds a permanent crease will be available in the near future.

Teuton said a special resin that dry cleaning or washing won't remove, is applied to the creased area. Gaily printed wools are another new development of the USDA.

FOREST RANGERS will be sleeping in disposable sleeping bags soon. At present, they are being used experimentally in the West, Teuton said.

The USDA's interests cover many fields besides textiles, Teuton said. Presently, they are searching for valuable medicinal antibiotics in common fruits and vegetables.

By conducting research and developing new products for industry, the USDA is playing an important role in the American economy and is helping to make the farmer more prosperous, according to Teuton.

Teuton's speech was one of the highlights of "Opportunities Unlimited," the annual meeting of state extension workers.

Men's Glee Club Plans Joint Concert With OSU Group

A joint concert with the Ohio State University Men's Glee club is being planned by the Men's Glee club for Saturday evening.

THE CONCERT, which will have each club singing an individual show plus several combined numbers, will be held in the Kiva. Two performances will be given. One at 7:15 and one at 9:15 p.m.

"The Men's Glee club is pleased to be able to sponsor such an activity in furthering the friendly relations between the two great universities," said Gordon Flood, the director of the club.

FLOOD, in his first year with the glee club, said that the songs would be in keeping with the homecoming atmosphere including college songs, folksongs, spirituals, and some popular numbers. The club, which started working early this fall, now numbers 60 men, said Flood. Accompanist for the group is Howard Lyon.

Tickets for the Saturday night performances are available at the Union ticket desk.

Wolverine Plans Now Completed

Plans for the 1961 Wolverine, have been completed with the conclusion of senior picture-taking, according to Anson Lovellette, associate editor.

The Wolverine will feature new multi-color division pages and a theme stressing State as a community of faculty and students and their families.

Pictures of campus and academic life here will be taken by members of the darkroom staff until final printing date. Those most indicative of university life here will be selected for the book, said Lovellette.

Sales are well ahead of last year with 2,000 copies having been sold already, said Larry Landley, business manager.

Herb Adderley, MSU Halfback

Halfback Adderley Is Spartans' Top Receiver

Senior Herb Adderley teams with Gary Ballman to give Michigan State what could be very well the most explosive, fastest and exciting halfback combination in the Big Ten if not the nation.

As the regular left halfback,

Dorrow Returns To Action

NEW YORK, (P)—Al Dorrow, injured quarterback of the New York Titans, Monday assured the owner of the American League club that he would be able to play Friday night at the Polo Grounds against Eddie Erdelatz's Oakland team.

Harry Wisner, owner of the Titans, said Dorrow had suffered severely bruised ribs, a twisted knee and an injured ankle in Sunday's game with Houston. However, X-rays showed no broken bones and Dorrow will be at practice Wednesday morning.

Michigan State holds the record for the most consecutive IC4A cross country championships, winning five straight titles from 1933 to 1937.

Adderley is the no. two ranking ground gainer for the Spartans behind Carl Charon, with 157 yards gained on 40 carries for a 3.9 average. Adderley, who is the no. one man in the backfield, got off to a slow start this year, but is now coming through in great form scoring a touchdown in the Notre Dame game and setting up the Spartans for their first touchdown in the Indiana game.

HERB WHO IS the leading receiver on the squad receiving seven passes for 129 yards gained, received various All-Big Ten and All American mentions last season.

Last season he led the Spartans in playing time. He was the top rusher with 419 yards netted in 93 carries for a 4.5 average, second best receiver to Arabonas with 13 catches good for 265 yards and two touchdowns.

ADDERLEY HAD one of his best games against Ohio State last year. He compiled 72 yards and a touchdown in rushing statistics, and also caught three passes for 106 yards. He set up his own 11 yard TD run with a 14 yard blast off tackle, and combined with Dean-Look on a 45 yard pass play to set up another score. His 178 total yardage led both teams.

At 6-0 and 195 pounds Adderley is no midget and he combines in one dynamic package both power and great speed.

As a prep on a city champion team at Northeast High School in Philadelphia, he made All-City and All-State. He was also a track man with a recorded 9.8 seconds in the 100 yard dash.

B-B Shots Lushes vs. Goobs

By BEN BURNS

Homecoming holds many traditions that amuse and interest alumni who return for the day.

One of the most traditional occurrences however, is generally neglected by the casual observer due to the larger and more extravagant happenings going on around it.

About 10 a.m. on Saturday morning two teams will square off in the annual Shovel Bowl Classic, at Old College Field.

The TWO SQUADS are the All-University Student Government, "Stupid Goods" and that glorious group of publications stalwarts known as Lushwell Athletic Club.

