MAMMOTH DEMONSTRATION TO HONOR STATE GRIDIRON HEROES; DECREE HALF-HOLIDAY MONDAY

Former Captain, President Shaw, Coaches Scheduled to Lead Student Body in Enthusiastic Rehearsal of Crowley Men's Exploits During Past Season

Next Monday morning has been set aside by college authorities as a Spartan holiday to do honor to Michigan's "Iron men" at the close of the successful football season which they have experienced this fall.

All classes are excused from 8 to 12 and the first event of organized celebration begins with the all-college convocation and mass meeting scheduled for 8:30 at demonstration hall. This event will be centered largely about a program in which Michigan's state's recent achievements on the gridiron are to be rehearsed and glorified by numerous well known speakers.

The present list of those who have been asked to talk at the convocation includes Miss Miller, captain of the football team in 1931; President H. H. Shaw, Coach James H. Crowley, Assistant Coach Judge Carberry and Mike Casteel, Ralph H. Young, director of athletics, L. E. Priddy, assistant director of athletics, and T. A. Hannah. This list includes a group of speakers who are all well known at college gatherings for their ability to arouse interest and enthusiasm in whatever event may be at hand.

Speeches at this convocation will all be short so that the total time for the program is not expected to exceed one hour. For the remainder of the morning, from 9:30 to 12, an all-college mixer has been planned with orchestra playing at the Armory and Union buildings.

These events which are being demanded for Spartan Day will be in charge of Student Council members and a large attendance is expected at both the convocation and dances.

This establishment of a Spartan holiday at the close of the football season represents a move on the part of the Student Council and college authorities to promote organized celebration of football heroes if sufficient response and interest is shown by the student body toward this Spartan Day it will undoubtedly become one of the annual events on the campus.

FLOOD-LIGHTS BEING PLACED

Equip Mary Mayo Hall and Wood Shop Building With Huge Spotlights

By following a timely plan of installing floodlights on various buildings throughout the campus the college authorities hope to reduce the danger of thefts and accidents and night prowling.

Mary Mayo Hall is already equipped with floodlights on the two light towers on the roof which radiate light over the entire building. The flood lighting of the new student building is under consideration.

Secretary Haldeman believes the success of this plan is assured because of the reliability and power of the electric advantage of comparison with the cost of permanent lighting.

These events which are being demanded for Spartan Day will be in charge of Student Council members and a large attendance is expected at both the convocation and dances.

FORTY MEN ON POLO GROUPS

Teams Are Preparing for Annual Clash With 119th Field Artillery

The distribution of 40 former members of the 119th Field Artillery and Michigan Cavalry Regt. H. A. T. polo teams, which will participate in the annual polo match between the two teams, is being completed by the college authorities.

PIANOS ADDED TO ABBOT HALL

Arrival of Seven Upright Instruments Completes Installation

The arrival of seven upright models last Tuesday completed the equipping of Abbot Hall with new pianos throughout. There is now a piano in every room of the building, which was remodeled from a co-ed dormitory and was recently acquired by the music department.

Twenty new pianos in all have been provided for the new hall by the M. S. C. Institute of Music and Allied Arts. Eight of them are grand pianos for use in the studios. The other twelve are upright pianos for use in the practice rooms. The pianos were secured from the Cable Piano company of Chicago.

The change to new pianos in all the rooms gives all music students the benefit of working with new instruments.

LITTLE HOPE FOR RECOVERY OF S. MORGAN

Broken Back, Resulting From Fall From Window, Endangers Life

EDGERTON IMPROVING

Sophomore, Injured by Hit-and-Run Driver, in Better Condition

Little hope for the ultimate recovery of Stewart Morgan, Michigan State sophomore who broke his back in a fall from his bedroom window Wednesday, was held out this morning by medical figures working on the case.

Morgan, a forestry student, fell asleep in a window of his room at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Morgan, 521 Sunset Lane, early Wednesday morning when he had gone to watch the rising of a rain storm. He evidently fell his back and slipped out of the window to the ground 30 feet below.

His condition, according to the doctors, is such that he will probably never be able to walk again. He is now in the hospital at the University of Michigan, where he is being treated by Dr. J. H. Edgerton.

State Battles Titans At Detroit Tomorrow

SOCIETY POSTPONES MEET

L'Alliance Francaise French society will not meet on next Tuesday on account of the Detroit Symphony orchestra concert.

The next meeting of the society will be on the second Tuesday in December.

A columnist at South Carolina picked out eleven names of football players over the country and grouped them in one fantastic team. How would you like to have a squad like this opposing you? Savage, Thrasher, Lee, Hamber, Knuckles, May, Stab, Mock, Anger and Blood. At least it would be psychologically depressing.

Students must sleep best in the sanctum of the Columbia University library. The students must either retain their jackets or dress themselves of both coat and jacket. The idea is that a vestless or a jacketed student body makes a more favorable impression.

PATRONIZE THE ADVERTISERS

Spartan Side-Lines BY VAN

Confidence

Coach Gus Dorais and his University of Detroit Titans are confident that they will take the Crowleymen into camp tomorrow afternoon. Dorais says that a Michigan State grid team has never won a decision over an eleven of his and that the game this year will be no exception to the rule. The Titan grid mentor has been very frank in asserting that the Spartans will be outclassed tomorrow despite the fact that the presence of Monnett and Khowitz may cause the Maroon to extend themselves more than ordinary. Perhaps Dorais is right. Maybe the University of Detroit will win tomorrow. Maybe the moon is made of green cheese, but we don't believe it.

