MILITARY DEPT. ANNOUNCES NEW CADET OFFICERS

Eight Promotions Made In Both Commissioned and Non-Commissioned Ranks.

Announcement of the promotions and appointments of commissioned and non-commissioned officers in the infantry unit of the R. O. T. C. were made last week by Captain Ernest Johns. These officers will serve in this capacity during the spring term.

Eight promotions were made in the commissioned ranks. Clifford C. Hall and John C. Rappleyea, cadet captains, were made majors. The following were appointed cadet captains: William O. VanGelsien, Russell VanMeter and Joseph Waffa, all formerly first lieutenants; Harold R. Hays, Harry E. Rush and Carl S. Turner were named as second lieutenants.

Eight more promotions were made in the non-commissioned ranks. As first sergeants, Gerald H. Reynolds and Walter F. Muhlnterm were named; Gordon H. Jarman and Ward Estes were appointed color sergeants; Morgan A. McDermott, sergeant, and Orville W. Retzger, Donald H. Klute and Vernon E. Hansen as corporals complete the list of appointments.

The officers serving under these appointments will in a large measure be responsible for the unit in the drills, which will take place during the spring term. Tomorrow a sham battle will take place, which will be conducted under the command of the student cadet officers. The week in parades are also directed by the student cadets.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR SENIOR WEEK

Activities Begin With Cap Night June 9; End With Commencement June 21.

Final arrangements have been completed for the June commencement activities for the graduating class of 1926, which will start with the cap night ceremony on the evening of June 9 and end with the commencement exercises in the Forest of Arden, June 21.

The cap night ceremony will start the week. Thursday, June 10, the annual senior water carnival will be held on the Red Cedar river. This furnishes one of the colorful events of the year. On the following Tuesday, June 15, the annual senior play will be given in the Forest of Arden. In the past this production has been one of the Shakespearean productions, but a slight diversion from the usual course is in store this year in George Henry Robertson's "Francesca da Rimini," a recent Italian tragedy. The Forest of Arden furnishes a unique outdoor amphitheatre for dramatic productions. Friday, June 18 will be a busy day with the band concert at 4:30, and society parties during the evening.

Saturday, June 19 will be alumni day, and in keeping with the occasion, several events are listed. Registration will be made in the Union Memorial building early. At 10 o'clock in the morning, there will be the dedication of a tablet in the Union Memorial building to the Michigan State war veterans. At 12 o'clock the alumni luncheon will be held in the Union. At 3 o'clock, the annual alumni-variety baseball conflict is scheduled, while class dinners will be held at 8:30 in the Union. The president's reception and the alumni dances will be held at 8:30 in the Union ballroom.

President Knayton L. Butterfield will address the class in the Little Theatre at 1:30 o'clock, June 20. The bazaar luncheon services will be held in the People's church at 7 o'clock. Dr. Lloyd C. Douglas, pastor of the First Congregational church, Akron, Ohio.

TERMINATE CO-ED DEBATE SEASON

Audience Votes State Debaters 55-31 Decision Over Detroit Trio.

The Michigan State debating season was completed last Thursday night when the Michigan State co-ed affirmative debaters defeated the Detroit City college negative team in a decision rendered by the audience, 55 to 31. At the same time the negative co-ed team engaged in a no-decision debate with the Detroit City college affirmative team in the college auditorium at Detroit.

In the debate in the Little Theatre, Dorothy Robinson, Florence Albright and Ellen Farley were the members of the State affirmative team. Michigan State was represented in Detroit by Thelma Estelle, Jetta Thompson and Elizabeth Sackett.

Dignified Seniors to Revert to Childhood on Stunt Days

No dignified seniors will grace the campus or the classroom for the next three consecutive Thursdays. Rather in their places will be a group, reverted to their childhood days, and appropriately bedecked. The reason for this absence of supposedly dignified and intellectual persons on the campus is one of tradition.

The first unveiling of the senior plans will be on Thursday of this week, when the first of a series of three senior stunt days will be in vogue. The senior men, athletes and all, will be seen gaily strapping across the campus, wearing straw or derby lids. All will be rolling hoops, some in a fashion of true childhood endeavor, others more awkward, and not a few extremely delighted, to say the least, at being able to engage in one of their favorite pastimes.

Not to leave the dear would-be barefoot boys in the lurch, or be

LANGUAGE STUDENTS FORM SPANISH CLUB

Organization Begins With Fourteen Charter Members; de la Garza Elected President.