Lushwell being a group that is primarily devoted to hedonism and good spirits in general, is in serious straits this season.

It seems that not a single member of the squad is over 21 except for that ancient mold-encrusted center Walter "where's the church key" Squire.

The rest of the pink checked outfit is made up of John "Red" Schneider, "Jumbo" Jim Wallington, "Sneaky" Sam Martino, Ivanhoe "Streak" Donaldson, Derwood "Woody" Haines and Owen King.

HOWEVER, THE alumni, who will return to play in the classic are expected to provide ample strength so that temporary coach Ben Burns can keep adequate strength on the field. That means seven males, who can walk.

According to new wild card substitution rule it will be possible to send in a new play after each down.

This should give the versatile Lushes a certain tactical advantage. They were hampered in previous years by their inability to remember more than one play at a time.

LEADING THE politico's will be Chuck-Herbert, who should lend strength to the center of the line.

The Lush attack hinges on the ability of returning lettermen Larry Gustin and D. Peter Walters, who guided the publications team to their miserable defeat last year.

At any rate if you want excitement folks, go to the MSU-OSU football game and not the Lushwell-AUSG debacle on Old College Field.

Spartan Soccer Team Plays Host to Ohio U.

Michigan State's soccer team will play host to Ohio University today. The game will be played at the Spartan soccer field at 3:00 p.m.

OHIO ENTERS the game with an impressive record of five wins and no losses. Last week they defeated Pittsburgh 2-1.

Michigan State will go into the game with a record of three wins and one loss. Their only loss was incurred a week ago last Saturday when they fell to St. Louis 4-0.

THE SPARTANS also defeated Pittsburgh two weeks ago by a score of 4-0.

Gene Kenney, Spartan coach, looks for a hard game. He feels that Ohio is a powerful squad that is capable of beating the best of them.

Another source of worry for Kenney is the possibility of not having the services of Cecil Heron, his All-American center forward.

Heron was injured in the St. Louis game when he pulled some tendons in his right foot attempting to score a goal.

IF HE DOES SEE any action, it will probably be limited in order to insure against any further injury. This will place a handicap on his teammates.

Gene Kenney coach of the successful Spartan Soccer team.

Last Saturday, however, the Spartans met Wheaton without Heron's services and defeated them by a score of 3-1.

"Ohio is a good team," said Kenney. "The game would be close even with Cecil. Without him it's going to be a real challenge."

Archie Moore Loses Title

CLEVELAND, (P)—David Ott, President of The National Boxing Association, today notified Archie Moore the NBA has withdrawn recognition of Moore as light heavyweight champion of the world.

Ott said in his letter the NBA's general assembly last Sept. 7 gave Moore 90 days in which to defend his title against Eric Schoepner of Germany or face withdrawal of recognition. No such match was held.

The Association said elimination matches will be held to determine the new champion.

Intramural Highlights

The Fraternity table tennis contest was won by ZBT with AE PI and ATO second and third respectively. Gary Adelman, Mel Sapstein and Ed Minshuff starred for ZBT.

Les Miller went out ahead in the football throw contest with 18 points.

In second place is Dick Golden with 17 points followed by Bryan Bennet and Peter Stevens with 15.

The contest will run 11 a.m.-1 p.m. and 3-5 p.m. daily, through Friday.

Navy and Miss. Prospects For Gator Bowl

JACKSONVILLE, FLA. (P)—Navy and Mississippi head a list of 15 teams under consideration for the Dec. 31 Gator Bowl football game.

Six Southwestern Conference teams, two from the Atlantic Coast Conference, three from the Southwest Conference, two from the Big Eight and two independents are mentioned.

In addition to Navy and Mississippi, they are Syracuse, Duke, Baylor, Florida, Rice, Missouri, Tennessee, Alabama, Arkansas, North Carolina State, Kansas, Georgia and Georgia Tech.

Tigers Consider Rigney For Managerial Post

Is Ex-Giant Manager Bound for Detroit?

By JOE REICHLER

Bill Rigney, who managed the San Francisco Giants to two consecutive third place finishes before he was dismissed last June, may soon be named manager of the Detroit Tigers, the Associated Press learned Tuesday.

Rigney, who will be 41 years old next Saturday, is expected to get the job before the major-league winter meetings open on Nov. 25.

Detroit has been without a manager since early this month when Joe Gordon resigned and several days later signed a two-year contract to pilot the Kansas City Athletics. Gordon's two-year contract still had another year to run.

RIGNEY, who spent his entire major league career in the National league, now, has his own radio program in Oakland. He applied for the Detroit job during the world series.

Rigney, succeeded Leo Durocher as Giant manager at the end of the 1955 season. The slender, 6-1, Californian had been groomed for two years as manager of the Minneapolis club in the American Association.

