PUBLICATION GUIDELINES:

We ask contributors to submit two (2) typed copies, following the format (on such issues as references and notes) of articles in this issue of TRANSFORMATION. Whilst the journal will cater for work at any level of abstraction, or detail, a number of criteria will guide the editors in selection of material for inclusion. Articles should aim for academic rigour but also clarify the political implications of the issues discussed. We are concerned not to compete with other South African journals that may cover related ground but in different ways—this will govern our selection principles. All articles will be assessed anonymously by the referees. Contributions should preferably not exceed the following lengths:

Analytical articles: 8 000 words

Debates, comment and review articles: 3 000 words

The views expressed in TRANSFORMATION do not necessarily reflect those of the editors.

CONTENTS

Articles

- The Empirical Evidence on the Location Determinants of FDI and South Africa's Industrial Development Strategy 1
Judith Streak and Taryn Dinkelman question several of the arguments about foreign direct investment (FDI) in South Africa, and introduce necessary complexity into the debate.
- Bridging the Gap between Research and Planning in 'Sustainable Development' Projects: lessons from the Wild Coast 33
What analytical steps need to be taken to bridge the gap between research and development planning, ask JZ Kiepiel and TKC Quintan in this contribution based on an environmental case study in the Eastern Cape.
- Industrial Policy-Making in the Auto, Textile and Clothing Sectors: labour's strategic ambivalence 55
Philip Hirschsohn, Shane Godfrey and Johan Maree examine the role of labour, along with those of state and business, in industrial policy-making in these three important industries.

Commentary

Financing Regional Development: the role of South African financial institutions 89

Jens Erik Torp and Vishnu Padayachee focus on the Development Bank of Southern Africa and the Industrial Development Corporation in this commentary on financing within the Southern African Development Community.

Review