The first attempt at a language club on the local campus was made in the organization of a Spanish club last Thursday night with 14 charter members.

The following officers were elected: President, Dario de la Garza; secretary, Genevieve Lane; treasurer, Margaret Caswood.

Plans were formulated for a picnic to be held Saturday, May 1. Regular meetings will be held from noon on each Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock in room 213, Ag hall.

CELEBRATION WEEK PLANNED FOR NEW PEOPLE'S CHURCH

Prominent Speakers to Appear On Week's Program Starting May 11.

In honor of the completion and opening of the new People's church a week's celebration has been planned. A number of prominent speakers will appear on each of the evening programs, which start Tuesday night, May 11.

Tuesday a big "victory banquet" will be held with Prof. H. T. Rhoads, former president of Alma college, as the main speaker of the evening.

Wednesday afternoon will be given over to the women of the church, followed by a special meeting in the evening at which Dr. James Jeffrey of Detroit will speak. Wednesday has been designated as "Religious Education day." The class room and Sunday school department dedication will also take place on Wednesday.

Thursday night has been set aside as all-college night. A special effort is being made to have as many of the students present at the banquet as possible. President K. L. Butterfield will be the principal speaker.

Friday night is to be Lansing night. Many prominent Lansing men will be present for the banquet. All members of Lansing luncheon clubs have been invited to attend.

PAVED SHORTCUT ROAD TO SAGINAW BEING PLANNED

East Lansing business men are visualizing an advantage to the college city in the proposed federal aid highway program now under discussion. It is planned to pave a road, through East Lansing, from Lansing to Saginaw and Bay City via Orosco. This will facilitate transportation to Saginaw and Bay City, making for more direct communication with these points.

The cap night ceremony will start the week. Thursday, June 10, the annual senior water carnival will be held on the Red Cedar river. This furnishes one of the colorful events of the year. On the following Tuesday, June 15, the annual senior play will be given in the Forest of Arden. COMPLETE PLANS FOR NEW CHEM BUILDING

New College Barns to Be Built On South Side of Red Cedar.

The college building committee authorized the construction of new horse barns in connection with the building program. It was announced last Saturday. The barns will be built across the river.

It was also stated that the plans and specifications for the new $600,000 chemistry building will be completed within a short time, and bids will be solicited as soon as the funds which were appropriated during the last regular session of the legislature, are available. This building will be erected south of the agriculture and dairy buildings on the campus.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA TICKETS NOW ON SALE

On Sale at Grinnell's Music Store; Concert to Be Held May 18.

Tickets are now on sale at Grinnell's music store for the Chicago Symphony orchestra concert at East Lansing, May 18.

The program has not yet been revealed, but it is rumored that "After Walt Whitman," the recent successful symphony by Eric DeLamar, is being included in the numbers for the evening concert. The orchestra will bring 70 players to East Lansing and will present matinee and evening performances in the new People's church auditorium.

College Health Service Enjoys Great Popularity with Students

Not only is our college health service one of the best known institutions of Michigan State, but it enjoys real popularity. According to the nurses, the patients after a few days' sojourn actually enjoy themselves, and dislike leaving. More startling than this, however, is the fact that some of State's young hopefuls have tried to get in for evidently nothing more than a rest cure; when the hospital authorities asked for proof of their disability they weren't even able to furnish a respectable cough.

The health service under the direction of Dr. R. M. Olin, state health commissioner, has been an exceedingly valuable asset to the college and has some noteworthy achievements to its credit. The most outstanding example, of course, was the way in which the famous typhoid epidemic was handled. Before the epidemic was known of, just one girl reported to the service. Within three hours all the girls who had made the trip had been brought in and given the Widal test. In a very short time and with nothing more than this feeble clue, the source of the germs had been traced down and preventive and curative measures were under way. As a result, eight girls were confined in the hospital, the last one leaving April 2.

It is especially notable that all the cases handled at the college hospital "pulled through," although there were serious doubts about one girl. A number of fatalities were reported among outside cases. Much honor is due Dr. Olin and his staff for their remarkable work.