Despite sixth place finishes in his first two years, Rigney proved popular with his players and when owner Horace Stoneham took his Giants to San Francisco after the 1957 season, Rigney continued as manager.

THE GIANTS were a strong third in their first year on the West coast. Rigney had the giants on top through most of the 1959 campaign but a last-month slump dropped the team into third place at the finish.

Stoneham stuck with Rigney in 1960 but it was generally known that Bill had to have the club on top by mid-season or he would be through. The Giants, after a fast start, began to fade in June and, on June 16, after the club had dropped three straight to Pittsburgh, Rigney was fired and replaced by Tom Sheehan, the club's sugar scout.

The Giants were in second place, four games behind, when Sheehan took over. They finished fifth, 16 games off the pace.

The Tigers finished the 1960 season in sixth place, 26 games behind the pennant winning New York Yankees, after swapping managers with Cleveland in August. In that "trade," Jimmy Dykes went to the Indians and Gordon came to Detroit.

Jim Wallington's Sneezing

You've heard of the All-American football hero who spent eight years trying to get through college. He could run, kick and tackle, but he couldn't PASS.

Michigan State has a football player who can kick, run and tackle. He intercepts and catches passes. And it won't take him eight years to matriculate through MSU.

He's Michigan State's jack-of-all trades, Bob Suci, the junior halfback, whose throwing ability hasn't been tested yet this season.

BOB IS PROBABLY the most worked Spartan. He does the team's punting. He runs with the first team defense. His number is called frequently on offense to carry the football.

And the former Grand Blanc High School all-starter seems to enjoy and thrive on his work load.

At least his statistics show it. As a punter he has booted the ball 753 yards in 20 kicks for a 37.6 average.

Bob is the team's top ground gainer, percentage wise. Toting the ball 19 times, he has gained 134 yards for seven yards a run.

One of those carries accounted for an 11-yard touchdown against Indiana last Saturday. After the score Bob caught Tom Wilson's pass in the end zone for a two-point conversion.

"BOB DOES AS GOOD A job as any halfback we have," Bill Yeoman, the offensive backfield coach said.

It was a defensive play in 1959 that first brought the 5-9, 178-pound griddler to the attention of football fans. He intercepted a Michigan pass on the three-yard line and returned it 93 yards for a score. It was the longest pass interception return in the conference last season.

In the Notre Dame game two weeks ago he pilfered an Irish aerial and returned it 52 yards.

Dan Boisture, the defensive backfield tutor, said Suci excels defensively, on both pass coverage and tackling.

He is part of a defense which has allowed only one TD pass and 39 percent of the opponent's passes to be completed.

AGAINST OHIO STATE in Saturday's homecoming game, Bob's job on defense will be tougher than any time previously this season. Another top-notch defensive back, Carl Charon, is not expected to be recovered from an injury sustained in the Indiana game.

Bob will have to be on the ball (both literally and figuratively) to cover the passing threats of Tom Matte and charges of Bob Ferguson, the pair of Buckeyes which led Ohio State in the 1959 win over the Spartans.

"They'll have to do it on long ground gainers," he said. Bob is still learning the fine points of punting in his first year of booting for the Spartans. He punted in high school, though. He predicts his kicking distance will increase as the season progresses.

ONLY SIX OF HIS fourth down kicks have been returned, and those for a mere 22 yards. The others have rolled dead, out of bounds or into the end zone.

The low punt return figure is the result of his high, arching kicks which allow linemen enough time to cover the opponents' punt receivers.

Despite two straight shut-outs and 56 points scored in two ball games, Bob figures that the Spartans haven't "busted loose" yet this season.

He hopes that Saturday is the day.

Iowa and Miss. Head List Collegiate Football Roundup

By The Associated Press

A freak play by a third-string center and a controversial last-gasp field goal saved the hopes of mighty Iowa and Mississippi as 11 of the nation's major college football teams passed the season's halfway mark Saturday with unpolished records.

Except for these two patting giants, Nos. 1 and 2 in the national rankings, most of the big boys came through rather handsily. Form was the keynote. The various conference races and early bowl pictures were brought into sharper focus.

IOWA was its fifth straight game with a 21-14 victory over Purdue—and the crowning blow was an 84-yard scoring run with a fumble by a lowly sophomore sub, Dayton Perry.

Mississippi, edged out of the top spot in the Associated Press standings last week by Iowa, squeezed out a 10-7 triumph over Arkansas at Little Rock on a 39-yard field goal by Allen Green which barely beat the closing gun.

Frank Broyles, the Arkansas coach, complained bitterly that his team was robbed. He said the kick missed the uprights. The Ole Miss coach, Johnny Vaught, and Green both insisted it was good. So Mississippi's sixth victory became a tainted one.

