And now I have some good news for all dance fans. Jan Garber is coming. Yes sir, despite all of the difficulty in hocking up an arrangement with America's ace band, the fact that they will be in town April 12 is now a reality. Which should set your feet to tingling. The affair, I understand is to be lield in the Armory in Lansing at a price everyone can afford. I won't need to repeat how well-known Garber is III, and his music have taken thenation by sform in the last year and he is ranked by many as the sweetest band, now going. The party should be a real red letter day in the history of local society. A wrek ago I would have said that his coming would be an impossibility, but now I can Say II's So.