There have been several other large epidemics also, including measles, mumps, chicken pox and particularly the flu. These diseases have been prevalent chiefly during vacation periods. They have been well-handled, although there was little else to do but take care of the cases as they were presented at the service, it having been shown that it was inadvisable to make a general roundup of all those exposed to any of the various maladies on account of the fact that so many students had suffered with them in childhood. During these epidemics the service has been at somewhat of a disadvantage because of crowded quarters and cramped conditions. Expansion is rather necessary and will be welcomed.

Among other interesting things are the novel fire-escapes which the hospital is fitted, and which have excited a great deal of comment and speculation among students and passers-by. These escapes are distinctly advantageous, but as yet are rather uncommon in this section of the country, though there are a number in the west.

Perhaps the most striking thing about the hospital is the list of diseases treated, which, along with other statistics, hangs in the entrance. From it one gathers the information that hundreds of students were treated during the preceding term, who were suffering with everything from migraine to pediculosis vestimentis, not to omit inebriated tuberculosis, hypertrophied turbs, hordeolum and ingrown toe-nail, nor the 145 cases of pharyngitis and 164 of scurvy, which last was evidently the most popular.

ECZEMA TO BE ON SALE WEDNESDAY

Eight Initiates of Pi Delta Epsilon to Turn Newsboys Wednesday Morning.

The eczema, the annual Michigan State college scandal sheet, will be published and placed on sale tomorrow morning by the 1926 initiates of Pi Delta Epsilon national journalistic fraternity.

Eight new members are being initiated this year and these men, known on the campus for their active participation in college publications work, will turn newsboys early Wednesday morning and will sell the Eczema on the campus and in East Lansing throughout the day.

The Eczema is intentionally and extremely a "razz sheet." Prominent campus figures have been chosen as the victims of satirical, humorous and purely imaginative news stories.

The price will be 10 cents per copy and the money that is derived from the sale, after paying printing and engraving costs, will go toward sending a delegate of the Michigan state college chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon to the national convention next September.

U. OF M. EXTENSION CHIEF TO ADDRESS CONVOCATION

Dr. W. D. Henderson to Speak On "Human Nature and the Changing Order"

"Human Nature and the Changing Order" will be the subject of Dr. W. D. Henderson who will address convocation Wednesday, April 28. Dr. Henderson is director of extension service for the University of Michigan. He has the reputation of being a vigorous, vital and inspiring speaker—one who is very much worth while.

This convocation will be held in the Union building at 11 a. m., Wednesday, April 28.

WOLVERINE TO BE DELIVERED AT EARLY DATE

Half of Material in Hands Of Printers; Remainder to Be Finished Soon.

That the Wolverine, Michigan State college yearbook, will be delivered by May 25 was indicated today by Norval Tyrrell, editor. This is believed to be the earliest date at which an annual has been put in the hands of the students.

Practically one-half of the pages which go to make up the book are in the hands of the Lansing printing concern which is handling it, Mr. Tyrrell said. The other pages will be finished in the near future and everything points to an early printing of the book.

One of the features of this year's annual will be two cartoons by nationally famous cartoonists. One of these is by John Held, Jr., and the other by Blosser, who does the comic strip called "Freckles and His Friends." These two cartoons were furnished the Wolverine staff through the courtesy of the artists who were requested earlier in the year to contribute to the book.

RELIGIOUS COUNCIL TO RECRUIT MEMBERS

This week is going to be a busy week for the members of the religious council. Each representative is to be out armed with instructions to get ten or more new members for the People's church. These new members will constitute the class which is to be taken into the church on dedication day.

Anyone desiring to join may do so by making application to Mr. Weaver, R. W. Grim, D. J. Weddell or "Shorty" McLean.

SHAM BATTLE TO BE STAGED WEDNESDAY

Parade to Be Reviewed by Adjutant General John L. Bersey and Col. Frank B. Hawkins.

Adjutant General John L. Bersey and Col. Frank B. Hawkins, senior instructor in the national guard, will review the R. O. T. C. in the weekly parade Wednesday afternoon. Following the inspection the infantry unit will stage a sham battle on the college drill field.

Capt. Ernest John is in charge of the exhibition which will include all methods of attack and defense, and the use of machine guns, howitzers, trench mortars, with a smoke screen to cover the advance of the assault platoon.

The struggle will take place in front of the college hospital where a machine gun nest is playing on the grove by the armory. The assault platoon, under cover of the trees, will advance, send out scouts, and establish a skirmish line across the drill field, eventually seizing the machine gun nest and taking many prisoners. The war promises to be very realistic and noisy, as blank cartridges and shells will be employed.