THE OTHER nine teams with unbeaten-untied records are Navy, Missouri, Utah State and New Mexico State, six triumphs each, and Syracuse, Minnesota, Baylor, Yale and Rutgers, five.

Syracuse, the defending national champion, for the first time this year showed the get-up-and-go which marked its 1959 conquests. The Orangemen, ranked third nationally, mauled West Virginia 45-0 in preparation for its meeting Saturday with big and tough Pittsburgh, which crushed the same team 42-0 the week before. Pitt may have been looking ahead when it tied Texas Christian 7-7 Saturday.

Fourth-ranked Navy, viewed as prime Rose Bowl material, smothered Pennsylvania 27-0. Missouri, No. 5, which looks like the top power of the Big Eight Conference, won easily over Iowa State 34-8 with the aid of an 88-yard punt return by Donnie Smith. Minnesota, No. 6 and surprise of the Big Ten, won its little brown jug clash with Michigan, 10-0.

Doomed of the conference last year, Murray Warmath's Minnesotans suddenly have emerged as a strong title threat. They tackled Iowa Nov. 5 in a game which should bring not only the championship but a fat bowl bit to the winner. Ninth-ranked Ohio State continues a factor, particularly after its decisive 34-7 victory over Wisconsin.

THE SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE RACE, in which the winner automatically qualifies for the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, shapes up as a two-team battle between Baylor and Rice. Baylor, No. 7 nationally, turned Texas A&M into its fifth straight victim 14-0 while Rice, which has dropped only an opener, to outside Georgia Tech, humbled Texas 7-0.

Washington, with a No. 8 ranking despite a loss to Navy, continues to solidify its position as probable Rose Bowl host. The Huskies fought back from a 0-12 deficit and whipped Oregon State 30-29 in the feature game on the Pacific coast.

There are no bowl worries in the Ivy League where unbeaten Yale and improving Princeton are moving toward their climactic clash Nov. 12. Yale's Eli won their fifth in the Frank Meriwell tradition when Bob Blanchard ran a blocked punt back 99 yards in a 36-14 victory over Colgate. Princeton cashed in on its conversions for a 21-18 verdict over Cornell.

Interpreting the News Prestige Leaks Will Hurt U. S.

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst

So many leaks have occurred about the surveys of American prestige abroad that the United States will now be required to publish them just to keep people from thinking they are worse than the real thing.

Judging from unofficial reports, the first one doesn't make very good propaganda. A general view in the free world that the United States is militarily inferior to Soviet Russia is dangerous whether it is correct or not.

IT CAUSES other nations to start reflecting on the value of their alliances, and if it persists into some time of great crisis, could produce defections.

There was little doubt that American political prestige had dropped in the weeks immediately after U2. There has been a general feeling, however, that it had gone up again since the convening of the United Nations General Assembly.

This is different, however, from acceptance of the belief that the United States is in secondary military position.

One thing people would like to know is whether the previous surveys show ups and downs, and whether the foreign concept of American military power has shown any tendency to go up and down along with political prestige.

THEY WOULD also like to know more of the basis for the reports. There is, for instance, general agreement that Russia is ahead of the United States in rocket development for space probes because her rockets have greater thrust. But from a strictly military standpoint, relative strength is not enhanced by range beyond what is needed. Have such points been kept close by the surveyors?

Did the surveyors ask merely about the United States, or was there a tabulation, too, of the effectiveness of her mutual aid program, whereby billions of dollars of her own military production has been allotted for use in an emergency by other nations?

This, too, is a definite part of the United States defense posture. If there is doubt among the free world nations as to the U.S. defense posture, is there a factor in it involving doubt of their own intentions?

There are considerations involved in the publication of such surveys which go far beyond any immediate effect on the presidential campaign. Relations with other countries are involved. The attitude of the American people toward their allies is involved. All the facts, not part of them, are involved.

Champ Aids Boy Afflicted By Leukemia

WARRENVILLE, N. J. (AP)—The little champ's losing battle with leukemia was eased a mile by gifts and visits from the big champ.

The 13-year-old boy, heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson and John Olsen, a former Boy Scout and Little League star, died Oct. 21.

The big moment in the boy's life came when Patterson presented him with the gloves he wore in capturing the world championship from Ingemar Johansson.

The boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Olsen, said Monday that Patterson had insisted for a year that no publicity be given to his visits, calls and gifts to the dying boy.

The friendship began a year ago shortly after the Olsens learned their son had leukemia. A mutual friend arranged for a meeting between Johnny and Patterson, who had trained for his first Johansson fight in the area.