Gross and Fase

The Detroit game will mark the passing of two athletes who have been on the greatest grid teams Michigan State has seen in recent years. Capt. Milton Gross, stellar midget guard, and Jake Fase, big end, will be playing their last college football game. Gross, despite his size, has been one of the mainstays of the Spartan line for the last three years. Fase this year rose to his greatest heights as one of State's great ends. His play in the Syracuse game brought him widespread recognition.

Saline, Michigan, is mighty proud of "Cappy." He is the greatest athlete ever turned out by that place and the townspeople write poetry and have parades in his honor. Now they are contemplating putting a statue of him in front of the town hall and maybe the Saline

SPARTANS CONCEDED SLIGHT EDGE IN SEASON'S LAST GAME WITH POWERFUL DETROITERS

Game Tomorrow Will Be Tenth Meeting of Two Schools on Gridiron; Michigan State Has Won Four Games and So Have Titans; Game Last Year Ended in Scoreless Tie.

Michigan State's rugged football team plays its last game of the season tomorrow afternoon when the Spartans invade Dinan field, Detroit, to do battle with the University of Detroit Titans. Unless Governor Wilber M. Brucker requests the Crowleymen to don their uniforms in a charity game the football equipment will be packed away until another spring rolls around.

Coach Jimmy Crowley's men will invade the Titan arena favorites to win their first victory over the Doraismen since '23, when the "Aggies" scored a 2-0 upset over a powerful "T" of D. eleven coached by "Germany" Schultz. On the basis of their battle last week in the Wolverine bowl at Ann Arbor the Spartans are conceded the odds to win the game.

The teams will be fighting this year for the retention of the Harold Smead trophy, a beautiful silver cup dedicated to State's captain of last year who was unable to lead his team due to an automobile accident during the summer. This official symbol of victory in the annual classic was instituted last year by the members of Xi Chapter of Alpha Epsilon Pi, national book fraternity.

Tomorrow's game will be the tenth encounter between grid teams of the two institutions. In the nine games played to date each school has won four victories, last year's encounter played in the Spartan stadium resulting in the only deadlock of the series. A crowd of over 20,000 grid fans is expected to set a new attendance record for the season at the Titan's home field.

Coach Crowley and his proteges have come to the realization that the Detroit game will be one of the toughest battles they have staged this year. If the Spartans emerge with a win it will be because they put everything into the game and the meeting tomorrow will be far from a walk-away for either grid team. The Titans have many stars from last year's team back this year and they will be glad to show their followers that they can better the scoreless tie that was recorded at East Lansing last year. The Spartans will run into plenty of trouble when they back up against such men as O'Neill, Parsons, Harkott, Merrin, Bee, Shimmer, Harkott, and Brock. Rocky Rasmussen, former Grand Haven star, was a great facility in last year's meeting of the two teams but so far this season he has shown outstanding form. He is a field general of no mean ability and it may be his toe that will decide the game.

Detroit Desperate

Detroit's record this season has not been all that it might have been. The first game of the season which was termed a practice session, back-fired and the Titans lost to DePaul. Fordham trampled them underfoot two weeks ago when the Doraismen invaded the "Paw grounds." New York City in an attempt to halt Coach DeVanough's men, last Saturday the Titans expected to down a Villanova team handily but had to be contented with a scoreless tie. Coach Dorais and his men have made many caustic remarks about Spartan methods and ability this week and tomorrow afternoon will attempt to prove their self alleged superiority over the Crowleymen.

Perfect Defense

Monday and Tuesday this week were practically a vacation for the Spartan gridlers who were granted a chance to get some much needed rest. Intensive preparation for the Titan game did not start until Wednesday and actual scrimmage was not indulged in until last night. Coach Crowley wasn't much impressed with the showing his men made in practice Wednesday night and he was not showing telling signs they would have to show vast improvement if they were to come home with a win this weekend. The

Iron Men

Michigan State's gridlers are called iron men because they have played practically an entire season with virtually no substitutions. What are they going to call the players on the Sing Sing team who have the opportunity of playing for Dear Old Pen the rest of their lives.

Long and Short

Coach Ben F. VanAlstyne, Spartan court mentor will have to place much of his confidence this year in two veteran cagers from last year's squad. In Dee Pimmo and Randy Boskoff he possesses perhaps the most unusual combination a Spartan basketball coach has ever felt heir to. Pimmo has collected a rare assortment of half-pint athletes during his career in college. Boskoff, on the other hand has a rare assortment of bean pole synonyms. Coach Van Alstyne can build his style of play in two ways this season. If it is built around Pimmo it will be below the knees. If it is built around Boskoff it will be up in the rafters.

"They keep tasting better and better to me!"

Every Chesterfield is like every other one. No matter how many you smoke, the last Chesterfield of the day is just as smooth and sweet—as cool and comfortable—as the first.

They're milder, too! Chesterfield uses only mild, ripe, sweet tobaccos—the smoothest and ripest that grow.

Notice, too, how white and fine the paper is. It's the purest that money can buy.

All this care...to make Chesterfields taste better—to make them milder. And millions of Chesterfield smokers say it in their own way—"They Satisfy!"