SENIOR GIRLS TO ATTEMPT TO ABOLISH CLASS FEUDS

Hope to Change Antagonistic Spirit Existing Between Junior and Senior Classes.

At the senior girls' class meeting which will be held Wednesday, the important problem of the junior and senior class feuds will be discussed. There is some hope of changing this antagonistic spirit, which has existed between the two classes, into one of friendship by means of an inter-class picnic and roast. The girls are going to further the plans for a "Lantern night."

LEWIS BROTHERS TO OPEN HABERDASHERY IN E. L.

Lewis Brothers, clothing and haberdashery, will formally open the first shop at the College Apartment building, at the corner of Abbot road and Albert street, Wednesday, April 28.

George J. Clark, formerly with the Davis importing firm and well known in Lansing business circles, will open the shop formally in person on that date. The store is to be known as the Lewis Brothers College Store.

SECURE ANOTHER LIBERAL ARTS ENTERTAINMENT

Lecture "Ultimate America" Is Fascinating Illustrated Story.

An additional entertainment has been secured on the college Liberal Arts entertainment series, an illustrated lecture by Frederick Vining Fisher, which will be given Wednesday, May 12 at 8:15 in the gymnasium.

"Ultimate America" is the name of the lecture which is a fascinating story of the romantic southwest illustrated with 250 hand-painted dissolving views.

Frederick Vining Fisher, lecturer, author and traveler, has gained an enviable reputation in all parts of the United States as a leader in his field. He has spoken in nearly every state in the Union and has filled requests for return engagements in some of the largest cities.

A New Englander by ancestry, a New Yorker by birth, a Yale man by education and a Californian by residence, few men are as well fitted to interpret the great west to the east and to grasp continent wide America. He has climbed the Rockies, explored the southwest, sailed Alaska waters, tramped the high Sierras, and lived for years by the Pacific ocean.

To interpret America visualized upon the screen, to open to the world the vision of the greatness of the continent, to grasp the significance of its world position and to weigh America in terms of world civilization is the chief mission of Mr. Fisher's lecture.

The lecture and the themes he presents are greatly reinforced by the most modern, finest and expensive double dissolving stereopticon machine, obtainable operated by a trained and experienced assistant. These lectures have been called "Lectures with stereopticon obligato."

CO-EDS HAVE BIG TIME AT PROM

Thematics Take Prize for Original Costumes; Practice House First In Stunts.

The co-ed prom is a thing of the past! Regrettably the girls are thinking of the evening that will never return again until next year, of the fun enjoyed which will never again be exactly duplicated. The prom was carried out successfully, amid screams of girlish laughter and wailing strains from entranced musicians. Prizes were awarded, and received as follows:

The prize for originality of costume was given to the Thematic society, the members of which were attired as rabbits with fuzzy little tails and pink floppy ears. First prize for stunt presented was awarded the (Continued on page 3)

Foresters Throw Shindig in Armory; Bar Tenders Kept Busy

"Did you go to the big time at the armory Saturday night? Well, you missed the peppiest party on the campus. The foresters threw a shindig. The handsome brutes wore lumberjack suits which certainly were different. Overalls are so common and not the least bit good-looking. Their women wore gingham dresses or knickers. The son of the big lumber king mingled with his father's help and dressed as they did with one exception—he wore a derby hat."

The armory was transformed into a second hand great open space and the lights turned green with envy watching the revelry below them. The main attraction of the evening was "Last Chance Bar," superintended by two bartenders who were imported from the past for the special occasion. Free drinks on tap. Footrests furnished free of charge. Before intermission the bar was sold out and was unable to get in touch with that "certain party", much to the disappointment of everyone present. The merriment of the party was silenced several times by the firing of guns. Girls screamed but were informed by the handsome brutes that someone was only shooting a Dan McGrew.

Paul Banyon's Seven Azemen furnished the music for dancing. Amy were not in evidence. The foresters know their trees. The Dead Wood was comprised of Prof. and Mrs. Chittenden, Prof. and Mrs. Herbert, Prof. and Mrs. DeCamp, Mr. and Mrs. Kroedema, Prof. and Mrs. Barquist, Prof. and Mrs. Stack, Dan Drown and Fay Hysand.

GIVE US A CHANCE AT THE LIBRARY

Our attention has been called to the seemingly inadequate hours at the library. It does not seem to us that the building should close as early as it does on week nights and Sunday. At present the library is closed at 5 o'clock on Sunday and at 9 o'clock the rest of the week.

In the old days, when the college was composed entirely of Ag students, who went to bed at 9:30 so they might get up with the sun, these early hours at the library may have been satisfactory. But we no longer retire when the dew begins to fall. With the present college course it is not possible to do the required amount of studying during the day. Students must do practically all of their library work at night, and the open hours at night do not seem to us to be sufficient.

We find that 50 per cent of all the students who use the library at night are still there at closing time. We find also that there are approximately five times as many students use the library Sunday afternoon as Sunday forenoon. Why not give the same library privileges that they deserve? Most college libraries are open at least until 10 o'clock at night and some even later.

It seems to us the library might well be closed Sunday morning and in any event open at least one hour later every night, Sunday included.

BASEBALL SUPPORT

It has been a long understood fact that athletes in football and basketball can fight work, and play harder under the urge of student spirit and cheering, but what about a baseball team? Are they immune from the contagion of unified support and applause? Do they perform at their best before silent stands and a quiet crowd? Not so, we think. The acrobats of the diamond need an expression of student spirit behind them at all times, if only for the sole purpose of causing them to realize that there are some students who are giving them their whole-hearted support.

In the past there has been an absence of cheer leaders and cheering at all of our intercollegiate baseball games. The only noise to break the chilly quietness has been cat-calls directed toward an opposing pitcher and intermittent individual cheering.

Our cheer leaders (plural or singular) might do well as an experiment at some game in the future to show the baseball team that, after all, the students of Michigan State are back of them to the limit and willing to assist them in any way to a victorious season.

UNION BUILDING GAINS POPULARITY

Class Meetings and Convocation On Program; Fresh and Seniors to Hold Parties.

With students being urged to make still greater use of the Union building, this campus center is already facing a season of many affairs. Every week-end date for the remainder of the year is now booked for some student activity, either social or administrative. June 12 has been set as the date for the annual senior spring party, and with the freshmen contracting to hold sway with their spring event on May 12, the last two week-end dates for this term were filled the past week, according to Manager McCarthy.

Gatherings not social in their nature are also rapidly becoming a part of the daily Union schedule. The junior class of 1927 now holds the honor of having been the first class to ever hold a business meeting in the new building. The juniors convened in the Union last Wednesday. Manager McCarthy expresses the sentiment held toward meetings of this nature by saying that the Union will gladly cooperate for such affairs as class meetings, and class committee meetings being held in the building as far as possible. With a seating capacity of approximately 1600, the Union is fairly well able to handle such affairs as have recently become a part of the program. It is in this way that the Union management hopes to create greater enthusiasm among the students for using the building, and get them to show greater interest in events of the Union in general.

ERECT NEW WEATHER BUREAU HOME SOON

Old Landmark Torn Down To Make Way for New Building.

Construction is planned to begin immediately on the new weather bureau building which will cost $38,000 and will be much larger than the present structure which the weather bureau officials and assistants have occupied for more than 15 years.

With the planning of the new building another of the historic edifices on the Michigan State college campus has been destroyed and has gone the way of all old landmarks. The house, occupied for many years by Prof. H. H. Pettit, head of the college entomology department, was of frame construction, and surrounded so closely by trees before the new pavement was built that few knew of its existence.

Funds for the new building will probably be available this spring after the bill now under consideration has passed both houses and received the signature of President Coolidge.

The first gladiolus show, staged by the Michigan Gladiolus society, organized two months ago in Grand Rapids, will take place in the new Hort building August 27 and 28, according to E. R. Are You Going Into the Bond Business?

There is a cycle of fashion not only for the hats college men wear but for the line of work into which they go.

But your job has to fit your head as well as your hat, for it has to fit your state of mind.

Like your hat also, your job needs to fit your purse.

Therefore, why not choose one that brings not only satisfaction in service but in financial return. Selling life insurance is one of the few modern businesses that does just this.

It takes: Intelligence, Zest and Ability

It gives: Liberty of action, the philosophic satisfaction of selling future security and present serenity to living people, and a response, immediate and tangible, in monetary as well as mental reward.

The Social Whirl

Edited by

Kappa Delta House

With the annual Forestry Shindig and the Co-Ed Prom both coming at the same time, a "masquerade week-end" was apparent. The Alumni-Union party, Columbian, Trimolra, Delphic and Ae Theon open houses, along with many initiations, complete the social activities of the past week.

Co-Ed Prom

The Union building was the scene of much gaily Friday evening when more than 200 girls, dressed in strange costumes, danced to the music of Satterla's orchestra. Soft shaded lights made a pretty background for the unique figures, while balloons, squawkers and confetti filled the air.

The Practice house girls won a silver vase for the best stunt, with Kappa Delta coming second. Physics Troutman and Louise Luce dressed as modern soldiers were declared the most striking couple. The chemists as "bunnies" were rated the most original, while Helen Anderson, Alice McWood and Magdalene Alger impersonating cannibals were the funniest.

Mrs. K. L. Butterfield, Dean Krueger and Mrs. H. H. Halladay were patrons for the prom and the wives of the deans were guests.

representatives of Practice house, and the second prize was given the Kappa Delta sorority. The prize for the funniest costume was awarded to three cannibals, as portrayed by Magdalene Alger, Helen Anderson and Alice McWood.

All prophecies failed to achieve the glory of the prom when it was finally "pulled off" according to the enthusiastic co-eds, who gaily paid their 50 cents admission to the only affair which belongs entirely to the girls of Michigan State.

A few men there were, as could not be avoided, indispensable men such as waiters and orchestra members. Men also were required to work at the main desk in the building, but aside from their presence the matter was confined entirely to the feminine members of the campus, with the exception of some of our brawny gridiron heroes who proved the Darwinian theory by hanging up in the nearby trees to view the affair.

STATE TO MEET NEW TENNIS TEAM BREAKS RIVALS THIS YEAR EVEN ON LAST TRIP

Notre Dame, Marquette and State Defeat U. of D. 5-2 But Lose To University 7-0; City College Here Friday.

According to Director of Athletics Ralph H. Young, Michigan State will meet new rivals during the present outdoor track season. This new movement, which centers around Notre Dame, Marquette university and Michigan State is in no sense a movement to form a new conference. Teams from Western Conference and the Missouri Valley conference will be barred, but all teams in the middle west not affiliated with either of these organizations will be invited to compete.

This has been necessitated by the fact that the above mentioned schools have been barred by a new ruling of Western Conference officials from the Big Ten outdoor meet. To enter into a meet where more than mediocre competition will be met, the large schools not eligible to compete in the older organizations have solved the problem by forming an informal conference of their own. C. M. Jennings of Marquette, Knute K. Rockne of Notre Dame and Director Young of State are the principals in the movement. At present the plan in view is to hold a track meet at Marquette this spring, a cross country race at East Lansing next fall, and an indoor meet at South Bend, Ind., next winter.

State college's tennis team returned to East Lansing Sunday after a two day trip, taking on the University of Detroit and the University of Michigan in tennis matches. State found little trouble in downing the Detroiters, taking two doubles and one single matches, winning 5-2. It was a different story when the Maize and Blue courtmen were encountered, the Wolverines winning all of the matches and taking the meet, 7-0.

Lawrence of State defeated Devine, amateur tennis champion of Detroit, in straight sets, and Stott duplicated Lawrence's feat by overcoming Erwin of Detroit in straight sets. The only match State lost was Francois' victory over Pierson.

Summary:
Singles—Lawrence, State, defeated Devine, U. of D., 6-2, 7-5; Stott, State, defeated Erwin, U. of D., 6-4, 6-3; Francois, U. of D., defeated Pierson, State, 6-1, 5-7, 6-4; Hendershott and Stouffer, State, defeated the second U. of D. doubles team by default.

Krickbaum, Michigan, defeated Lawrence, State, 6-3, 4-6, 7-5; Crane, Michigan, defeated Stouffer, State, 5-7, 6-4, 6-3; Vose, Michigan, defeated Hendershott, State, 3-6, 6-2, 6-4; Gillan, Michigan, defeated Bontley, State, 6-1, 6-2. In the doubles, Stephens and Vose, Michigan, defeated Stouffer and Hendershott, State, 6-3, 6-2; and Krickbaum and Crane, Michigan, defeated Lawrence and Pierson, State, in one match, 6-2.

The varsity tennis team will entertain two Detroit teams on the home courts this week, Detroit City college coming here Friday and the University of Detroit Saturday.

YEARLING DIAMOND MEN SHOW IMPROVEMENT

Beechum of Big Rapids a Real Infielder; Danziger, Moco, Blackman Look Good.

Under the guidance of Coach Frimodig, the fresh baseball candidates are showing rapid improvement in the fine points of the game. Outfield practice has started on somewhat of a small scale while several infield combinations are daily scrambling after the sphere in a real battle for positions.

As yet, nothing definite can be said of the freshmen diamond outlook, due to the large number of candidates, but a cut in numbers is forthcoming and after that, great strides are expected to groom some of the ex-high school stars into varsity timber for next season.

Several men have demonstrated their ability already and if they continue to show signs of improvement will most likely be members of the final yearling squad. Curtis Beechum of Big Rapids has proved to be a real infield find. His pegs from third to the other infield sacks have been commendable and he is being watched daily. Danziger, Moco and Blackman of Jackson are among the other candidates, who have showed signs of baseball, which made them featured in high school circles.

him, but he showed himself to be easily the class of the field in the century.

State's first outdoor dual meet of the present season is scheduled for Saturday afternoon with Detroit City college. City college, as one of the best all around track athletes in the middle west in Doherty, who has shown exceptionally well in outdoor meets this season.

State will have a full team to meet the invaders and are expecting to upset the Detroiters.

SPARTANS SET FOR WEEK END GAMES WITH SYRACUSE AND LAKE FOREST

ENTIRE SQUAD IN GOOD SHAPE AFTER WEEK'S REST; INFIELD AND OUTFIELD MUCH IMPROVED.

With a slight rest between games, Coach Kobs has been busy the last week grooming his charges for a pair of games this week end. Syracuse university will appear here Thursday, April 29, and on the following Saturday, Lake Forest university of Illinois will back horns with the Green and White.

With his pitching staff having a full week of rest since the Michigan disaster, it is doubtful who will draw the assignment. "Lefty" Tolles as yet has not had a chance to perform on the home lot and it is possible that he will oppose Syracuse. The bespectacled hurler turned in a good game on the southern jaunt and should be about ready for action. Harry Wakefield and George Kuhn are other probabilities.

The squad has had fine weather the most of the week to work out and much improvement has been shown in the infield, which was largely responsible for the Michigan setback. "Monty" Hood looks like the man to hold down the hot corner throughout the rest of the season but Rowley is still in the race and is making the little third sacker step for the position. Captain "Baldy" Kiebler, who exhibited so strong an arm against the Wolverines, and Carl Baynes will be found around the keystone at short and second respectively.

Spiekerman, who up to the Michigan game has been Kobs' choice for the initial sack, is meeting some real competition in the person of Maeter, who worked five innings at Ann Arbor in good style. Maeter is a finished fielder but finds trouble in locating the sphere while at the plate. Kobs is working to correct this fault and Thursday may find the sophomore at first base.

Perry Fremont turned in one of his best games a week ago, making 11 putouts without an error, and is considered a fixture receiving the slants of State's trio of moundmen. The outfield is showing much improvement, especially in the hitting line. Pleser, Haskins, Tolles and Rinehart all finding the apple for safe bingles.

The game is scheduled for 1 o'clock.

Any senior graduating in June who has not ordered commencement invitations may do so this week from C. D. Miller at the Eganomian house, or L. B. Whelan at the Pi Kappa Phi house.

SPARTANS FAIL TO PLACE AT RELAYS

Alderman Qualifies for Century; Locke Breaks World Record.

State's quartet of trackmen entered in the Drake relays last week-end failed to place in any events, although Freddy Alderman did qualify for the finals in the century, an event in which Gordon Locke of Nebraska negotiated the 100 yards in 9.5-10, one fifth of a second better than the world's record. Captain Bohn Grim failed to qualify in this event, being nosed out by Snider of Auburn and Della Maria of Notre Dame.

Alderman ran his qualifying heat in 10.3-10, a time that was considered good for the condition of the rain-soaked track. Locke ran his qualifying heat in 10 flat.

Alderman was also entered in the broad jump but failed to place in the first four. The quarter mile relay team composed of Alderman, Grim, Farley and Lord was unable to do better than a sixth place, doing the quarter in 44.8. Illinois won the relay in 43.2, Notre Dame and Nebraska tied for second in 43.4, Kansas fourth with 43.5, Missouri fifth with 43.8 and State sixth in 44.8.

Locke's record probably will not stand, due to a strong wind behind
